

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

DAVIS REITERATES CHARGES AGAINST DAUGHERTY IN LETTER WRITTEN FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL

Atlanta Voters To Decide Warm Races Today

MAYORALTY RACE CENTERS INTEREST OF CITY PRIMARIES

Present Indications Are That Pleasant Weather Conditions Will Draw Vote of 16,000.

MAYOR SIMS AND KEY HOLD FINAL RALLIES

Both Candidates Declare Themselves Confident of Victory—Woman Running for Warden.

A heavy vote in the city primary today was forecast by political observers Tuesday following announcement that weather indications were for clear skies and a moderate temperature throughout the day.

Probably 16,000 voters, or 60 per cent of the 27,740 voters registered were expected to register their preference in the mayoralty, chief of construction, tax collector, city marshal, city warden, two aldermanic and nine councilmanic races to be decided between the time the polls open at 7 o'clock this morning and close at 7 o'clock tonight.

J. P. Wall, chairman of the city democratic executive committee which has charge of the primary, stated that all voters in line at the closing hour would be permitted to vote.

Rallies Close Campaign.

The campaign came to a close with a series of political meetings and rallies in practically all sections of the city, principal among which were Mayor Walter A. Sims' meeting at the corner of Spring and Carnegie Way and former Mayor James L. Key's speech on Peoples street near Howell park. Other candidates spoke at both meetings.

Key Reads Sims' Indorsement.

Indorsement of Walter A. Sims' candidacy for reelection by the Atlanta Taxpayers' league, through Frank Weldon, its secretary, read by former Mayor Key, his opponent, to Seventh ward voters in the front yard of the Walter G. Cooper residence at 1000 Peachtree street, was the only new angle developed by either of the candidates in the final exchange of arguments on the eve of the campaign.

Key read the letter which urged property owners to support Sims because he was for more bonds and higher taxes, and replied to it by declaring that neither increases nor bond issues could be made without the aid of the people at the polls, as Sims' administration. The speaker, however, reiterated that he would support a new bond issue for schools.

Final Plea By Sims.

Sims made his final plea for votes at the corner of Spring and Carnegie Way on the same issues that have been threshed out by both candidates during the entire campaign. Expected sensational charges failed to develop, and although he assailed his opponent, Sims elected to stick to the principal issues instead of injecting personalities into the talk.

He expressed confidence in an overwhelming victory at the polls today, stating that 90 per cent of the people are for him. "The people are taking the same stand that the power company and Atlanta newspapers are taking. They are not as much for me, but are against Key. He just has a case of 'anti-everything' and the only reaction is to make everybody against him."

Results Carpenter Probe.

"Why, Key hasn't nerve enough to back his own record," Sims continued, "because he knows how bad that record is. During the last year of his administration things were so bad that to call a man a 'Jim Key' meant a fight. During that time men would stand for being called anything, but the worst insult, and the one that meant fight, was to call him a 'Jim Key'."

Reviews Own Record.

Sims reviewed his own record in detail, and promised that if the people today return him to the office of the city's chief executive, he will continue his policy of economic and business-like government that has marked his present administration.

He said he had kept the schools open when council proposed to close them from September of this year until January 1, 1925, by vetoing the measure, and later by borrowing

Huge Tidal Wave Hits Leningrad; Relief Is Rushed

Portion of Former Petrograd Submerged Under Ten Feet of Water.

Moscow, September 23.—The city of Leningrad (formerly Petrograd) has been flooded by a huge tidal wave, which submerged portions of the city under ten feet of water, according to a dispatch to the Russian telegraph agency.

Food and other relief equipment are being rushed to Leningrad, following calls for help from the stricken city.

The dispatch gave no estimate of any loss of life, but reported that police and soviet troops were maintaining complete order.

Water, swept into the River Neva by the action of a storm in the Gulf of Finland, burst the river's banks and loosed a ten-foot wall of water on the city. It is reported here that the water still is rising.

The Winter Palace square was submerged. The Nevsky Prospect was transformed into a raging torrent. Great trees were uprooted and horses and wagons which were caught in the flood were swept away and upset. Occupants of these were rescued with difficulty.

Police and red troops are patrolling Leningrad. Communist troops have begun to organize first-aid relief.

BOARD APPOINTED TO PROBE PLANE, BATTLESHIP MERIT

Committee of Nine To Consider Aviation Developments and Recommend Policy for Future

Washington, September 23.—The special board suggested by President Coolidge to investigate the relative effectiveness of battleships and aircraft was announced Tuesday night by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur as follows:

Admiral E. B. Eberle, chief of naval operations, senior member; Maj. Gen. J. A. Lejeune, head of marine corps; Rear Admiral C. S. Williams, Rear Admiral H. P. Jones, Rear Admiral Joseph Strauss, Rear Admiral A. T. Long, Rear Admiral W. W. Phelps, Capt. H. H. Hough, U. S. N.; Commander W. W. Smith, U. S. N., secretary.

In his instructions to the board, Secretary Wilbur said that it should consider recent aviation developments and recommend a policy for development of the various branches of the navy, with particular reference to aircraft, and also to the coming session of congress. The board was instructed to seek information from experienced officers of both the army and the navy, and the possibilities of the submarine as well as aircraft and surface ships will be investigated.

This board is the outgrowth of the round-the-world airplane flight just being completed by the army. President Coolidge was so impressed with this feat that he has come to question seriously whether it does not forecast the passing of the big battleship as a fighting weapon. He asked Secretary Wilbur to appoint the board to investigate the question and recommend a new policy to congress.

Coolidge opposes spending heavy sums to keep up a battleship fleet if that arm of the navy has been made obsolete by the development of aircraft. Already the proposal has precipitated a warm debate among army and navy officials. It is probable that the board's recommendations will be made the subject of an extensive investigation by congress at the coming session.

PASSING OF JAZZ LEADS DRUMMER TO TAKE OWN LIFE

Berlin, September 23.—"The days of jazz music are gone and as there is nothing else for me to do, I have decided to hang myself," were the farewell words of Kurt Krausler, bass drummer in a Berlin jazz band.

Krausler was discharged because he persisted in dominating the band's performances by the lusty application of his drumsticks and cymbals. When told that modern dance music no longer liked excessive noise, Krausler was seized with a fit of melancholy and disappeared.

He was found hanging by a strap taken from his bass drum from a tree in the Greenwald.

GENERAL SAWYER, HARDING'S DOCTOR, CLAIMED BY DEATH

Personal Physician of Late President Stricken by Cerebral Hemorrhage While Lying in Office.

MRS. HARDING HAD SEAT BESIDE HIM

Served Harding Throughout Stay in White House and Was With Him at Death in West.

Marion, Ohio, September 23.—Brigadier-General Charles Elmer Sawyer, former personal physician to the late President Warren G. Harding, died suddenly at "White Oak Farm," his home, here today.

Dr. Sawyer died of cerebral hemorrhage while reclining in his office, where he was waiting for his son, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, to bring him some medicine. He had returned to his home early in the afternoon, complaining of not feeling well.

Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, wife of the late president, who has been making her home at "White Oak Farm" since his death, was with Dr. Sawyer when the end came. He died while sleeping.

Slightly more than a year from the time Dr. Sawyer stood by the bedside of President Harding in a San Francisco hotel and watched the end come, the president's wife performed the same service to the physician.

Harding's Close Friend.

A close friend of President Harding, Dr. Sawyer was appointed the latter's personal physician soon after Mr. Harding was inaugurated. He was later appointed a brigadier-general in the army. He accompanied Mr. Harding on his trip to Alaska and was in constant attendance upon him during his illness.

General Sawyer remained for a time as personal physician to President Coolidge, but resigned to become chairman of the Harding Memorial association, which plans to erect a monument here to the memory of the late president.

Funeral arrangements had not been made tonight.

Though diminutive in stature, Brigadier-General Charles E. Sawyer cut a wide swath in Washington from the day he appeared here with the Hardings to be the white house physician.

He was brought to Washington by President Harding, because of his familiarity with the case of Mrs. Harding, whom he had saved from death in a previous illness. He was a civilian, but President Harding commissioned him a brigadier-general in the reserve corps and placed him on the retired list.

Continued on Page 7, Column 3.

"Unloaded Gun" Sends Boy of 15 To City Hospital

Hardy Fryer Is Badly Wounded by Playmate, Elsie Cline.

With gunshot wounds in his neck and left shoulder, Hardy Fryer, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Fryer, of College Park, is in Grady hospital and is believed to be in a serious condition as results of having been shot accidentally Tuesday afternoon by his companion, Elsie Cline, 17-year-old son of Tom Cline, of Red Oak.

The wounding of young Fryer occurred in the back yard of Meth Maynard's home, near Red Oak, when Cline fired upon his companion with a shotgun which both believed to be empty, it is stated.

Cline and Fryer, with several other boys, had just returned from a squirrel hunt, and were in the act of disbanding. Young Cline, it is said, believing his shotgun to be empty, remarked to his comrade, playfully, "I'm going to shoot you."

Turning his back, Fryer answered, "all right, but be sure to miss me."

The older boy pulled the trigger of his gun and Fryer crumpled to the ground.

He was rushed to Grady hospital in the ambulance of A. C. Hemperley, undertaker of East Point.

Germany To Apply To Enter League; Capital Anxious

Geneva Elated at Favorable Action Taken Tuesday by Marx-Stressemann Cabinet.

U. S. Will Participate in Disarmament Conference Unless Agenda Proves To Be Objectionable.

Washington, September 23.—Far-reaching effects of the league of nations' armament conference, set for next June, may be expected on this side of the water. Officials of this government have made no formal statement of their attitude, but it can be said that the United States will participate, provided there is nothing objectionable in the agenda, which is to be drawn up in advance of the conference. This development probably will put an end to President Coolidge's plan for holding a second Washington conference.

Developments at Geneva are causing this government to give deep thought to the future relations between the United States and the league. Complications arising out of America's effort to remain out of the league, and yet participate in its major activities, are increasing.

Certain To Be Factor.

The present situation may have arisen too late to become much of a factor in the present campaign, but it is certain that the league—barring a fiasco at its armament conference—will be one of the vital issues four years hence. Already a good many democrats are beginning to lament the late step at the New York convention.

They are finding some enjoyment, however, in the difficulties of the republicans in devising a formula which will square with the party's record and which will at the same time satisfy the country. The task is complicated by the influence which Senator Lodge continues to exercise in the senate. There is a general feeling, however, that as soon as he releases his control on the bill, a new policy will be worked out. Secretary of State Hughes was a pro-league republican four years ago, and is pursuing his present policy, he is only playing his part as a dutiful soldier.

The first big complication occurred over the world court which Hughes wanted to join. Lodge blocked this and sponsored a plan for a substitute tribunal, which, in substance, if not in form, was a proposal to divorce the court from the league.

League, Court Tied Together.

But that plan has become futile because the league, by its arbitration plan, is tying up the court closer than ever, making it the supreme judicial body of the league. It will be difficult for the United States to adhere to any armament and arbitration plan worked out at the league conference, unless it also signs the world court protocol.

The alternative of keeping out of the whole business will be difficult, assuming that an effective plan is adopted at the armament conference. Germany's application for membership.

Continued on Page 6, Column 7.

Both Urge Entrance.

Both Chancellor Marx and Foreign Minister Stresemann addressed the cabinet meeting, and urged entrance into the league.

Marx revealed that Friedrich Nansen, who came here recently on a semi-official league mission to discuss German participation in the league, had promised that Germany's application could be treated in a special league session. It is considered probable, however, that Germany's application will come before the league council.

Continued on Page 9 Column 4.

"Darling Boy," Says Partner Of Prince on Broadway Tour

HAD NO "LINE" AT ALL, ASSERTS ACTRESS

BY LYLE C. WILSON.

New York, September 23.—On the word of Miss Virginia de Lanty, a pretty actress, who lives on the edge of the bright-light district in the 70's, H. R. H., the Prince of Wales, is a "darling boy." Virginia should know, because it was she who accompanied Wales on one of his excursions through Broadway during the vacation that he came over here to spend on rural Long Island.

It also was Virginia who gave the upper crust of the social pie something to talk about a week ago last Saturday, when she was widely commented upon as the mysterious "black-haired young woman" who sat in the royal box during the playing of one of the international polo matches.

"Sure, it was me in the box," said Virginia, "and I had a great time, even if some old hen who sat with us did ig-hat me because I was an actress."

Pooh-Poohs Old Hen.

"Pooh-pooh for her," she continued, "as if I cared."

Virginia told the United News how she was taken into the princely presence for dancing at the Trocadero.

"The prince had another engagement that night and he left after the polo to 'make his excuses.' I think

PASTOR IS TAKEN TO SEPARATE JAIL FROM HIS AFFINITY

Confession of Mrs. Sweetin Follows Three-Hour Meeting and Talk With Her Lover.

MINISTER'S APPEAL BROKE WOMAN DOWN

All Angles of Illinois Love Triangle Cleared Up With Complete Statement by Woman.

Mount Vernon, Ill., September 23.—With confessions of their poison plot romance in the hands of State's Attorney, Thompson, the Rev. Lawrence M. Hight and Mrs. Elsie Sweetin were taken from Mount Vernon jail to night and placed in jail at Nashville and Salem, respectively.

Not so much the fears of Sheriff Holcomb that a threatening crowd might assemble prompted the move, the sheriff said, but because there are no quarters here for women prisoners. So the two principals in this striking love story of a mining town circuit rider were separated after a brief, but fervid farewell, each under charges of murder.

Almost three hours the two were permitted to remain together this morning and this meeting furnished the missing link in the double murder, namely, Mrs. Sweetin's part in the confessed poison plot. Their meeting was one filled with affection, as was their separation when she was led away to Nashville, Ill., and he was taken to jail in Salem, Ill.

Farwell Impassioned.

Only Sheriff Holcomb and a few of his deputies were silent witnesses of the short but impassioned farewell of the two. Looking down into her eyes, the clergyman, with dragging step, approached the woman for whom he had confessed his love, grasped her hand and keeping the tears from his eyes, murmured in a depressed tone: "Good-bye, my dear; I hope, somehow, we meet again."

No response came from Mrs. Sweetin.

Pressing back all outbursts of his stirred emotions, the clergyman turned away and was taken from her.

She, too, hesitated as she followed the two deputies who were to take her to Belleville.

This was the big event for the town-folk in the morning, but they seemed to have forgotten about the "love triangle" in the evening and permitted their thoughts to drift away from the topic of the day to merrymaking at the Jefferson county fair.

Tonight, State's Attorney Thompson was sleeping deeply, having spent two sleepless nights in obtaining the confessions. Never before, he said, had he met two prisoners so willing to have the crime investigated for

Continued on Page 7, Column 2.

First Airplanes To Circle Globe Arrive at Home

More Than 100,000 Greet World Fliers on Return to Starting Point.

Clover Field, Santa Monica, Calif., September 23.—The first airplanes to encircle the earth flew home today when Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, flight commander, led three world-cruisers back to Santa Monica where they were built.

The "greatest reception of any place in the world" greeted the fliers, Lieutenant Smith said as he got of his flag plane, Chicago, to kiss his mother. There were more than 100,000 persons on the field to roar a welcome to the fliers.

The home-coming was only a momentary stop, for Thursday they will resume the flight toward Seattle, the next leg being to San Francisco.

"Where's Donald Douglas?" he sure has built some planes?" asked Lieutenant Erik Nelson, engineering officer of the world flight, as he jumped from the New Orleans and quickly found the airplane maker on the field and hugged him.

The world cruisers, mechanically perfect, hummed their way up from San Diego against head winds following the coast line most of the time. They flew over Los Angeles, then turned down to the field by the seashore, landing in one hour and 40 minutes after they hopped off from Rockwell field, San Diego.

FIGHTING HALTED; LU'S CAPITULATION TO CHI RUMORED

Defender of Shanghai Likely To Withdraw if Peace Negotiations Now in Progress Succeed.

Shanghai, September 23.—With fighting halted on the Shanghai front, rumors predict peace negotiations and the capitulation of General Lu Yung Hsiang.

It is declared that General Lu, defending Shanghai, is likely to withdraw, permitting General Chi Hsiang Yuen's troops to enter Shanghai peacefully.

The Kuangsu forces are prepared to launch a new and smashing offensive if the expected parley fails. Collapse of a peace parley would mean the immediate bombardment of Shanghai, it is said.

In the foreign settlement, extensive preparations have been made to defend the quarter if disorders break out or Shanghai is occupied by force. Lu's soldiers are themselves a serious menace to the foreign settlement in the event of the surrender of the Shanghai district.

The Hangchow railway has been cut by the blowing up of a bridge along the line.

Meanwhile, both opposing leaders are busy bringing up reinforcements and strengthening their lines. There is a report current that in the event of Chi offensive, Lu Yung Hsiang intends ultimately to retreat to within two miles of the foreign settlement, hoping that if Chi attacks him there, the shells of the invaders will fall within the foreign quarter, thus forcing intervention by the foreign troops and warships stationed here. Foreign intervention, at this stage of the fight, would favor Lu's shattered forces.

Reversing earlier promises, the Chinese authorities here have refused permission to Major Zanni, Argentine "round-the-world flier," to land at Shanghai. Zanni, who is now at Hong Kong, may ignore the Chinese orders and fly here just the same.

NO REASON FOUND FOR WITHDRAWING SINGLE STATEMENT

Instead of Apologizing and Retracting, Democratic Nominee Hits Former Official Harder.

CRITICISE DAUGHERTY FOR APPOINTING MEANS

Quotes Former Statements To Show Charges Were Both "Direct and Specific."

BY RALPH H. TURNER.

New York, September 23.—Instead of retracting and apologizing for the statements that he has made regarding Harry M. Daugherty, as the former attorney general demanded, John W. Davis, democratic standard bearer, in an open letter Tuesday night, reiterated and emphasized his campaign utterances that drew a protest from Daugherty.

Instead of his references to Daugherty being "vague" or "veiled," as Daugherty said in his letter to Davis, the democratic candidate quoted his allusions to the former cabinet officer to show that they were direct and specific and added that he found "no warrant whatever for withdrawing any single statement."

So far as Gaston B. Means, star witness before the senate committee which investigated the alleged corruption in the department of justice under Daugherty's administration, was concerned, Davis said that the appointment of "of such a man in the department of justice was of itself ample warrant for the summary removal of the attorney general by whom he was appointed."

No Reason to Charge.

"I observe that since your letter was delivered to me, he (Means) has once more recanted and repudiated his repudiation," said Davis. "When he testified before the Brookhart committee, I expressed the opinion, which I see no reason to change, that no man should be convicted of any offense on the uncorroborated testimony of a witness whose evil character was so generally known as his."

"It was you, however, who appointed him to a confidential position in the department of justice. You brought him into the circle of your official intimates. You created him a government agent. You gave him his credentials. At the time you did so, his character was already notorious, and if I am not mistaken, there was then to be found, in the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, a file in which his previous history was fully disclosed. I can imagine no maladministration in any governmental department more vicious than the employment of men of such character."

Quotes From Speech.

"In my speech of acceptance," Davis wrote, "I spoke of an attorney general, meaning yourself—admitting bribe takers to the department of justice; making them his bon companions and utilizing the agencies of the

Continued on Page 7, Column 4.

The Weather FAIR.

GEORGIA: Generally fair Wednesday and Thursday; except showers and thunderstorms in extreme south portion; moderate east and northeast winds.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature ..... 73
Lowest temperature ..... 58
Mean temperature ..... 65
Normal temperature ..... 71
Rainfall in past 24 hours, inches, .105
Excess since 1st of month, inches 1.05
Deficiency since Jan. 1, inches, 2.08

7 a.m. Noon 7 p.m.

Dry temperature ..... 72 63 61
Wet bulb ..... 59 63 61
Relative humidity ..... 53 63 66

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS (Temperature) Rain (inches) Wind (m.p.h.)

ATLANTA, Ga. cloudy ..... 68 73 .00
Birmingham, Ala. cloudy ..... 68 72 .00
Boston, Mass. clear ..... 54 60 .00
Buffalo, N. Y. clear ..... 52 58 .00
Charlotte, N. C. cloudy ..... 68 80 .10
Chicago, Ill. clear ..... 58 62 .00
Cleveland, Ohio ..... 68 72 .00
Denver, Colo. clear ..... 66 74 .00
Des Moines, Ia. clear ..... 70 82 .00
Galveston, Texas ..... 78 82 .00
Hatteras, N. C. cloudy ..... 68 78 .00
Harlem, N. Y. cloudy ..... 70 82 .00
Jacksonville, Fla. rain ..... 70 74 .00
Kansas City, Mo. clear ..... 68 74 .00
Memphis, Tenn. clear ..... 68 74 .00
Miami, Fla. clear ..... 80 84 .00
Minneapolis, Minn. clear ..... 70 78 .00
Mobile, Ala. cloudy ..... 78 84 .00
New Orleans, La. cloudy ..... 70 82 .00
New York, N. Y. clear ..... 56 66 .00
North Platte, Neb. clear ..... 64 72 .00
Oklahoma City, Okla. clear ..... 70 80 .00
Pittsburgh, Pa. clear ..... 56 64 .00
Raleigh, N. C. clear ..... 64 70 .00
San Francisco, Calif. clear ..... 60 68 .00
Salt Lake City, Utah ..... 78 82 .00
St. Louis, Mo. clear ..... 70 80 .00
Tampa, Fla. clear ..... 80 86 .00
Tenn. clear ..... 64 72 .00
Toledo, Ohio ..... 54 62 .00
Victoria, B. C. clear ..... 58 66 .00
Washington, D. C. clear ..... 62 70 .00

C. F. von HUEBNER,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Advertisements

Advertise in the morning.
Advertise at night.
Advertise on billboards.
And with lights that shine out bright.
Advertise in the springtime.
Advertise in the fall.
But ads in The Constitution
Will pay the best of all.

How Much Do You Spend FOR Groceries?

It isn't so much WHAT YOU SPEND as it is WHAT YOU GET. When you buy at A&P Stores you get GUARANTEED QUALITY backed by a Company with 65 years' experience as FOOD SPECIALISTS—AND THE COST IS ACTUALLY LESS HERE THAN ELSEWHERE.

Rutabagas Canadian, Large and Firm 3 Lbs. 10<sup>c</sup>

Porto Rican YAMS Lb. 4<sup>c</sup>

FANCY VIRGINIA COBBLERS, 10 Lbs. 27<sup>c</sup>

Iona Brand CORN Sweet and No. 2 Can Tender 11<sup>c</sup>

PEANUT BUTTER In Bulk Lb. 22<sup>c</sup>

3 6-Oz. Cakes IVORY SOAP, 20<sup>c</sup>

A. & P. Quality Products

APPLE BUTTER 38-Oz. Jar 30<sup>c</sup> GRAPE JUICE Pint Bot. 25<sup>c</sup>

Low Prices Still Prevail on DRIED FRUITS

APRICOTS, Ex. Choice, lb. - 25<sup>c</sup>

PRUNES, 40-50 to lb., Oregon, lb., 13<sup>c</sup>; California, lb., 17<sup>c</sup>

PEACHES, Blue Ribbon, Ex. Choice, lb. - 17 1/2<sup>c</sup>

Market Day RAISINS 4-lb. Bag 50<sup>c</sup>
Special, Seedless

Nothing Better These Autumn Evenings Than

MACARONI and CHEESE

A&P Brand 9-Oz. Pkg. 10<sup>c</sup> N. Y. State Full Cream Lb. 30<sup>c</sup>

Sunnyfield Sliced Breakfast BACON No Rind Lb. 35<sup>c</sup>

Headquarters for the Best

COFFEE and TEA

BOKAR Coffee Supreme Lb. 45<sup>c</sup> Orange Pekoe, India-Ceylon or Mixed 2-Oz. Pkg. 1/4-Lb. Pkg. 1/2-Lb. Pkg. 10<sup>c</sup> 20<sup>c</sup> 39<sup>c</sup>
Red Circle, lb. - 40<sup>c</sup>
8 O'Clock, lb. - 35<sup>c</sup>

A&P Brand Succotash No. 2 Can 22<sup>c</sup>

Finest Green Lima Beans and Corn

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

LEAGUE APPROVES PARIS INSTITUTE

Geneva, September 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—The assembly of the league of nations today authorized the foundation in Paris of an international institute for intellectual cooperation to be conducted under the auspices of the league of nations.

The assembly then adjourned until Thursday morning. President Metta announced that it would be impossible to complete the work of the assembly this week because of the general desire to obtain definite action on the draft protocol for arbitration and security.

GERMANY TO SEEK LEAGUE ENTRANCE.

Berlin, September 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Germany will, in the near future, make efforts to enter the league of nations on an equal footing with the great powers, it was officially announced today in a communiqué issued at the close of a cabinet meeting.

President Ebert presided at the meeting, after which the following communiqué was issued:

"The question of Germany's entry into the league of nations was thoroughly discussed and it was unanimously agreed that the efforts of the German government should be directed towards Germany's entrance into the league in the near future."

"The government's standpoint in this respect is prompted by consideration that the questions dealt with by the league of nations, especially the protection of minorities, the regulation of conditions in the Saar region, general disarmament in connection with carrying out military control and the paramount question of the safety and peaceful cooperation of the nations, can be solved satisfactorily only with Germany's collaboration."

Only Eberting. Germany's collaboration could, of course, be only that of a great power on equal footing with the other nations.

"As the solution of the reparation question achieved at the London conference opened, in the opinion of the nations chiefly concerned, the way for Germany to the practical treatment of the question of Germany's entry into the league, discussions in this respect were begun after the conclusion of the London conference. The result of these soundings has been taken as the basis of today's decision of the government."

"In execution of this decision, the government will, through the foreign office, seek definite enlightenment from the nations who are members of the league as to whether the guarantee required by Germany prior to her accession to enter the league, will be given relative both to Germany's position in the league and to the other questions intimately connected therewith."

Frightened Tot Seeking Family Identifies Dead

Boston, September 23.—A frightened 11-year-old boy, Theodore Mara, who had been spending all day trying to find his mother, two sisters and a brother, last night was taken to the northern mortuary, and there identified as the missing relatives of the bodies of four of the victims of the automobile which Sunday night crashed through a bridge and plunged into Fort Point channel. Its five occupants were drowned. The fifth victim was identified earlier as that of Michael Dubrov, driver of the car.

Theodore and a younger brother, Henry, aged 8, had gone to visit their father at a hospital in Mattapan Sunday. Returning home they were told that their mother and the others had gone for an automobile ride. When late at night no one had returned home, a boarder took them into his room to pass the night.

Yesterday morning Theodore visited his grandmother and an aunt, but found no news of his mother. Neighbors, reading of the accident in a newspaper and knowing that Mrs. Mara and her children had not returned, informed the police.

The accident occurred when Dubrov was unable to turn his car at the dead end of Dorchester avenue and the machine went through the railing of the bridge to the channel.

Proof in demonstration in Paraguay cotton fields that the iron plow is an essential factor in production caused such a demand for American plows at Asuncion this year that the supply was less than the demand.

LAURENS COTTON CROP NEARS 17,000 BALES

Dublin, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Approximately 70 per cent of Laurens county's cotton crop has been ginned to date, according to unofficial estimates of chamber of commerce officials here today. The crop in this section is unusually well advanced, having been planted earlier than is usual, and resulted in an early maturing weed.

Reports from rural sections in Lowndes and adjoining counties bring information that cotton receipts are slumping to such an extent that gins are no longer able to operate on a paying basis for more than three days each week.

The crop is estimated at around 17,000 bales, and in most instances is being placed on the market as rapidly as it is ginned and in marketable shape. Prices have not been as good as many expected, and the profits from the crop have been considerably reduced. Expenses of making cotton this year are higher than usual, owing to the determination of a successful fight to curtail weevil infestation. An average amount of high-grade fertilizer was used with large quantities of calcium arsenate, necessitating extra farm help.

As a whole, however, conditions are much better than at any time during the past five years. The morale of the farmer, depressed for several seasons, is in the ascendancy, and prospects are splendid for a slow and safe return to middle Georgia of conditions approximating those of pre-war days.

WORKERS ATTENDING SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET

Americus, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Sunday school workers and teachers in Americus and Cordele districts are interested in the sessions of training classes which began here Monday night in the auditorium of the First Methodist church, with an enrollment of nearly 100.

Among the lecturers will be Dr. George S. Rosser, of Wesleyan college, who will instruct teachers and students in "Biblical Literature;" Miss Ethel Smithers, of Richmond, Va., head of the elementary work in the Richmond Methodist conference, who will talk on primary work; Rev. George W. Hutchinson, of Wesleyan college, whose subject will be "Organization and Administration;" Miss Lois Rogers, head of the department of psychology and religious education at Wesleyan college, who will instruct in the "Principles of Teaching."

Teachers and students from Buena Vista, Cordele and other nearby towns are attending, and Rev. John M. Outler, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Rev. Luther M. Harrell, pastor of the Lee street congregation, are assisting in the meetings.

PROSPERITY IS SEEN BY HEAD OF CENTRAL

Savannah, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—L. A. Downs, president of the Central of Georgia railroad, back today from a trip over the lines of that road in Georgia and Alabama, declared that prospects are finer for bigger business than for many years. Prices generally for the producers, he said, are profitable, and prospects for carriers are brighter than for some time.

Crops are better and good times are already here, he declared, after a first-hand survey of the agricultural situation.

SEEK LAW FOR FUND TO ADVERTISE COUNTIES

Savannah, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The Savannah board of trade Thursday will begin a movement to create interest in a proposed state law to permit counties to appropriate or spend certain funds for advertising purposes. The board of trade secretary has received a communication from Attorney General George M. Napier advising that there is no such law existing now in Georgia.

A CHANGE MEAT SKINNERS' MACARONI

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

Story of Indian Torture Horrors Bared by Police

Vancouver, B. C., September 23.—A weird tale of witchcraft, torture and murder came over the wires from faraway Telegraph creek today.

It was a message from a royal Canadian mounted policeman announcing that after trekking for a year through northern British Columbia, he was returning to civilization with an aged Indian squaw and four others who killed a young brave by inches because his "sorcery" brought the wrath of the evil spirits upon his tribesmen.

Atol Moassin was the victim's name. The name of the squad charged with his murder was not contained in the policeman's dispatch. There was only a brief account of the crime.

Hunting Is Poor.

A year ago, said the message, hunting suddenly became very poor among the Indians of the northern wilderness. A long cold winter followed and starvation, disease and death cut swaths in the ranks of the tribesmen.

The superstition of their religion taught the Indians that some one of their number, some sorcerer and maker of "bad medicine" whose witch-cries invoked the wrath of the evil spirit, had brought calamity upon the tribe. Suspicion fell upon the youth Atol.

Led by the aged squaw the tribesmen invaded his shack at night, found him mumbling strange words over his tiny wood fire, and laid hands on him. They tied him to a sapling, head downward, and let him hang for days, slowly dying.

Woman Cut Throat.

At length the aged woman grew impatient that Atol died so slowly, according to the policeman's telegraphed account, and so she cut his throat with a hunting knife.

Over the trails from camp to the mounted police and one of its members set forth to bring the slayers to justice.

Reply to Playwright.

"The Atheism of Rupert Hughes" is the subject of a lecture to be given Wednesday night by Dr. G. W. Gasque, at the Church of Our Savior.

The lecture is in the nature of a reply to a magazine article by the well known playwright.

The Wembley exposition at London has taken the place of mother-in-law jokes on the English stage and reference to it, complimentary or otherwise, is sure to bring a laugh from the audience.

PHILIPPINE LID GOES ON TIGHTLY

Washington, September 23.—State department instructions directing all consuls in the United States foreign service to decline to clear vessels on which liquor for beverage purposes was loaded and destined for the Philippine Islands have been issued on the basis of a legal decision that shipments of such liquors to the Philippines was deemed to be contrary to the eighteenth amendment.

Distribution of the instructions by the department was made known today upon the receipt of dispatches from Manila reporting that Governor General Leonard Wood had requested that the American consul at Hongkong, China, be instructed to issue bills of lading to vessels sailing from that port for the Philippines with liquor cargoes.

The dispatches indicated a belief on the part of Governor Wood that the Philippines were exempted by the Volstead act and the coast law refusing entrance to vessels on route from Hongkong to the Philippines probably because of a wrong understanding of the provisions of the law.

The consular orders were issued by the state department last June and were based on an opinion given at that time by the acting attorney general of the department of justice.

A state department announcement today said as a result of the opinion submitted by the department of justice all consuls had been instructed to decline either to clear vessels or grant bills of lading to vessels on which liquor for beverage purposes is loaded for delivery in the Philippine Islands.

"This is deemed to be contrary to the 18th amendment," the announcement said.

Manila, September 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Governor General Leonard Wood today sent a cablegram to the war department at Washington requesting that the American consul at Hongkong be advised that the provisions of the Volstead act are not applicable to the Philippines because the islands are classed as unorganized territory of the United States.

Recently the consul refused to grant bills of lading to ships carrying liquor to the Philippines.

Fall Fashions, Music, Dancing at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

New Arrivals At Kamper's

La Choy Sprouts, jars...50c La Choy Shoyu Sauce, bottles...40c
KINK KO FIG JAM—cans...10c (A most economical spread)
PURE SOUTH GEORGIA STRAINED HONEY—qt. cans...50c (This is an unusually attractive price)

Two Unusual Demonstrations at the Main Store

HENARD'S Relish Mayonnaise Thousand Island
NORRIS' Chocolate Sauce Butter Scotch Sauce Sundae Almonds

Kamper's

R. A. BROYLES & CO. 18 CASH STORES

New Stores
934 N. Boulevard HEmlack 4613 169 Moreland Ave. IVy 2321
Delivery Within Seven Blocks

FLOUR
24 Broyles' Excellent, Highest Patent Made, There Is None Better. ONE DAY ONLY. Plain or Self-Rising
Broyles' XXX Self-Rising or Magnolia Plain, 24 lbs. $1.05

No. 2 1/2 Can Stokley Lye HOMINY,... 10c

No. 2 1/2 Can Stokley KRAUT,... 15c

No. 2 Can Stokley's CORN,... 13c

No. 2 Can Stokley's TOMATOES, 12c

RUTABAGAS, lb. . . 3c

Green Cabbage, lb. . 3c

Yellow Yam Sweet Potatoes, 5 lbs. 23c

10 Lb. S. Irish Potatoes, 24c

Crowds! Crowds!! Crowds!!!

Every day makes more friends for ATLANTA'S OWN SELF SERVICE GROCERY STORES. Simply because Nifty Jiffy quality is supreme and Nifty Jiffy savings are the biggest in town. Come today, every day, with your marketing list. Save time, steps and money.

OCTAGON SOAP

Small Bars..... 4c Large Bars..... 5 1/2c

NIFTY JIFFY STORES ARE CLEAN

TOKAY GRAPES 10<sup>c</sup> Per Pound

Quaker Oats PER PACKAGE 10c
Cream of Wheat PER PACKAGE 22c

Post Toasties PER PACKAGE 9c
Bread Large 16-Oz. Loaf 6c

SUGAR Cloth Bags 10 Pounds, 79c

NIFTY JIFFY PRICES ARE LOWER

CANTALOUPE 10<sup>c</sup>
Fancy Pink Meats

4 STORES NOW—MANY MORE SOON

POTATOES 19<sup>c</sup>
Fancy Large Virginia Cobblers... 10 Lbs.

4 STORES

7 SOUTH BROAD ST.
295 PONCE DE LEON
732 HIGHLAND AVE.
53 GORDON STREET

"Jiffy" Quality Is Better

BARFIELD'S

JUST RECEIVED
A solid car of fresh, fancy Boston Haddock and Cod Fish, which is the first car shipment of the season, and will be on sale WEDNESDAY morning at very attractive prices.

COD FISH, whole, per lb. . . . .
BOSTON HADDOCK, per lb. . . . .

The Haddock is one of the best of salt water fishes. While meat, firm, tender and appetizing. Delicious to fry, bake, broil, boil, or made into chowder. Tenderloin of Haddock cannot be beat.

WHOLESALE
Wholesale orders of Haddock in 25 pounds and over, per lb. . . . .
Special prices in barrel lots. Phone, wire or write orders in early. Special attention given to out-of-town orders.

17 E. Alabama St. Main 1236 521 Peachtree St. HEmlack 5265

ATLANTA EXHIBIT IS NOW ASSURED

Continued From First Page.

would serve to advertise this section favorably to the entire world. The exposition, he said, will be the most gigantic project of this kind attempted in the world since the great war. Representing the expenditure of millions of dollars and placing the

Representatives Busy Enrolling Pupils at the Beautiful New Southern Business College

Nearly 500 Students Now Enrolled, But Spacious Quarters Provide Ample Room for Many More.

Many pupils are enrolling for Business Courses at the new Southern Business College, now located in

Col. W. H. Preston, City Representative and Counsel for the S. S. & B. U.

Rev. B. S. Fleming, City Representative of the S. S. & B. U., and English Instructor.

HUBIG'S FAMOUS HONEY-FRUIT PIES
100 PER CENT PURE

The "Quality Pie" for 58 years Hubig's Famous Honey-Fruit Pies have been favorites for about three generations. Grandmother discovered long ago that these delicious pies were so much like her own good home-made pies that she need bake pies no longer. The housewife of today knows this, too. That same delicious quality is in every pie.

"Made with loving care"

10¢ 20¢ 30¢
at your Grocers

merits of the products of the southern states conspicuously before the world, the publicity derived will be of untold value, he claimed.

Thousands of square feet are available for Georgia and Atlanta will be allotted a round share, he stated. In her allotment of floor space the accomplishments of the "Capital City" since the day when she was razed by the armies of Sherman, will be shown to the world.

Civic and social organizations, manufacturers, bankers, capitalists and professional men have pledged their moral support and have agreed to lend all financial aid possible.

The cities of Rome, Americus, Augusta, Valdosta, Albany, Macon, Savannah and many others are now completing plans for representation and making final arrangements for floor space and elaborate exhibits.

The state of Georgia, according to Virgil Shepperd, who is taking an active interest in the success of Georgia's entrance, is advertised to the four corners of the United States, but usually through the medium of undesirable incidents. The Southern exposition will clarify the erroneous idea that the south is a land of barbarism, he declared and drive home the fact that Georgia is a progressive and humane state.

Barker Speaks.

B. S. Barker, secretary of the chamber of commerce, who has been working for several months, lining up committees and keeping in constant correspondence with manufacturers and interested citizens, asserted that Atlanta would be represented as a matter of course, but that he had been immediately notified by the representatives of the Southern exposition to place an adequate exhibit and receive sufficient floor space in the Grand Central palace to do so, a fund must be raised immediately.

Mr. Barker, according to Mr. Sirrine, president of the Southern exposition, has done splendid work in this connection.

Leading publications over the entire United States have endorsed the exposition and have given it thousands of dollars worth of publicity.

Twelve southern states have already contracted for floor space and are fast completing arrangements for exhibits, speakers stated. Practically all cities in the south will enter into the plan with enthusiasm.

The exposition is not a money-making scheme, Mr. Sirrine pointed out in explaining the birth of the idea. While officials will receive salaries, all profits will be refunded, he said.

Members of the steering committee will be announced later and any person interested in Atlanta's part in this movement is requested to communicate immediately with either Mr. Barker at the Chamber of Commerce building or Mr. Newell at his office in the Grant building.

W. R. Bridges, Traveling Representative of the S. S. & B. U.

nation about the school. This is a great convenience to patrons, as they can plan and arrange entrance for their sons and daughters with these representatives in their homes at night after returning from their daily business.

The Employment Department of the Southern has sent several students to positions during the past 10 days.

Enroll next Monday, or any Monday thereafter. Phone MAin 0251. Call or write for catalog. Address A. C. Briscoe, Pres., or L. W. Arnold, Vice Pres., 56 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

TWO NEAR DEATH AT CITY HOSPITAL.

Seven-year-old Marian Royston, of 405 Spring street, and an aged negro man, George Turner, are at the point of death in Grady hospital as the result of automobile accidents Tuesday, according to the police.

The little girl, who was struck down at Spring street and North avenue, is believed by surgeons to have a fractured skull, as well as serious bruises and cuts about the body.

The automobile that hit her was operated by Jesse Butler, 18-year-old soda jerk, of Roswell. In the machine with Butler were Mrs. John Foster, Mrs. G. T. Lyon, Mrs. Henry Bush and Miss Sarah Roberts, all of Roswell.

Victim Taken to Grady.

The injured girl was picked up by a passing motorist and taken to the hospital, and Butler drove his machine to the station house where he reported the accident to Captain Grover C. Fain, of the evening watch. A charge of reckless driving was docketed against him and he was released under a $500 bond.

The accident, occupants of the machine told Captain Fain, was unavoidable. Butler, they said, was going north in Spring street at a moderate speed and the little girl ran suddenly into the path of the car from behind an automobile that was parked on the east side of Spring street.

The aged negro was struck by a truck at East Hunter and Fraser streets, and is believed to have several broken ribs, in addition to serious wounds on the head. The truck was driven by 16-year-old Harold Corley, who lives on Norcross street, and was released under a copy of charges of reckless driving.

Witnesses told Call Officers Gerald E. Williams and J. McDaniel that Corley was driving east on Hunter street, and that it was a case of either strike down the old negro or collide with an automobile going west.

James English, 16-year-old employee of the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation, narrowly escaped death shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday morning as he topped from the back of a mule to the pavement on Decatur street, as the animal was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Beulah Cleveland, of 1220 Dekalb avenue. Doctors at Grady hospital said his back was sprained and head badly bruised, in addition to being lacerated about both arms and legs.

The accident occurred on Decatur street, at Courtland street, and was investigated by Officer J. N. Sewell, who made no case at the request of employers of the injured boy.

Officer Sewell was told that the boy who was riding the mule was bringing it to the company's plant under the Courtland street viaduct from the stables on Decatur street and that as he turned the mule to his left to go under the viaduct, the machine of Miss Cleveland crashed into the animal.

Officer's Leg Crushed.

In another accident Tuesday morning Motorcycle Officer J. W. Mashburn, Jr., suffered a badly mangled right leg. This accident occurred, according to the officer's report, when J. E. Duncan, with offices in the Citizens & Southern Bank building, drove his machine suddenly from the curbing into Peachtree street at Baker street.

Officer Mashburn said that Duncan's car had been parked and that it was driven suddenly away from the curbing without signal. The officer's motorcycle side-wiped the auto as he attempted to turn and avoid striking it, he says.

A charge of violating the traffic ordinance was docketed against Duncan.

Italy's purchases of coal from this country are increasing.

By government decree, New South Wales, Australia, is accepting no passenger car or truck for registration which is not equipped with right hand drive.

Dancing for everybody at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

NEW MODEL 10

"An amazing help in getting a mass of correspondence out of the way."—B. A. Ratcliff, Gulf Refining Company, Atlanta.

See it and listen to it at your office or ours.

Walnut 5419
430 Metropolitan Bldg.
Atlanta

TAE DICTAPHONE

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Vote for C. S. Robert for Chief of Construction.—Adv.

A LAW COURSE FOR BUSY MEN

BUSINESS men, men of affairs and men of action, are realizing more and more the advantage of a legal education. They are not only giving their best positions to young men who have completed a course in Law—they are enrolling themselves, in the Atlanta Law School, where a few hours AT NIGHT will soon give them a fair working knowledge of the principles of law. The first lecture for the new term will be given at 7:00 o'clock on Wednesday evening, October 1st.

For full information, call WALnut 0087, or address Dean.

ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL
417 Atlanta National Bk. Bldg.

BROTHERS-IN-LAW FIGHT KNIFE DUEL; ONE CUT TO DEATH

Maynardville, Tenn., September 23.—As the result of a challenge to "let a go outside and see which one lives longest," Charley Lay and Alonzo Waggoner, first cousins as well as brothers-in-law, fought a duel with knives last night and Lay died in the encounter.

The sanguine encounter occurred at the home of Luke Hurst at Miller's Ferry, five miles north of Maynardville. The two men with their wives, who are granddaughters of Hurst, were visitors in his home at the time on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Hurst.

Lay and Waggoner engaged in an argument over a trivial business deal, it is claimed, and the challenge was then passed and accepted. Pocket knives were used and Lay died in death when an artery in his face was severed by one of his antagonist's blows. Both men had been friends for a long time.

Elbert Cunard Dies at Grady Of Lysol Dose

Elbert Cunard, 22-year-old printer, died at Grady hospital at 11 o'clock Tuesday night after having taken a dose of Lysol earlier in the night at the Palace hotel, on Madison avenue, where he had engaged a room for the night.

Witnesses say that Cunard, after having swallowed the poison, walked from his room and met a man in the hall, apparently a friend, to whom he said, "George, I told you I was going to do it." "Do what?" asked the other. "Kill myself," answered Cunard. Witnesses say he then sank to the floor, unconscious.

Cunard is employed at the plant of Foote & Davies, on Capital avenue. J. A. Hodges, of 517 Crew street, who is employed at the same plant, told the police that he passed Cunard on the street a few minutes before the fatal dose of poison was taken and that Cunard appeared in the best of spirits, greeting him cordially and did not seem at all depressed.

J. D. Wynn, who runs a store across the street from the Foote & Davies plant and a friend of the dead man, said Cunard telephoned him Tuesday afternoon asking him to tell the foreman at the plant that he (Cunard) could not come to work Tuesday night.

Cunard until recently, friends say, had lived on East Fair street, but had lately resided at a downtown hotel.

Cunard is said to have mailed several letters Tuesday afternoon and sent a telegram to his brother. Whether these will disclose the reason for his fatal action is yet to be seen. Cunard married a widow, who died some time ago. She left three step-children, who, it is said, have been living with relatives.

Fabric automobile tires are giving way to straight-side tires in Greece.

New York city has four banks operated by labor organizations.

"Five for the Price of Four."

Artists' Series Season Sale

De Pachmann; San Carlo Opera Company in "Madame Butterfly"; Ruth St. Denis and Denishawn Dancers; Paul Whiteman (himself) and Orchestra; Mischke Elman.

Season ticket sale one week, beginning September 29, at PHILLIPS & CREW'S. Prices: $5, $7.50 and $10, plus tax. Mail orders received.

SOUTHERN MUSICAL BUREAU
S. Russell Bridges, President.

MEANS TO WAIT UPON COMMITTEE

Concord, N. C., Sept. 23.—Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent and star witness for the Wheeler senatorial committee investigating the department of justice, tonight issued a statement, declaring that he would have nothing further to say in connection with his testimony before the committee and its alleged repudiation in a statement issued by Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, until he ascertained whether the committee would be called in special session in the near future.

The former investigator asserted that there were many angles to his work which could not be discussed "at this time." He declared, however, if no meeting of the committee was called, he would be glad to furnish any of its members such information and facts as he claimed were in his possession.

Means arrived here last night, joining his wife and child at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. G. Means.

Confers With Lawyer.

Means arrived here last night and spent the greater portion of today in conference with his local attorney. He refused earlier today to make any statement. This afternoon he submitted to a lengthy questioning concerning the testimony which he gave before the Wheeler committee and his alleged repudiation as issued by H. M. Daugherty. He, however, until the close of the interview, refused to make any statement for publication.

When shown an Associated Press dispatch this afternoon from Washington, charging him with repudiation of his income tax, he showed no surprise, but declared he had nothing to say concerning the charges.

The impression which Means conveyed to newspaper men this afternoon was that he would not make public the alleged sensational facts he claims to have, in connection with the department of justice investigation, unless some member of the committee requests such action. He declared repeatedly that he would have absolutely nothing to say until he had ascertained sentiment of the committee members toward a special session to hear his further testimony.

BROOKHART WILLING FOR COMMITTEE MEET.
Camp Perry, Ohio, September 23.—

Senator Smith W. Brookhart, chairman of the senate Daugherty investigating committee, today said he had wired Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, the only member of the committee in Washington, that he might, if he desired, call the committee together to hear additional testimony.

DOWNSTAIRS

Our regular Wednesday clearance of broken lots of

LADIES' SLIPPERS

Choice $2.95 Pr.

There are 492 pairs in every fabric and every leather in values that formerly sold to $7.00—size a r e surprisingly good, but we urge early shopping to get the best selections.

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

Charge purchases carried to November accounts.

(Advertisement) (Advertisement)

For Re-election

City Marshall W. E. HARWELL

Steve C. Glass, Chief Deputy Courtesy and Efficiency
In Future as in the Past

(Advertisement)

The Beautiful Materials and Furs and the Fashionable Lines of Expensive Coats Are in These

Smart, New Winter Coats

$55.00

FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS—that's dollars less than you'd expect to find such coats as these priced.

They're of rich, high-pile fabrics with a soft, velvety finish—velva suede, veleurette, suede cloth and Avanzenda—the materials that are going into expensive coats for winter. In kit fox, bark, brown and black.

Straight and graceful; coats of slenderizing lines—with silk stitching and rows of buttons up the sides to accentuate their slimmness.

Trimmed with fur—not only fur collars, but often fur cuffs and fur bands to match—Jap mink, dyed squirrel, soft gray squirrel, skunk and wolf. And all of these coats are beautifully lined with silk.

These are wonderful coats for $55.

Three other interesting groups of coats are presented at $34.75, $43.75 and $69.75

Just Arrived from New York!
New Frocks of Wool
$24.75

And we've barely got time to put a brief mention of them in the paper. Dresses of Poirat twill, twillochen and other materials, in plain tailored, button trimmed and colored embroidery trimmed styles. They're in navy and brown and black and you're going to be delighted with everything about them, including the price—$24.75!

High's Fashion Section—Second Floor

J. M. HIGH COMPANY

EMORY OPENS TERM OF 1924-25 TODAY

Emory University, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Rev. J. B. Mitchell, pastor of St. Mark's church, will deliver the convocation address at Emory university at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the university will formally begin the 1924-25 term. About 2,000 students have been registered this year, and registration will continue tomorrow, it was announced tonight by J. G. Stipe, registrar.

Brother of Cook, Fairburn Banker, Fails for $58,408

Walter C. Cook, a farmer living near Fairburn, and brother of H. W. Cook, prominent land owner of Campbell county, whose half-million-dollar failure was made public a short time ago, filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy in federal district court here Tuesday. Attorneys listed his liabilities at $58,408.73, and his assets at $1,200 to $1,500.

Last chance, Boy Scouts

There's still time to enter the big Eastman picture-making contest for one hundred $22 Kodaks.

But you had better drop in here at once and get entry blanks and full information. Contest closes October 1st.

Developing, printing and enlarging of the superior kind.
Eastman Kodak Co.
(Glenn Photo Stock Co.)
183 Peachtree St.

3 New Georgia Congressmen Take Seats in 69th Session

Three new congressmen from Georgia will take seats in the 69th congress. Former Congressman Charles G. Edwards, of the first district, defeated Congressman R. Lee Moore, of Statesboro, incumbent; Judge E. E. Cox, of Camilla, defeated Congressman Frank Park, of Sylvester, in the second district, and Samuel Rutherford, of Forsyth, defeated Ben J. Fowler, of Macon, for the seat in the third district. The total in the School of Liberal Arts and the School of Business Administration alone will total 700, it is said. The increase in the student body will exceed the 15 per cent estimate, according to predictions, and plans to care for the large number are being pushed by the committee in charge of dormitory accommodations.

EDWARDS NOMINATED FOR SIXTH TIME.

Savannah, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Charles G. Edwards, congressman-elect from the first district, is a native of the part of Tattnall county which is now included in the newer county of Evans. He was born July 2, 1878. He was educated at

CHARLES G. EDWARDS

Gordon institute, Barnesville, then in Pike county, in Lamar county. He obtained his law degree at the University of Georgia, Athens, in 1898. He practiced in Reidsville for a number of years and then moved to Savannah.

He married Miss Eva Beach, of Waycross, Ware county, and has a son, Charles Beach Edwards. He was nominated for congress October, 1908, and was elected to the 60th congress, reelected to the 61st, 62nd, 63rd and 64th, declining to be a candidate for reelection in 1918, when J. W. Overstreet, of Sylvania, Screven county, was nominated and elected, serving until 1923.

While in congress he obtained an appropriation of $10,000 for the erection of a monument at Midway church, in Liberty county, to the memory of the two Revolutionary generals of the state, Screven and Ste-art—the only monument of its kind in the entire section.

He has been active in civic matters and was president for several years of the Savannah board of trade. He is a Kiwanian and has been president of the Savannah Kiwanis club.

JUDGE COX WINS IN SECOND DISTRICT.

Camilla, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Judge E. E. Cox, who defeated Congressman Frank Park, in the primary September 10 for the nomination for congress from the second district of Georgia, is a native of Mitchell county.

Judge Cox was born April 3, 1880, in what is known as the twelfth district of Mitchell county. His parents were Stephen E. and Mrs. Mary M. Cox. His father was for a number of years clerk of the superior court of Mitchell county, and was prominent in political and business affairs of the county.

JUDGE E. E. COX

Judge Cox received his education in the public schools of Mitchell county and at Mercer university, graduating from the literary department of the university in 1901 and from the law department in 1902. The year he finished his law course he was married to Miss Roberta Patterson, of Macon. He has two children by this marriage, Lamar, a student at Mercer university, and Miss Mary Bennett, who is a student at Wesleyan college. His first wife died several years ago and about five years afterwards he was married a second time to Mrs. Grace Pitts Hill, of Cordele.

Judge Cox was appointed judge of the superior court of the Albany circuit in 1913 by Governor John M. Slaton, succeeding Judge Frank Park, of Sylvester. Judge Park having been elected to congress after the death of former Congressman S. A. Roddenberry.

After four years' service on the bench, he became a candidate for congress against Congressman Park and was defeated. He retired from the bench January 1, 1917, without offering for reelection. Judge Cox has resided here since his graduation from Mercer and has maintained a law of-ice here continuously except for the time that he was on the bench.

RUTHERFORD GIVEN 2D DISTRICT NOMINATION.

Forsyth, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Congressman-elect Samuel Rutherford, who defeated Ben J. Fowler, of Macon, for the sixth district nomination, was born about four miles south of Culloden, in Crawford county. He attended school at Culloden, later working as a clerk. He won every county in the district.

He later attended Washington & Lee university and was graduated from the Georgia university law school, Athens, Ga.

He came to Forsyth in 1894, beginning here his practice. He was elected mayor for three terms. He represented Monroe in the legislature in 1896-97; senator from the 22nd district 1900-10; legislature, 1921-22 and 1923-24; was trustee of Bessie Tift college for about 12 years; was vice president of the First National bank, of Forsyth, from 1901 to 1916. He operates large farming interests in Monroe county, and is a leader in the growing of peanuts. He is also president of the Farmers' Cooperative Fire Insurance company, of Monroe county.

SAMUEL RUTHERFORD

Mr. Rutherford married Miss Abbie Ponder, daughter and only child of Captain J. M. Ponder, of Forsyth, in 1897. He has two daughters, Mrs. Frank Pharr, of Atlanta, and Miss Eleanor Rutherford, popular junior at Bessie Tift college.

STUDENTS OF GEORGIA PLAN DEBATE SERIES

Athens, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The question for the 1925 interscholastic high school debate is: Resolved: That Georgia should issue bonds for the construction of good roads, for aid in building public school houses and the erection of adequate buildings for the university system.

Eighty-six high schools with 344 debaters engaged in the 1924 contests. This year, it is expected that more than 200 accredited schools will enter.

CHRISTIANS URGED NOT TO WITHHOLD TIDINGS OF JOY

A plea to Christians not to withhold "the tidings of great joy" from his fellow-man who is starving, was voiced Tuesday night by Dr. Ben R. Lacy, Jr., pastor of Central Presbyterian church, who is speaking every night this week at revival services at Peachtree Road Presbyterian church.

Dr. Lacy as his example used the portion of the Bible describing the siege of Samaria by Ben-hadad. He pictured the four lepers, outcasts of society, outside the gates of the besieged city where women were boiling and eating their own children. The lepers, after debating the situation, decided that they would starve within, so they went back to the camp of the Assyrians, who, they found, had fled, leaving great riches. In the midst of their good luck, one of the lepers is conscious stricken, and bids his comrades not to tarry, but report the riches to the king's household. So they denied selfishness, and refused to make themselves rich while the people inside the walls were starving.

Dr. Lacy pointed out that many people are doing what the lepers were tempted to do—enjoying the good tidings and refusing to make it known to the man who is starving.

HEADS OF GEORGIA CHILDREN'S HOME TO MEET FRIDAY

The board of directors of the Georgia Children's Home society will hold quarterly meeting on Friday afternoon in room No. 207, Chamber of Commerce building. Reports of field workers will be made and problems that have come during the past quarter will be discussed.

PRIMITIVE BAPTISTS END THREE-DAY MEET

A highly successful three-day session of the Western Union association of the Primitive Baptist church, held at the Flat Shoal church, has just come to a close. Delegates from many cities of Georgia and eastern Alabama, including many preachers prominent in the denomination, attended the session.

Three services were held daily during the three days, and dinners were served at noon of each day in the grove near the church. Delegates were entertained at homes of members of the congregation.

Elder W. W. Riner, of Atlanta, is pastor of the church, which is nearly a century old.

ALLEGED DESERTER CAUGHT AT WAYCROSS

Waycross, Ga., September 23.—Cecil Guy, young white man of Ware county, was arrested here today charged with desertion from the army. He was stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., at the time of his desertion. It is said Guy has been turned over to the army authorities at Fort Screven, Ga. This is the second arrest made during the past few weeks in Waycross on the charge of desertion. A young white boy was arrested here recently charged with desertion from the navy.

Atlanta's prettiest girls at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Cuba, Mexico, Panama Send Delegations to Atlanta

That Latin American nations will be well represented at the Pan-American congress, which opens in Atlanta a week from today, was assured Tuesday by receipt of cables from presidents of three nations, stating that official delegates have been appointed, and arrangements are being completed to start the trip.

Word was received by Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president of the Southern Commercial congress, who is in charge of organization of the big convention, from President Zayas, of Cuba; President Obregon, of Mexico, and President Purnas, of Panama. All of these republics, of course, are intensely interested in work to be done at the Atlanta meeting, and in addition to sending diplomats and other distinguished delegates, plan to be represented by officials of practically all departments in any way interested in exports of imports.

The Southern Commercial congress already has organized and directed commercial commissions which made intensive economical and industrial surveys of Cuba, Panama, Mexico and other Pan-American nations, and reported direct to the respective presidents.

The meeting also will attract representatives of many industrial concerns of the United States, and reservations for 68 men were made Tuesday by the Pullman Mills company, while the Palmolive Soap company reserved rooms for 25 delegates. Assurances are being received daily by Frank T. Reynolds, of the Ansley hotel, who is assistant to the president, that the entire south will be actively represented here, and that in addition to industrial concerns, many railroads and other big organizations of the south will send delegates. Speakers for the transportation division were announced Tuesday by Dr. Owens. Special attention will be given to each section of the transportation trinity—highways, railways and waterways.

Cameron Among Speakers.
Representative leaders of good road and highway organizations from all parts of the south have declared their intentions to be in attendance, and Tuesday, acceptance of an invitation to address the assemblage was received from Colonel Benahan Cameron, president of the Bankhead Highway association.

R. L. McKellar, of Louisville, will be principal speaker in the railway section, activities of which will be participated in by general freight and passenger traffic executives of practically all important railroads of the south. Reservations and lists of delegates to be sent by various railroads are being received daily.

Because of Georgia's geographical location, this state is particularly interested in the waterway department. T. V. O'Connor, president of the United States shipping board and internationally known waterway and shipping authority, will deliver the principal address for that department.

Atlanta's Economy Center

Use Our Lay-Away Plan

Visit Our Enlarged
Art Goods
Dept.
3d Floor

3-5-7 Whitehall

4 S. Broad

6 Plaza

WEDNESDAY SENSATIONAL

SPECIALS

MEN'S BLACK AND TAN

Out They Go
RAIN COATS $3.45
AT

81x90 SEAMLESS BED SHEETS

$1.00
Regular
$1.45 Value
BASEMENT

Attention, Voters of Atlanta!

Do you approve of a Business Administration of your city government?

THEN VOTE FOR

WALTER A. SIMS FOR MAYOR!

Do you approve of economy in politics and business? Do you approve of progress in your city and in having a man with whom all factions and interests may cooperate?

Then Vote for Walter A. Sims for Mayor. He Has Made Atlanta a Good Mayor and Should Have an Endorsement of the People

He has served you faithfully, honestly and fearlessly and should be rewarded by an overwhelming majority! Walter Sims, by his keen business foresight and ability to handle the finances of your city, has kept the schools open for your children WITHOUT THE LEVY OF AN EXTRA TAX, although the Board of Education and City Council voted to close them. Vote for Sims and be just to your city and to your fireside.

SIMS CITIZENS' COMMITTEE

A World Cruise

Largest ship to circle the globe

From New York Dec. 4, 1924; Los Angeles Dec. 20; San Francisco Dec. 23; Back in New York April 16, 1925. 28,310 miles. 17 days in Japan, China and Korea; 18 days in India; 8 days in Egypt, the Nile Country and the Holy Land; 11 days along the Mediterranean.

on the Belgenland

One hundred and thirty-three days of enchantment as you circle the globe on the palatial Belgenland, largest ship ever to be sent on such a journey. An itinerary of absorbing interest, arranged to give you, with the utmost ease, a vivid view of life, past and present, in the centers of the Eastern and Western worlds. An amazing panorama unfolded before your eyes—Havana, Panama, Honolulu, Tokyo, Kobe, Hong-kong, Manila, Batavia, Singapore, Calcutta, Cairo, Naples—60 cities in all, in 14 countries, each at a season delightful for travel there. Trips ashore under the mastery and experienced guidance of the American Express Company.

Every comfort known to modern ocean service will be yours on the Belgenland. Luxurious private accommodations. A restful variety of perfectly appointed public rooms. Three verandah cafés, swimming pool, gymnasium. A la carte cuisine. Faultless personal service throughout.

Let us send you more detailed information and descriptive literature. Apply to Red Star Line, Room 205, Hans-Howell Bldg., cor. Forsyth & Poplar Streets; American Express Co., 29 Luckie Street, Atlanta; or other offices or agencies of either company.

RED STAR LINE
WHITE STAR LINE-AMERICAN LINE
INTERNATIONAL MERCANTILE MARINE COMPANY in cooperation with
AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY

PETITIONS GRANTED GEORGIA RAILROADS

Several decisions on petitions heard recently were handed down Tuesday by the Georgia Public Service commission, all applications, except one, being approved. The exception was the request of the Georgia railroad to change the schedule of train number 30 between Macon and Camak. The train now leaves Macon at 5:45 o'clock each morning and it was desired to change this to 8:15 or 8:30 o'clock. Some objection was raised by citizens of various towns on the line and the commission refused to give its sanction.

The American Railway Express company was granted permission to discontinue its agency at Upatoi, a station between Columbus and Fort Valley.

The Tallulah Falls railroad also was allowed to discontinue week-end trains, numbers 3 and 4, between Cornelia and Franklin. These are special summer trains for holiday travel.

The Gainesville & Northwestern railroad was allowed to remove a spur track at Georgia Hardwood siding.

A petition was received Tuesday from the Rome Municipal Gas company asking permission to issue $150,000 in first mortgage bonds. Hearing was set for October 28.

The Atlanta Gas Light company presented its regular petition for issuance of $140,000 in first and refunding mortgage bonds. Hearing was set for October 15.

J. W. Cheek

When Over Eighty

He Found a Tonic That Keeps Him Up

Rossville, Ga.—"About two years ago when I was recovering from the 'flu' I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it helped me so much I have been taking it at times ever since. I am eighty-two years of age and getting along very well on the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' It keeps me well and stout for one of my age."—J. M. Cheek.

Keep yourself in the pink of condition by obtaining Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in liquid or tablet form from your neighborhood druggist, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of the tablets.—(adv.)

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

Grady Hospital Auxiliary Seeks 1,000 Members

Dr. Benjamin Steedly, head of the Steiner Cancer clinic of Grady hospital, was principal speaker at a meeting Tuesday morning of the Grady hospital auxiliary. More than 100 members attended the meeting, the first of a series called to increase its membership.

Dr. Steedly lauded the spirit of the late Albert Steiner in bequeathing $500,000, a sum sufficient to erect in Atlanta the south's largest and most modern clinic for the exclusive treatment of cancer. He spoke interestingly of the equipment of the new clinic and was enthusiastic over the opportunity offered for service to suffering mankind.

Mrs. Frank Pogue, president of the auxiliary, presided and introduced Dr. Steedly. She also explained the purpose of the plan to boost the membership to 1,000 members and announced the purchase of life memberships by Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Connally, pioneer Atlantans. The two memberships were in memory of Joe Brown Connally, son of Dr. and Mrs. Connally, and well-known young Atlanta, who died here shortly after returning from service in France with the American forces. Life memberships are obtainable for $100 each.

The auxiliary is engaged in making bandages and supplying other necessities for patients at the hospital who are unable to provide such necessities. Coincident with announcement of a drive for new members, Mrs. Pogue announces that the auxiliary is raising funds to erect a home at the hospital where patients may be taken after they are able to leave the hospital proper, and where medical assistance may be given until they regain their health.

INDIAN PUBLICIST WILL LECTURE HERE

C. Jinarajadasa, Indian publicist and mystic, who is passing through the United States en route from Madras to London, will deliver two lectures in Atlanta on Monday and Tuesday, September 29 and 30, at 8:15 o'clock, both nights. The subjects are "The Spiritual Factor in National Life" and "The Coming Christ and His Message."

Mr. Jinarajadasa has been called a "practical mystic." Born in Ceylon, but educated in Europe, Mr. Jinarajadasa has divided his half century of life equally between the orient and the occident. He has traveled widely, is the author of many books, including "Art and the Emotion," "How We Remember Past Lives," "The Nature of Mysticism," and "The Message of the Future." He has taken an active part in the movement to obtain home rule for India.

The lectures are free and will be given at the Ansley hotel roof garden.

DECATUR TO SPEND $65,000 IN PAVING

Following presentation of a petition signed by McDonough street, Third avenue and Ponce de Leon place citizens in Decatur, ordinances calling for expenditure of approximately $65,000 by the city of Decatur for street paving were passed this week by the city board of commissioners, and contracts were awarded to the McDonough Construction company and the Sam E. Finley Contracting company. It was announced Tuesday by J. S. Looney, city manager.

The new pavement will be laid on McDonough street, Third avenue and Ponce de Leon place, while Feld avenue and Adams street, both in the residential section of the city, will be repaved.

Under provisions of the city government property owners will pay for pavement to the middle of the street, on terms of one-fourth cash, and the remainder in one, two and three years.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR J. B. DODD

Joseph Benjamin Dodd, well-known citizen of Smyrna, died Sunday at a sanatorium in Marietta after a short illness.

Mr. Dodd was for 12 years an employee of the Capital City laundry of Atlanta. He was born in Anderson, S. C., and moved to Atlanta 15 years ago. He was 45 years of age and is survived by a widow and three children.

He was a Spanish-American War veteran. Interment was made Tuesday in the National cemetery at Marietta.

FINAL RITES TODAY FOR MRS. SHELMAN

Funeral services for Mrs. C. T. Shelman, well-known Atlanta woman, who died Monday night at her residence, 1010 Peachtree street, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home, Rev. Richard Orme Flinn officiating. Interment will be in Carversville, Ga., where the body was taken Tuesday morning, with H. M. Patterson & Son in charge. Mrs. Shelman is survived by her husband, and a brother, John M. Ward, of Marblehead, Mass.

TRADE FEDERATION WILL MEET TONIGHT

The Atlanta Federation of Trades will hold its last regular semi-monthly meeting for September in the Labor temple tonight according to Secretary-Treasurer Walter C. Caraway.

LOCAL TEACHERS MEET AT COMMERCIAL HIGH

The first meeting of the year of elementary and primary school teachers of the city was held Tuesday afternoon at Commercial high school. W. A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, was principal speaker.

DRINK OR DRUG

POISONING requires ELIMINATION. The Neal Treatment acts as an ANTIDOTE for these poisons, creates a bathing for drink or drugs and overcomes the diseased condition. (No Hyoscine used). Dr. J. H. Conway, 10 years with the "Neal," in charge Neal Institute, 229 Woodward Ave., Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

HOOD Brick
ARE
GOOD Brick

FINAL SERVICES TO BE HELD TODAY FOR BENJ. I. FAVER

Funeral services for Benjamin I. Faver, of 56 Druid place, well known

Atlanta and prominent in insurance circles, who died Monday afternoon at a private sanatorium, will be held this morning at 11 o'clock from the chapel of Barclay & Brandon.

Rev. F. C. McConnell will officiate and interment will be in Crest Lawn cemetery.

Blackstock-Hale-Morgan Co.

2 Stores in Atlanta

Unsurpassable at the Price! 2-Pants Suits

The Smartest
new Models in the most favored fabrics for Fall!

Suits of the Finer Type for Men and Younger Men

$30, $35, $40 and $45

See These Before You Buy Your Fall Suit

Blackstock-Hale-Morgan Co.

Distinctive Clothiers and Furnishers

2 Peachtree St.

39 Marietta St.

Paper and ink can describe anything

NO matter how hard your story is to tell—you can tell it.

Shakespeare confessed that the name of a rose didn't describe it. He was thinking of words. Any good flower seed catalog can describe a rose so that you can smell it.

A camera, an artist, four-color printing, and the right paper, a few words well written and a diagram if you need it—with these things you can describe anything that can be sold.

S. D. Warren Company once issued a book showing what a grain of dust does to a half-tone dot, and you didn't need to know what a half-tone dot was in order to understand this book perfectly.

Paper and ink can explain things that conversation cannot, and that actual demonstrations fail to make clear.

When words fail, try pictures, try color, try size. You can print anything that a microscope can show.

Those things that are hard to say, those processes that are difficult to describe, and those little technical facts that make the difference between what you sell and what others sell—all will become clear under the magic of ink and paper.

Talk to a good printer. Let him show you the marvelous things that have been done.

Spend more time on what goes into your printing and less on the details of buying it. In nearly every case where your printer recommends one of the Warren Standard Printing Papers, take his advice. He knows. Put your time with him on the real problem of telling your story in the simplest, most convincing way.

better
paper
∞
better
printing

The simple way to prepare effective direct advertising is described in a series of books published by S. D. Warren Company. These books are known as the "More Business Series." You can obtain them as they are issued, without cost to you, from any distributor of Warren's Standard Printing Papers.

S. D. WARREN COMPANY · BOSTON, MASS.

WARREN'S STANDARD PRINTING PAPERS

Tested for printing, folding, and binding qualities

Warren's Standard Printing Papers are Distributed by

SLOAN PAPER COMPANY
ATLANTA, GA.

PAPER FOR THE PRINTER

Telephones: Walnut 0653 and 0654

"That's why you're a failure"

THIS was a job that the salesmanager dreaded to tackle. For it isn't exactly a pleasant thing to talk to someone about a matter so personal as this.

Yet he realized it was for the man's own good. He knew that this thing was holding him back—making a second or third-rater out of a born salesman.

So he got up his courage one morning and told him the blunt truth. Many men would have dodged the subject.

That's the insidious thing about halitosis (unpleasant breath). You, yourself, rarely know when you have it. And even your closest friends won't tell you.

Sometimes, of course, halitosis comes from some deep-seated organic disorder that requires professional advice. But usually—and fortunately—halitosis is only a local condition that yields to the regular use of Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle. It is an interesting thing that this well-known antiseptic that has been in use for years for surgical dressings, possesses these unusual properties as a breath deodorant.

Test the remarkable deodorizing effects of Listerine this way: Rub a little onion on your fingers. Then apply Listerine and note how quickly the onion odor disappears.

This safe and long-trusted antiseptic has dozens of different uses; note the little circular that comes with every bottle. Your druggist sells Listerine in the original brown package only—three sizes: three ounce, seven ounce and fourteen ounce. Buy the large size for economy.—Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, Saint Louis, U. S. A.

For HALITOSIS

use
LISTERINE

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Main 5000

ATLANTA, GA., SEPT. 24, 1924.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier or Mail
Daily and 1 wk. 3 mos. 6 mos. 1 yr.
Sunday ..... 20c 50c $2.50 $5.00 $9.50
Daily ..... 10c 25c 1.00 4.00 7.50
Single Copies—Daily, 10c; Sunday, 10c.
By Mail Only.
Sunday ..... 10c 40c 1.00 1.75 3.25

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., is the advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Holliday's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times Building corner); Schmitt's News Agency, at Bryant Park, and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advertisements published in its columns. Receipts for subscription payments not in accordance with the rates set in this paper, and also the news published herein.

Member of North American Newspaper Alliance.
The N. A. N. occupies the same position in the future field that the A. P. does in the news field. The Constitution is the only member in this section.

THE ONLY SAFE TRUST:
Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.—Psalm 20:7.

RIDING TO A FALL.

The Constitution is publishing elsewhere today a significant statement by Senator Ellison D. Smith, of South Carolina, chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce, in which he discusses the efforts being made by the trunk line railroads of the country to destroy water-rate competition, inland and through the Panama canal; and also the provisions of the Gooding amendment to the transportation act, which would, if enacted, prohibit such destructive and discriminatory rail interests' procedure; and not only conserve thereby the ports and water routes of America, but provide just and fair freight rates to interior points. Atlanta, being in the interior, is, like other cities similarly situated, vitally interested.

In this connection also we are publishing a communication from Harry T. Moore, traffic manager of the Atlanta freight bureau, who analyzes the present discriminatory situation, and shows concisely and convincingly how it operates, by actual citations.

In a nutshell, the situation, without going here into details, which are embraced in the statements referred to, is this—

Under the "long and short haul" provision of the transportation act of 1920—Clause 4—the A-1 railroads of this country, due to the weakness of the law and to the very apparent sympathy of the interstate commerce commission, have readjusted freight rates so that the all-rail rates between points where water competition rates exist have been lowered to a fraction below the water rates, thereby serving to put water lines out of business, close or make inactive the ports, and direct routings exclusively to the all-rail movements; at the same time, however, increasing local rates to interior points, where there are no water competitions, to such an unfair average differential as to more than offset the deficits in the competing rates.

That is the whole thing in simple language; and so well has the plan succeeded that not only has the freight traffic through the canal, which is directly involved in the transcontinental shipping, suffered to an alarming extent, but all over this country freight-carrying boats have been practically eliminated from the rivers and canals.

And this in spite of the fact that the inland waterways of America have been looked upon since the first foot-fall of white civilization on this western continent as the most valuable of its natural resources, and for the development of which this government has spent more than a billion dollars, exclusive of the enormous investments in the Panama canal.

Not content with this unfair, discriminatory and ruinous policy of the railroads, sanctioned by the interstate commerce commission, which is supposed to be the check-and-balance of the interest of fairness and justice for the people, the railroads are even now clamoring for other rate readjustments to more clearly carry out their determination to destroy all water-rate competition.

Perhaps the feature that is most unjustifiable—if one feature is any more reprehensible in the whole scheme of high-handed confiscation and discrimination than another—is the local rates to interior points imposed in order to equalize the gross carrying incomes of the roads.

That is a discrimination of a character outlawed to other business by the Sherman anti-trust law, and by ## the mandates of the federal trade board.

And yet, in all of these movements of the railroads to scuttle the ships and to penalize interior points to provide the funds, from excessive rates for doing so, the interstate commerce commission looks on with apparent indifference.

So much so, indeed, that a bill (Senate bill 2327, by Gooding) has already passed the senate by a large majority, and will be before the house in December, to prohibit, by a strengthened law, what the commission has a right to prohibit now if it enforced even the weaker long and short haul provision of the Esch-Cummings act.

The fact is, the interstate commerce commission, as today constituted, has shown a disposition to yield to the demands of the larger railroads in this, as in the Pullman surcharge issue, and the freight differentials in the interest of the northern ports to the penalization of the southern ports, to the point that it is getting to be a national scandal.

It is peculiarly strange that the railroads themselves cannot see the error of their course. It is the reaction already set in that is responsible today for the La Follette sentiment in this country.

It is stranger yet that any department of government is permitted to subvert its legalized mission to private interests, as has been openly charged against the present interstate commerce commission, and not without foundation in fact, from surface indications.

In the meantime every member of the house of representatives should support the Gooding bill that in part at least would put an end to railroad ruthlessness.

GEORGIA LISTED WRONG.

The New York World is a great newspaper and is one of the potential publicity powers behind the democratic party. It is usually accurate in its editorial statements, but in the following its deductions as to Georgia are incorrect:

"To the ally of the K. K. K. gains and losses in the primaries add a defeat in New Mexico. The plan was denounced by name in the platform adopted at a state convention of the democratic party."

"To date the plan has won one victory in the democratic primaries: in Georgia, where ex-Gov. Hardwick, out for the senate, was buried beneath klan banners; it has been specifically repudiated by name in six states (New Mexico, Ohio, Texas, Idaho, Montana, Kansas), and it has been defeated in out-and-out klan contests in Oklahoma, Texas, Arizona."

"Against that record of one victory and nine defeats in the democratic party the klan has this to chalk up on the republican side: an alliance with Senator Watson in Indiana, a klan-republican victory in Colorado and a klan-republican victory in Maine."

The Ku Klux Klan was not an issue in the recent senatorial contest in Georgia. Senator Harris, the incumbent, opposed for renomination by former Senator Hardwick, stated unequivocally and emphatically, above his own signature, several days before the primary, that he was not and had never been a member of the Ku Klux Klan, and that the klan was in no way a relevant issue in the campaign. That statement was broadcast throughout the state, and no doubt contributed materially to the majority received by Senator Harris.

The fact is, Mr. Hardwick, who polled between seventy and eighty thousand popular votes, almost doubling his popular vote of two years ago when he ran for the senate, no doubt developed his additional strength through his own attacks on the klan.

Tens of thousands of men and women voted for Senator Harris by reason of his loyalty to the administration during the war, and his earnest, faithful and resourceful services as senator—and they feel just as Mr. Hardwick does about the activity of any purely secret society in politics.

It is said that the Mexicans are buying automobiles by the carload. Until they build some roads in that country about all that a fellow could do with a car in some sections would be to display it as a badge of social standing in his front yard.

Mrs. Anna Van Skike, of Santa Monica, Cal., who celebrated her 63d birthday with a 16-mile swim, may overtake old Granny Eldred, of Long Island, who danced a jig on her 102d birthday, if she keeps on growing.

Mr. Ford says "the horse must go," and he would also "can" the cow, in favor of the chemist. There are numerous other joys that he wishes to take out of life, but he couldn't crowd all into one interview.

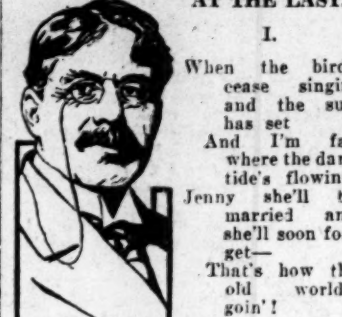

Some of the editors are blue-penciling the swear words in interviews with Dawes, so that the real Dawes doesn't show up at all.

Also, Mr. Ford predicts that alcohol will take the place of gasoline for automobiles. Judging by the daily casualty lists, it seems to have already done so.

The Philadelphia Record says it has been denied that the new detective force in New York consists of writers of detective stories.

Just From Georgia

BY FRANK L. STANTON
AT THE LAST.

Shall sit before the fire
In the way I loved to see When the winter winds have shaken

All the blossoms from the trees,
And maybe turn the pages
Of a book that speaks of me—
That's how the old world's going.

I wonder if she'll listen for a footstep in the night
When I've done with the sowing and reaping?

With other arms around her will she rest her head just delight
And would it then be worth a woman's weeping?

Goodbye, Jenny!—
I stand waiting the door,
The ferryman is waiting
And the river frets the shore,
But oh, the grief to leave you—
To dream of you no more!

That's how the old world's going.

Guests of the Library.
A book, a pipe, a fire on a chilly night, with guests that come unbidden from realms of golden dreams to share your humble fireside—what greater blessing could you ask, in perfect peace and "measureless content?"

It's good to dream that "Joy cometh with the Morning," and great to hear him knocking at the doors of Night, and asking, "is the fire burning bright, and are the rosy girls coming to the dance?"

What the Trees Saw.

The Trees saw a child.
(The Trees of the Night)
The lost little children,
Playing in the light,
And knew not they were phantoms
Where ghostly spirits roam
And nevermore would answer
When their mothers called them home.

O lost little children,
Where the Dark falls deep,
Where not a waking mother
Can kiss you, where you sleep,
You only come to vision
That still in tears depart
And leave the wounding thorn-spear
And the ache at the heart!

The Editor Explains.
(The Tifton Gazette has this, from the Sylvester Local):

"Lady friend writes from her home up north to know if cotton gin as a new kind of prohibition drink. She said she read in the Local where it put a move on the people of Worth county. No, lady, it is not a drink it is a thing that makes the mare go in these parts."

The first day of autumn has been announced, officially, and the weather men say we're in for a fall. Give the poet all the seasons' gold if they'll only hush.

Thank the autumn's fields for your daily bread, and don't come to shake hands with yourself—if you'll help to reap the harvest-bale.

Today's Talk

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

OWN A LIBRARY.

Next desirable to owning a home is to own a library in it.
I care not how small or how slowly the library is built, as it grows you will grow both in character and happiness.

I often visit the great New York library and I like to walk through other wonderful libraries, but I love my own best. Because somehow each book in my own library holds a personal relation for me that is like that which I hold in the love of a friend.

Take Joseph Conrad, for instance, and Lafcadio Hearn. A friend called my attention to one of these writers and I stumbled on to the other. I now fortunately own the complete works of each. And now each of these great writers has passed into his great adventure. But I read their works over and over and they are as alive and real in life to me as though they still breathed.

That is the greatest thing about a book. It records the finest, the deepest and the sincerest moments of its author. So that you may have these ideas and suggestions of the personality that produced them with you as long as you live.

The men or women who love fine literature can never be wholly bad.
They are the best of their kind, and as long as they are they are almost wholly good.

It is an inspiring thing to see a boy absorbed in a good book. You know that his mind is going to grow with his body.

It's a big world but you can get into some of its uttermost corners through its fine books. The other evening I picked up a book of travels by Ed Howe and lived with him his absorbing hours in the West Indies.
Some time I hope to go, too! and I shall enjoy my trip the more for having read Howe's account of all he saw there.

And what an understanding of character and life you get from the reading of books by master minds that worked to put into the choicest words
the product of their thinking and observation.

Own a library—no matter how small. As the years advance you will owe to that library the richest moments of your ripened life.
(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

BOYS' HIGH STUDENT

TO BE LAID TO REST

Funeral services for James Earl
Bartlett, student of Boys' High school,
and 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
Walter Bartlett, 475 East Fair street,
who died Monday at a local hospital,
will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning from the residence. Elder
Z. C. Hull will officiate and interment will follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bentley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1924.

BITS OF PARIS LIFE

BY O. O. MONTYRE

BY O. O. MONTYRE.
On the Atlantic, September 23.—
There is really not much of interest to be told about an ocean voyage.
There is the monotony of a plunging ship riding the waves. Deck walking. Shuffle-board. Dining. More deck walking and sleep.

So I ask "Yardson" for the extremely personal note in the voyage home.
Anyway I'm on my vacation. But like the movie actor, I am not forgetting "my best pupil" on the trip back. At dinner tonight I was an actor in a bit of unrehearsed comedy.
It was my first appearance in the main dining room. I was dressed like the rest of the waiters in a monkey suit and stood in advance of my wife awaiting to be shown to a table.
As I stood there a clean-cut type of vigorous American executive came up to me.

"Why do you permit that lady to stand there?" I thought of the old wheeze of "that is no lady; that is my wife," but he looked too important to let it be a long swim home. At my hesitation, he said: "Speak up.
What is your excuse?"

Again I started, but this bird had his dander up. Before I could reply the rest of the waiters in a monkey suit followed me. I was offered the chief steward's table. I went to
it. So I limped along after him.
I'm that way—easily led and easy to lead.

We entered the office of the chief steward. My explosive friend offered conversation. "I want this fellow discharged immediately. He has persisted in coming to stand at the left end of the dining room for five minutes. And he offers no excuse."

I decided to horn in. So meekly
I said: "That boy happens to be my wife. I don't want to get a table for both of us." Apologies were offered.
Neither followed. The executive happened to be Joseph E. Sheedy, vice president of the U. S. Shipping Board and president of the American Shipping Line. I was a passenger. We have been among the passengers. We have been good friends. I respect his motives. He was merely trying to give service.

There are several congressmen aboard—looking important but getting nowhere. All eyes follow the movie and stage stars. We had tea with "Mickey" Neilan and Blanche Sweet. "Mickey" Neilan, who has been taken up by Lew Cody and Blanche Sweet.

There are several congressmen
aboard—looking important but getting nowhere. All eyes follow the movie and stage stars. We had tea
with "Mickey" Neilan and Blanche
Sweet. "Mickey" Neilan, who has been taken up by Lew Cody and Blanche Sweet.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Queen "Cleo"

No Vamp.

Pet historical beliefs are blowing up like soap bubbles in these days of scientific and archaeological research.
Now comes Mr. Arthur Weigall, Egyptologist, with the shattering declaration that Cleopatra was not a vamp, "no siren whose sensuous beauty lured conquerors to her feet, but a woman whose charms lay in her personality, gentle voice and intellectual attainments." She was, we know, not of an oriental type even, for Macedonian and Greek blood flowed in her veins. The Romans, though, are the guilty one in spoiling Queen Cleopatra's reputation. And it must be admitted they had a reason. She handled the great generals of the imperial republic, not by seductive beauty, but by a master mind and superior character. Not willing to concede this mental superiority, the expedient of luring vamps and vamping tactics was resorted to and were ascribed to Cleopatra as her only stock in trade.

The results of this international political subterfuge had stayed with us until Mr. Weigall unmasked the trick-ery and cowardice of the Roman subterfuge.

A Mystery.

Invisible blows are shaking the walls of a house in Brittany and investigators sent by the Paris Matin report "supernatural events." Doors are thrown open of themselves, horses stamp and tremble with terror in their stalls, bricks fall down the chimney and ornaments are torn from the walls. The weirdest phenomenon is a white spectral form that walks the floor by night. Village priest, chief of gendarmes nor landlord have been able to check the terror in the village.

The reporters from Paris, with the aplomb known only to their craft, have promised to stay till they "lay"
the ghost. But they have a job on their hands. Observers from the Societe Psychique are on the ground and there is talk of inviting Sir Oliver Lodge, Arthur Conan Doyle from England. Of course Brittany is full of superstition and belief in the ancient practices of witchcraft.
The ghost is the central Asian platform of "works of the devil." Generally the sprinkling of holy water and the pronouncing of the secret formula used by the church for the exorcism of spirits is sufficient remedy, but not in this case. All Paris talks about the ghost, it's a new diversion in conversation there.

Once They Were Pals.

In the war that is being carried on in Georgia the bolshevik troops are resorting to the practice of taking hostages. Karl Kautsky, leader of the evolutionary socialist school in Germany, told "Commons" Trotsky as war minister severely to take this procedure. But Kautsky forgets that his master, Karl Marx, whom he shares with Trotsky, all things are justified in "the only just war in history," that is in the war to crush the last remnants of the bourgeoisie and upper classes. "We intend to seize as hostages all the beloved and trusted of the bourgeoisie, thus placing the whole bourgeoisie under the Dan-dels sword of mutual responsibility," says Trotsky, the soviet war minister.

And to his former associate and "comrade" of pre-revolutionary days, he worked to put into the choicest words
the product of their thinking and observation.

Own a library—no matter how small. As the years advance you will owe to that library the richest
moments of your ripened life.
(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Funeral services for James Earl
Bartlett, student of Boys' High school,
and 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
Walter Bartlett, 475 East Fair street,
who died Monday at a local hospital,
will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning from the residence. Elder
Z. C. Hull will officiate and interment will follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbear-
ers: C. A. Bradford, Edward Bent-
ley, Jr., Sol Levine, Earl McQuerry,
Trotter and the bolshewiks will not
follow in Sylvester cemetery.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
THE HARD BOILED EGG.

Since the early days of dietetics when the whole thing was comprised in a series of lists of food items which the victim might or might not eat, the hard boiled egg has struggled under an evil reputation. Among the dietitians or theories on which the hypotheses of yester year rested was the notion that liquid was more easily digested than solid food. More recently perhaps grew out of the observation that invalids who took too much solid food had to have food poured into their stomachs in liquid form or to without, and it was natural enough to assume that since only broth or soup or milk was fed to invalids only such foods were digestible. That applies also to soft boiled eggs. You can pour a soft boiled or raw egg into an invalid's stomach, but not a hard boiled one. Yet a hard boiled egg is rather more easily digested than a soft boiled egg. A hardly a hard boiled egg is more easily digested than a soft boiled egg.

The albumen (the white) of an egg, raw or however cooked, must undergo coagulation (curdling) in the process of digestion. In the stomach the albumen is coagulated by the hydrochloric acid in the gastric juice which the stomach secretes when food is taken. The coagulation of the albumen and to that extent saves the stomach some of the work of digestion. In the raw egg albumen, moreover, there is present a ferment, the substance which tends to resist digestion, so that when considerable quantities of raw egg are ingested, as in the case of a person who has certain invalids, an appreciable portion of the albumen is not digested but passes through the alimentary tract undigested.

It is true that a hard boiled egg remains longer in the normal stomach than a soft boiled egg does. It takes perhaps half an hour longer getting digested up to the point where it is in the proper condition to be passed along into the duodenum for further digestion. But this fact is of no importance, why hard boiled eggs "stay with you" or "stick to your ribs" longer than soft boiled eggs do, and it is a fact worthy of remembering if you happen to be too indigested and interested in restricting your diet. Fat folks should eat their eggs hard boiled, preferably.

Remember, hard boiled, I mean.
Say boiled for four to six minutes.
A soft boiled egg, as I understand it, is dropped into a pint of boiling water, and the vessel immediately taken off the fire and allowed to stand eight to 10 minutes before the egg is removed from the water. If an egg is cooked too long the albumen is disrupted and the yolk is broken, which is difficult or impossible for man to digest.

Eggs poached, coddled, boiled, fried, scrambled, in omelets, are all equally digestible and nutritious—it is a matter of individual preference how an egg should be cooked. An egg is a very rich food, and it is delicious but it shouldn't be damned because it happens to be hard boiled.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Walk Straight.

How should one walk, with the feet straight or toeing out? (Miss W. M.)

Answer.—A straight and not too narrow path, the tracks in parallel lines. Toeing out is an ancient affection, or a symptom of flat feet and is believed in, better, in fact, to toe in a bit.

Incease.

Is it injurious to health to burn
Japans in one's room? (Clara J.)

Answer.—Not if there is fair ventilation.

Liquid Air in Ivy Poisoning.

Recently I mentioned the use of liquid air as a remedy for ivy poisoning. Is it supposed to be applied un-diluted? (E. M. M.)

Answer.—Yes, I don't know how it can be diluted. Liquid air is obtainable only about laboratories. It was a physician there who noticed the prompt relief afforded by an application of liquid air, in the skin inflammation of ivy poisoning. Usually only one application is necessary to start the process of repair and relieve the itching permanently, according to Dr. William G. Donald, university physician in the University of California.

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Mongolia Yields

Additional Light

On Early Mankind

Urga, Mongolia, September 23.—
(By the Associated Press.)—Professor Peter Koloff, Russian explorer, has decided to return to Mongolia with the greatest scientific expedition of history, followed by the statement that "none of these corrupted and corrupting beliefs in the hereafter."
Monsieur Victor Hugo, as a matter of fact, did actually believe in immortality. In a conversation with Senator Harris, he said: "I don't know if I believe in it, but my part I do not believe much in it." Then said Hugo:
"There may be differences and degrees; as for myself, I feel indestructible, immortality is to me a personal certainty."

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

FULTON DELEGATES

TO MACON MEETING

SELECTED TUESDAY

Fulton county delegates to the state democratic convention in Macon, October 8, have been appointed, it was announced today, when a list of delegates and alternates was furnished by Claude C. Mason, chairman of the Fulton county democratic committee.
The following delegation was named:

E. E. Pomeroy, chairman; Hugh M.
Dorsey

CONVENTION SPACE OF CITY DOUBLED

By a transaction completed Tuesday afternoon, in which the Atlanta Hotel Men's association purchased for the city the old farmers' curb market, building and site, located at the intersection of Courtland street and Warner place, and adjacent to the city auditorium, Atlanta now enjoys a convention space second to none in the south. The deal had been pending for some time, and the Hotel Men's association, in completing the purchase, exercised an option taken three weeks ago.

According to recommendation made some time ago by the 1924 city council, the 1925 council will provide appropriations to repay the hotel men $25,000 paid by them Tuesday as the first installment, and will assume the purchase contract, which provides for payment of a total of $80,000 for the land.

Deal is Announced.

Announcement of the deal was made Tuesday by Frank Maloney, attorney for the Hotel Men's association, and Alderman J. B. McLendon, of the Sixth ward, who is chairman of the auditorium committee of council.

Acquisition of the property, which is 100 by 200 feet, when combined with the present auditorium, will give the city a wonderful location for staging of any kind of convention or exposition. Although no details have been discussed, it is expected that the present auditorium will be connected with the market building by a covered passage.

Purchase of the property by the hotel men of Atlanta relieves an acute situation. No provision for purchase of the land was made in this year's appropriation by city council, and Atlanta faced the prospect of losing a number of important conventions, which, it was stated, would be held there.

Picture Frames

To Order
Good Work—Prompt Delivery.
SOU. BOOK CONCERN
71 WHITEHALL ST.

Come to the Fair at Our Expense

Merchants coming to the Southeastern Fair may have their railroad fare paid by purchasing adequate bills from members of this association. For particulars, write:

Atlanta Merchants and Manufacturers Ass'n.
505 Chamber of Commerce
ATLANTA

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

BreathBad?

Constipation may be causing it. Pluto Water safely and quickly flushes all the congested waste out of the bowel tract. Acts in 30 minutes to two hours. Never gripe. Prescribed by physicians, sold by druggists and bottled at French Lick Springs, Ind.

When Nature Won't Pluto Will

PLUTO WATER
America's Physic

Clear Your Skin

Of Disfiguring Blemishes
Use Cuticura

Sample Skin. Ointment, Talcum Free. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden, Mass.

MEN AND WOMEN

If you are sick of being sick, tired of taking medicine, and of experimenting, do not put the matter off another day, but consult me at once and receive my opinion of your case. Practice Limited to Nerve, Blood, Kidney, Stomach, Skin and all chronic diseases of men and women. Hours, 9 to 6, Sundays, 10 to 1.
DR. J. L. ROBAK, Specialist
29 1/2 Marietta St., Atlanta, Ga.

Solid Silver Table Service

Louis XIV

Nothing reflects sincere hospitality like Solid Silver. No pattern graces the table more beautifully than this new period design Louis XIV. Yet Solid Silver, always welcome as a gift, is not expensive—a set including sufficient pieces to serve six persons priced at approximately $75, or you can soon acquire a complete set buying a few pieces at a time. We will be pleased to show you the Louis XIV pattern.

Buy Solid Silver!

For Thirty-Seven Years
Gold and Silversmiths

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.

elsewhere unless adequate exhibition space could be provided here.

First Steps Taken.

The Atlanta Convention Bureau, with which the Hotel Men's association is affiliated, immediately instituted steps toward obtaining the old curb market. Largely through efforts of Alderman McLendon and the auditorium committee, council recommended that the purchase be made, and that the 1925 council make the payment as soon as money could be appropriated next year. Colonel William Lawson Peel, president of the Atlanta Convention bureau, also was very active in arranging for the purchase.

The property was bought from the Phoenix Investment company, the Interstate Improvement and Investment corporation, and Sam Auerbach, of New York city, who were represented by the Massell Real Estate company. Arrangements for the purchase were made through the Citizens and Southern bank.

Atlanta hotel men who made the deal, which cost $25,000, which made the purchase possible in time to hold conventions here this fall, are: Carling L. Dinkler, Cecil R. Cannon, E. G. Jacoby, Sam Barron, William Candler, T. J. Anderson and W. L. Peel.

COURT EXEMPTS CITIES FROM AUTO LICENSES

Albany, Ga., September 23.—Automobiles used by municipalities in the discharge of the business of such municipalities are not required to purchase license tags from the state of Georgia, Judge W. V. Custer decided Monday afternoon in Dougherty superior court.

This decision was made in an injunction proceeding brought by the city of Albany against Sheriff O. F. Taver, of Dougherty county, to restrain him from collecting license tag fees from the city for its trucks and other motor vehicles and to restrain him from molesting drivers of such vehicles.

City Attorney James Tiftmann contended that the motor vehicle act of the state is nothing more than a tax act, and that the city cannot tax a municipality. Solicitor General B. C. Gardner, who acted for the state at the request of Attorney General Napier, contended that the statute specifically exempts fire trucks, school buses, and other vehicles, and that the statute is also a regulatory one as well as a tax measure. It is understood that Judge Custer's decision in making the injunction permanent will be taken to the higher courts for review.

PEACH EXCHANGE PLANS CONTRACTS WITH GROWERS

Macon, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—A committee from the Georgia Peach Growers' exchange is at work here drafting changes in contracts and making other recommendations that it is believed will make it possible to keep the exchange in operation and satisfy growers of middle Georgia so that objections raised during the last market may be overcome.

It is understood growers desire to have the privilege of marketing their fruit, if independent buyers offer them a satisfactory cash price for the fruit. This was objected to the past season by the exchange and ironed contracts signed by growers in the association prevented such sales, although to enforce the contracts the exchange was forced to secure a number of injunctions in various middle Georgia counties.

The committee announced today that it will endeavor to satisfy the majority of the growers and to that end will make provision for quicker return on sales made through the exchange.

Old contracts are to be returned October 1, it is announced.

The committee will hold its final meeting on Thursday for the completion of the new agreements, which will be submitted to the board of directors and to stockholders for approval.

FARM BANK SEEKS TO STOP CUTTING OF TWIGGS TIMBER

Macon, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The Federal Land Bank of Columbia, S. C., which loaned $10,000 on farm lands in Twiggs county, today brought suits in Bibb superior court and in Twiggs county to prevent the cutting of timber on the land, claiming that it depreciated the value of the land.

The bank claims it had no knowledge of timber leases on the property nor that timber was to be removed, when the loan was made.

Defendants in the action are W. C. Gibson, Horace Brannon, T. A. Myrick, H. M. Reed & Co., and the W. S. Myrick Land company.

NEGRO MAN IS SLAIN IN SAWMILL ATTACK

Quitman, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Jones, a negro, was killed instantly this afternoon at the Southern sawmill, three miles south of Quitman by Joseph P. Peters, a white man, employed in the lumber sheds as a car checker. Jones is said to have been advancing on Peters with an open knife, when Peters began shooting. When the coroner examined the body a knife fell from the right hand.

The coroner's jury this afternoon returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

MANY JOIN FLOYD DAVIS-BRYAN CLUB

Constitution Bureau, Masonic Temple Annex, Phone 1089.

Rome, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The Davis-Bryan club of Floyd county are canvassing democrats, in a drive for members, and a large number have already joined the organization, it was announced today from headquarters.

John M. Graham, vice president of the seventh district, has appointed C. O. Walden chairman for Floyd county, and Mrs. Homer Watkins, of Cedar town, vice president for the woman's division of the seventh district, has appointed Mrs. Annie Freeman Johnson chairman for Floyd county.

Girls Prepare Exhibits.

Rome, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—One of the most interesting exhibits at the Floyd county fair will be the Girls' club exhibit, it was announced today by the county demonstration agent. About 50 of the girls will exhibit their work at the agricultural building.

During the fair, winners in the community bread and canning contests will give a demonstration which will decide the county winners.

Alleged Hoboes Freed.

Rome, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Judge John Hale ordered eight men, who were taken from a carnival train in Rome and placed in the county jail charged with hoboeing, released. The judge had talked to the owner of the show, and stated that the men were riding on a party ticket, which most of the company were using on a passenger train.

The carnival is now at Covington.

Drive for Athletic Fund.

Rome, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Ninety-six Romans have agreed to pay $2 each towards the $100, a rental fund for Hamilton park to be used as an athletic field for Rome high school, Dartington and other schools. This leaves 104 more to be secured, but the committee which has undertaken to raise the money, believes that they will secure these pledges this week.

YOUNG TRAVELERS HELD FOR TRYING TO "BORROW TIRE"

Remorseful and hungry when brought to police headquarters, two boys, giving their names as Harry Duke and Otis Johnson, their home as Louisville, Ky., and their destination as Florida, were held by police Tuesday night when they confessed to attempting to "borrow" the tire from an automobile belonging to W. H. Wesley, of 470 Stewart avenue.

The boys told police a story of how they left home for Florida, where they hoped to find work, and of how they had gone hungry between Louisville and Atlanta eating only "menger snatches" here and there, which was given them by people along the route. Arriving here, broke, they had a puncture in one of the tires of the automobile and attempted to take the tire from Mr. Wesley's car so that they might continue their trip further south. They are being held on a charge of suspicion.

Banks County Woman, 100 Years Old Feted At Big Birthday Party

Commerce, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Gordon, of Banks county, four miles north of this place, was 100 years old today, and more than 500 people, including children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, friends and acquaintances, gathered at her home to participate in a mammoth birthday celebration. Five years ago, when she was 95 years of age, she picked a bale of cotton with her own hands. Her mind is alert. She ate a hearty dinner along with hundreds of others today and enjoyed the singing and the several addresses.

The home was beautifully decorated. Three cakes bearing 100 candles each adorned the long and heavily-laden table.

500 Attend Meeting Of Baptist Society In Elberton Church

Elberton, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The 125th session of the Synoptic Baptist association met here today with 500 in attendance. Dr. John D. Mell, of Athens, was re-elected moderator, and Rev. W. M. Coll, of Winterville, secretary. All of the 64 churches of the association were represented. T. S. Mell, of Athens, read the report on law enforcement and declared that any body of men undertaking to enforce law out of the courts are themselves violating the law. Tonight Dr. John D. Mell preached to a crowded house. The session will adjourn tomorrow afternoon.

SEEK $50,000 FOR TOT

Macon Firm Sued for Alleged Injuries to Child.

Macon, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—Robert Porter McMillan, through his next friend, E. T. McMillan, today filed suit in Bibb superior court against Burdon, Smith & Co., a local dry goods concern, for $50,000 damages.

It is alleged that on November 10, 1923, Robert McMillan, 3 years and 10 months old, and whose home was at Fort Valley, was rolled between the floor of an elevator and the side wall and that he was crushed and crippled for life.

VINCENT APPOINTED RAIL COMPTROLLER

Augusta, Ga., September 23.—Announcement was made here today of the appointment of W. H. Vincent, for 12 years auditor of the Georgia railroad, to the position of comptroller of the Georgia railroad. A. & W. P. railroad and Western Railway of Alabama, with headquarters in Atlanta. J. J. O'Shea, assistant chief clerk to the auditor here, succeeds Mr. Vincent with the title of assistant auditor.

W. H. Vincent, whose appointment as comptroller of the Georgia railroad, Atlanta & West Point railroad and the Western Railway of Alabama, has been announced, has arrived in Atlanta to assume his duties. It was announced Tuesday by officials of the Atlanta & West Point railroad. He succeeds the late W. H. Smith.

DECLARES VICTIM WAS NOT MINDING HIS OWN BUSINESS

Claiming that his victim was "minding in other people's business," Harold Hammond, 25, who resides on Luckie street, wielded a knife with telling effect on L. L. Johnson, 44, of 272 East Fair street, who was treated at Grady hospital Tuesday night for severe cuts on his neck, face and about his shoulder. Police were unable to locate Hammond after the affair.

The cutting is said to be an outgrowth of threats made against Hammond's life and her sister, Mrs. M. Mason, who both reside at 272 East Fair street, by Hammond. Johnson is said to have intervened, arousing the ire of Hammond, who attacked him with a knife.

SENATOR STEPHENS HAS BLOOD POISON

Memphis, Tenn., September 23.—Senator Hubert D. Stephens, of Mississippi, was brought to a hospital here early tonight, suffering from blood poisoning which resulted from an injury to his foot several days ago.

Senator Stephens' condition was described as "very serious" by hospital physicians, who said that amputation of the infected foot probably would be necessary.

The senator cut his foot with an axe more than a week ago while working on one of his farms near New Albany, Miss. He was chopping a branch from a tree when the axe slipped and split the foot between the great and second toes. The wound, about four inches long, was given immediate attention and for several days appeared to be healing satisfactorily, it was said.

Today, however, the senator's physicians discovered signs of blood poisoning and the patient was rushed to the hospital here. An examination by hospital surgeons revealed that the poison had spread rapidly and they expressed the opinion that amputation of the member probably would be necessary.

GERMANY TO APPLY TO ENTER LEAGUE

Continued From First Page.

the league gathering now sitting in Geneva.

GENEVA IS EXCITED AT GERMAN ACTION.

Geneva, September 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Germany held the center of the stage dramatically in Geneva tonight. Members of the council of the league of nations and scores of other distinguished delegates crowded little groups in the corridors of the league palace and discussed the big news from Berlin that the German cabinet unanimously had voted to apply for membership.

The string, which, according to press dispatches, Germany would attach to her application did not seem to worry over much the members of the council with whom the correspondent of the Associated Press talked. The prevailing view was that the explanatory note issued by Berlin chief was intended to give satisfaction over Berlin's decision, coupled with words of hearty welcome.

The news reached the league secretariat at rather a sensational moment, for the council in secret session was discussing how best to conduct the league investigations of the armaments situation in Germany, which is one of the rights vested in the council by the treaty of Versailles.

ROOSEVELT TO VISIT COLUMBUS RESORT

Columbus, Ga., September 23.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy, will spend several months at Warm Springs, a resort near here, it became known today. Mr. Roosevelt, accompanied by his wife and daughter, will arrive at Warm Springs October 3. He will return to New York early in November to be there during the presidential election. He will then return to Warm Springs for an extended stay.

Look!

For the rest of September we are making this big reduction in prices on high-grade Dental Work:

Set of Teeth $7.50
Crown and Bridge Work, per Tooth $3.50

All other prices reduced in proportion. Teeth extracted without pain. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Dr. E. G. Griffin's Gate City Dental Rooms

63 1/2 Whitehall St.

Lady Attendant

Phone M. 1708

Hours 8 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

TCH!

Money back without question if HUNT'S GUARANTEED SKIN DISEASE REMEDIES (Itch, Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter or other itching skin diseases) Try the treatment at once. Price $1.00 at Munn's Drug Store 50 N. Broad Street Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

M'ADOO WILL TAKE STUMP FOR DAVIS

New York, September 23.—William G. McAdoo, whose fight for the democratic nomination at Madison Square Garden wrote a new chapter in the records of deadlocks in national political conventions, gave his personal assurance today to John W. Davis that he will do whatever he can for the success of the democratic national ticket.

This announcement was made by Mr. Davis after he had conferred with the former treasury secretary over the luncheon table for nearly two hours. Mr. McAdoo had nothing to say other than the cryptic statement that Mr. Davis would make whatever announcement there was.

"Our interview was highly satisfactory," Mr. Davis told newspaper correspondents after the conference. "Mr. McAdoo is ready to do whatever he can to contribute to the success of the campaign."

Will Campaign West.

The democratic presidential nominee added that he thought Mr. McAdoo's participation in the campaign would be of great assistance. He said Mr. McAdoo is personally very popular in the west, the section in which it is expected that the former secretary will do the bulk of his campaigning.

Details of the speaking dates and places for Mr. McAdoo still are to be worked out, but it is more than likely that most of his main addresses will be made during his trip across the continent to his California home. He will remain here for a week or more.

Besides conferring with Mr. McAdoo at his headquarters here, Mr. Davis consulted a number of party leaders, including Senator Henry F. Ashurst, of Arizona, a member of the senate Daugherty investigating committee, and gave approval to his speaking itinerary for the next week.

Back to Home State.

The democratic nominee will get back on the stump in his native state of West Virginia next Thursday, speaking at Charleston around noon and at Huntington at night. He will deliver an address at Bluefield Friday and meantime will deliver brief talks at other West Virginia towns.

Mr. Davis will leave New York tomorrow evening and return Saturday night. On the way back he will stop off at Wilmington, Del., for an address there, and on Monday will speak at Frederick and Baltimore. After that he probably will campaign in New England before again hitting the trail for a return engagement in the west.

Senator Ashurst brought Mr. Davis encouraging reports as to the political situation in the southwest and told him that he had no concern regarding the outcome in November in his own state. He discussed also with the nominee some of the details of the Daugherty investigation, which became the subject of a letter which Mr. Davis sent today to former Attorney General Daugherty in reply to Mr. Daugherty's letter to him last week.

MERCER UNIVERSITY OPENS SESSION TODAY

Macon, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—The 92nd session of Mercer university will be opened tomorrow with more than 700 students enrolled. Dr. S. V. Sanford, University of Georgia faculty member and director of athletics, will be the principal speaker.

New students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Students will be welcomed formally to the institution at the annual "college night" celebration to be held next Monday at Daniel Marshall hall.

Red Riding Hood

By ELIZABETH JORDAN

SYNOPSIS

Mrs. Morgan Schuyler, one of New York's leading philanthropic and social lights, advertises for a young woman to work in her apartment mornings. The advertisement is answered by a girl evidently of birth and breeding. In spite of the fact that she admits a desire to hide her identity, Mrs. Schuyler accepts her on trust and tags her with the name of Hope Schuyler.

Besides the lady herself, Mrs. Schuyler's family consists of her mother, Mrs. Van Dorn; a young brother, Jim Van Dorn, and an older brother, Bertie, who is away, but whose room is always kept ready for him. Sally Wallis, Mrs. Schuyler's god-daughter, calls during the course of the morning.

INSTALLMENT IX. IMPENDING TROUBLE.

Hope realized that there was a limit to the amount of lecturing she could endure from Mrs. Schuyler, so she said, "Since you are still so apprehensive about your brother, surely the wise course is for me to leave. I'm willing to work hard, but, frankly, I'm not willing to accept this complication. So let's say good-by," she smiled, "with entire good will on both sides."

"My dear girl, don't be foolish!" Mrs. Schuyler descended from her platform with a haste that was almost a scramble. "You know it won't be easy for you to find another situation, and I admit it won't be possible for me to replace you. So let's say no more about it."

"O, but you will say more about it!" Hope's tone was one of flat depression. "You'll talk about it every time your brother passes me in the hall or enters a room where I am. Or if you don't talk you'll think and look volumes. I'd like to hold the position, but what's the use of trying? If you knew how I loathe the type of man you say your brother is," she ended almost fiercely, "you wouldn't be disturbed about us!"

"I'm not."

Quite suddenly the woman before her was the noted Mrs. Schuyler, equal to any situation. "I keep forgetting that you're a gentleman, which is stupid of me. You have my entire confidence, my dear, and I assure you this question will not come up again."

"Very well. Till tomorrow at eight, then."

Hope went on to her own room feeling like an English governess in fiction. English governesses in fiction, she recalled, were always coming up against eligible young men of the household where they worked and losing their situations because of these youths. It was the first time she herself had experienced this particular form of annoyance but, of course, it was a thing one must expect if authors and dramatists are to be accepted as authorities. She changed her uniform for the black gown, put on the Russian toque, and jerking herself into her coat left the Schuyler apartment with a sensation of relief. It had appeared a safe and secure refuge only a few hours ago, but already its atmosphere was changing. Even the walls of her little room seemed closing in on her.

Part of this, of course, was due to her mental condition. Her recent experiences had made her morbid. But there was something more. She had developed a sort of sixth sense which told her of impending trouble, and from far down within her this sense was issuing its warning now.

It was Sally Wallis who unconsciously wiped out the black picture of James Van Dorn that injured young man's sister had drawn for her secretary.

Breathing into the Schuyler home the next morning Miss Wallis demanded her godmother, but accepted without disappointment the announcement that the lady was attending an up-town committee meeting. Having given her this information, the new secretary added a nod intended to convey a friendly farewell. It was a busy day. Apparently everyone who knew Mrs. Schuyler was calling her on the telephone, and the door was equally active. Moreover, there was an unusually heavy mail. Miss Wallis got the message of the nod, but lingered.

"Jim gone out?" she asked casually.

"I think so. I'm not sure."

"Did he get in late last night?"

"Good heavens, how should I know?" Hope looked up from her letters in surprise. It was one of her brief intervals in the study, where Sally had followed her.

"I thought you might have heard something said about it after you came."

The secretary made some penciled notes on the margin of a letter. They were supposed to give Mrs. Schuyler the gist of the reply that had been sent to that particular correspondent, and they would have done so if Mrs. Schuyler ever looked into her letter files.

"If I had"—Hope absently answered Sally's last remark as she wrote on—"I shouldn't consider it necessary to repeat it."

"Right on the solar plexus," Sally murmured. "That was a wicked one!"

"Then don't ask me questions," Hope begged. "If you want information about Mr. Van Dorn's movements go to Kawa. I understand he's a high authority."

"Kawa doesn't like me. Girls were different when he was young," Sally jeered.

"I hope they were."

"She looks so nice and she can be so catty," Sally mused aloud. "And I'm so friendly, too, and cheering her with girlish patter!"

Hope laid down her work and looked at the reckless, painted little face, recognizing for the first time that the painting of that face was a somewhat unusual work of art. The flapper's cheeks were thickly coated with what appeared to be white enamel, while the lines of the jaw and chin and the lobes of the girl's pretty ears were dashing touched with red. Her mouth was as vividly scarlet as pomegranate flower and her blue eyes and yellow hair added the final accents to the most original make-up in Sally's set.

"Now come," Hope said good humoredly, "be reasonable. I haven't time for patter! I don't want to be catty, but Mrs. Schuyler has loaded me up with twice as much work as I can finish, and I must keep at it. You see that, don't you?"

"I see you have an ingrowing conscience. All right, I'll fade out." But Sally still lingered, filling the interval by taking the inevitable cigaret from her case and lighting it.

"I don't care whether Jim was late or not," she abruptly announced, as she sent out the first smoke ring. "I'm not one of his victims. Not that he has many," she added. "Aunt Maud thinks he has, but she's got to guess again. The girls fall for his looks, but they get over him in a few minutes. Jim has no pep. He's always doing the big brother stunt. And when it comes to petting, he's a dead one! I kissed him once when he was off his guard, and I'll tell the world once was enough! He gave me brotherly advice for the next eight minutes by my wrist watch. We leave Jim out of our necking parties now," she ended, with her characteristic yawn.

"Child," the new secretary seriously assured her, "you make me rather sick."

The child laughed tentatively, threw her cigaret into the fire, and immediately lit a fresh one.

"How many of those do you smoke in a day?"

"Cigarettes? O, a few boxes. Why?"

"I was wondering if you knew they were hurting your eyes, spoiling your complexion and wrecking your nerves."

Sally shook her head.

"Old stuff," she commented. "Unworthy of you. Now if you'd mentioned that a girl isn't as kissable when she smells of stale tobacco, I might give the proposition some thought. Dick Bellew as much as told me that—the pig—at a hide and seek last night. He and I crawled into a cedar chest at the Bellams'. It was a heavenly place, just big enough for the two of us when the top was down. It had linen in it and smelled of lavender and dried rose leaves. But Dick kept the top up. He said I filled it with the smell of stale tobacco! He doesn't hit the weed himself. But wouldn't that slam give you the pip!"

Hope repeated, "You certainly make me feel rather sick," and Sally laughed again. The opinions of others concerning her and her actions seemed the least important items in her hectic world, but it was becoming clear that she had a definite purpose in loitering. "Too bad," she muttered, "when I was going to ask a favor."

"Ask it, but please be quick."

Sally crossed the room, threw the second cigaret into the fire, and returned to the desk with an air of one about to unburden herself of weighty matters.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

THE GUMPS—LIBERTY, WHAT CRIMES, ETC.

MR. TOASTMASTER AND GENTLEMEN—IN COMING TO YOUR WONDERFUL CITY I FEEL AS HAPPY AS A WANDERING BOY COMING HOME FOR THANKSGIVING—I DID NOT HAVE THE GREAT HONOR OF BEING BORN IN YOUR DELIGHTFUL CITY BUT THE NAME OF PHILADELPHIA IS ENshrined IN THE HEART OF EVERY GUMP AND IT IS WITH DEEP PRIDE THAT I INFORM YOU THAT MY ANCESTOR, EZRA GUMP, WAS WITH THE LATE WM PENN WHEN THIS HISTORIC CITY—

MY ANCESTOR WAS A FIGHTING QUAKER WHO REGRETTED TO HIS DYING DAY THE FACT THAT CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND HIS CONTROL FORCED HIM TO LEAVE THE CITY HE LOVED SO WELL—ALTHOUGH YOUR JEALOUS RIVALS HAVE TERMED YOUR BEAUTIFUL CITY "SLEEPY" I STATE WITHOUT FEAR OF SUCCESSFUL CONTRADICTION THAT IT IS THE MOST PROGRESSIVE, WIDEAWAKE CITY THIS SIDE OF MARS—

WHENEVER THE CALL TO ARMS HAS SOUNDED IT NEVER FOUND THE CITIZENS OF THIS FAIR CITY ASLEEP—I HAVE COME TO YOUR BEAUTIFUL CITY TO FIGHT FOR FREEDOM—LET THE OLD LIBERTY BELL RING OUT ONCE MORE AND HAVE ITS BRAZEN TONGUE TELL YOUR PATRIOTIC CITIZENS TO VOTE FOR ANDREW GUMP—

The Fun Shop

BY MAXSON RUTHAL JUBEL

THE TWIG.
By Ida M. Thomas.
He stopped to admire her baby. While passing through her train. He was old, with years of wisdom. And could not quite refrain From giving the fair young mother A bit of good advice.

So, patting the head of the baby, He spoke in tones concise:

"You have a right fine youngster."

"I hope that you," said he, "Will bring him up an honest And upright man to be."

She smiled as she made him answer: "That will be hard, I fear."

"Oh, no," he said, "If you follow The old-time saying, my dear,

"You'll find it an easy matter. Just keep this thought in mind, That as the little twig is bent, So is the tree inclined."

Again she smiled at the wise man.

As she tossed back a vagrant curl, "But the trouble is, this twig," she said, "Is bent on being a girl!"

Divided Work.
"My wife and I have a joint bank account."

"That's a good idea. Saves a lot of trouble, doesn't it?"

"Oh, yes. All I have to do is to put the money in. She draws it out."

You Said It!
Bill—What do you think of this booting stuff?

Hill—Well, it's a good way to turn nights into daze."

No Gifts to Exchange.
Ethel—Was Gladys' wedding a successful affair, dear?

Clara—Goodness, yes. I never saw so many presents, and not a duplicate among them.

—Gertrude M. Heller.

Hints For Flappers.
Corsets will last a long time if not worn out!

Time Will Tell.
Mrs. Youngbridge was radiant with happiness. She just couldn't keep her mind on the bridge game. When the talk drifted to the subject of husbands (each lady present having one), she could contain herself no longer. "Oh, I just know my husband is different from other men," she enthused.

One middle-aged patron eyed her pityingly. Youth was so frustrating.

"Of course, my dear," she agreed. "But just wait until you've been married a year; then you'll understand how really 'different' he is!"

—Ethel Keeley.

Evidence.
"That fellow Binks is going about telling everybody that he knew you when your mother used to take in wash."

"That doesn't surprise me in the least. I dare say he could show an unreciprocated bill or two to prove it."

—Bernard Hirsch.

Sarcasm.
Birdie: "Don't you think, dear, that Gertrude's hair is a pretty shade?"

Betty: "Is it, really? I haven't seen her since yesterday, you know."

—R. R. Richards.

Long and Short.
Despite the fact that I am tall And love to be a sport, I seldom make a hit because I usually am short.

Last night I frolicked with a blonde. Who helped to make things buzz. And now although my height's the same, I'm shorter than I was.

—William Craig.

A Misunderstanding.
Football Coach: "You should tackle low."

College Player: "I thought I came here to get a higher education."

—Helen Draine.

Counter Claim.
Howson Lott: "Your chickens have done a heap of damage in my garden."

Suburbs: "How about all the eggs they've laid in your place?"

—James J. O'Connell.

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor, epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesque, satires, and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at regular rates. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only, should bear name of this newspaper, and should be addressed either to the Fun Shop, or to The Atlanta Constitution, Fun Shop Headquarters, 110 West 40th Street, New York City.

(Unaccepted manuscripts cannot be acknowledged or returned.)

Just Nuts

KNOW YE, BROTHER, I'LL LIKE THAT I LOVE TO HEAR GOOD MUSIC

ALL MEMBERS OF THIS LODGE WILL HAVE A MUSICAL FUNERAL SERVICE

FOOTBALL COACH: "YOU SHOULD TACKLE LOW."

COLLEGE PLAYER: "I THOUGHT I CAME HERE TO GET A HIGHER EDUCATION."

HOWSON LOTT: "YOUR CHICKENS HAVE DONE A HEAP OF DAMAGE IN MY GARDEN."

SUBURBS: "HOW ABOUT ALL THE EGGS THEY'VE LAID IN YOUR PLACE?"

JAMES J. O'CONNELL.

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor, epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesque, satires, and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at regular rates. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only, should bear name of this newspaper, and should be addressed either to the Fun Shop, or to The Atlanta Constitution, Fun Shop Headquarters, 110 West 40th Street, New York City.

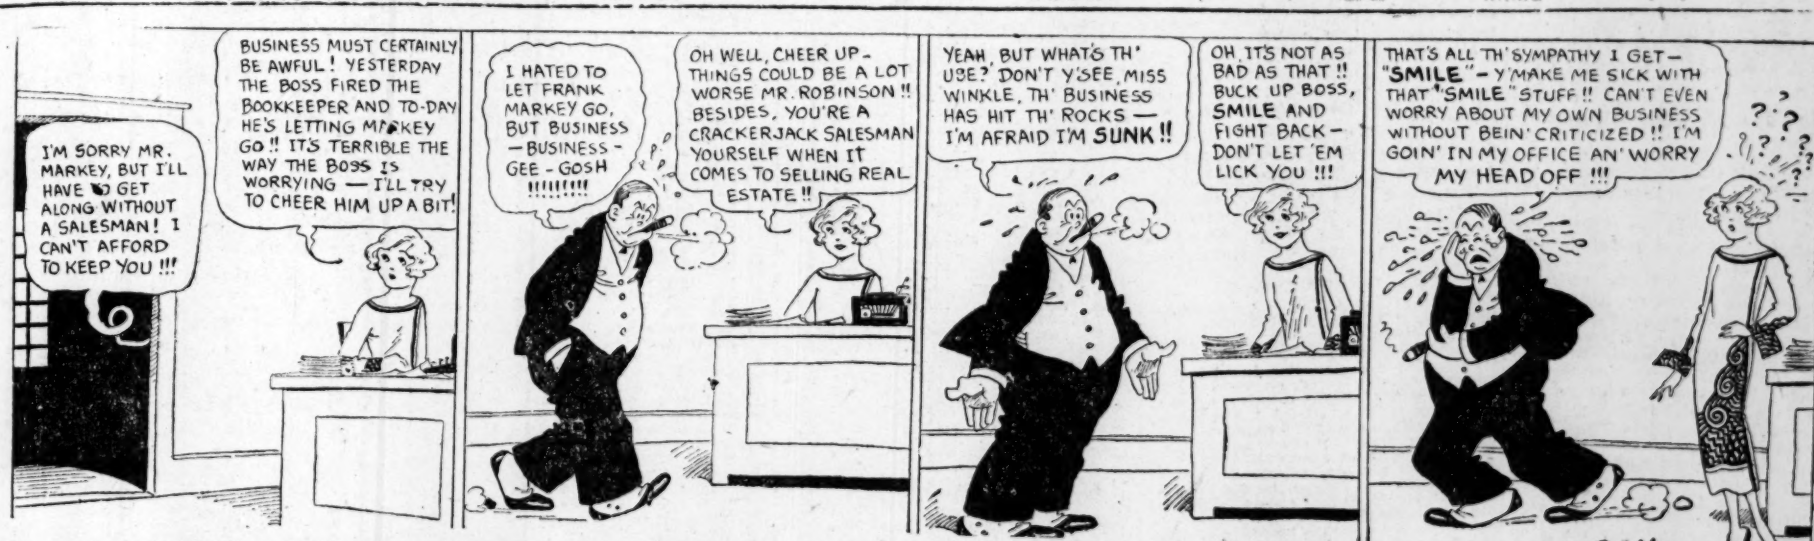

(Unaccepted manuscripts cannot be acknowledged or returned.)

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—Qualifications

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

The Boss Is Hopeless

GASOLINE ALLEY—PERTAINING TO THAT VISIT TO ALABAMA

MOON MULLINS—A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Rich's Autumn Fashion Events

Hosiery

Matches the Costume

—“A neutral tone in hosiery and a distinct feeling for matching the stockings to the gown,” the ultimatum of fashionable Paris and New York. However, with an all-black costume the Parisienne departs from the more neutral beige tones and with black frequently wears a warmer beige shade, approaching flesh.

—At Rich's—all the new autumn shades in sheer chiffon and medium silk stockings. $1.85 to $3.50.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Petit Point

Feature of the New Bags

—Loveliest new imported under-arm bags at Rich's are a rich black moire setting for the most exquisite genuine Petit Point. The square envelope style as well as the oblong are favorites now of the fashionable Parisienne. These priced $12.50 to $25.

—Very smart, too, are the colorful Beauvais bags, elaborately embroidered. Priced $9.95 to $18.50.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Reboux Hats

In Rich's French Salon

—Maria Guy, Reboux, Marcine and many of the well-known designers of truly irresistible hats are represented in many of their very newest models here at Rich's.

—One delightful new directrice effect flaunts an upstanding gray plume. $30.

—Many other lovely direct importations in felt, hatter's plush, panne velvet; priced $18 to $37.50.

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

Fascinating in Their Individuality---in Their Grace of Line---NEW

COATS

The great fall “openings” of Paris and New York are past! Fashions for coats are settled! There is no longer any doubt as to silhouette, fabric, furs! You have seen the various presentations in the Third Floor Fashion Shops—but have you seen the royally luxurious coats? They are so exquisite—so new, so intriguing—so entirely “far and away” from anything you have yet seen. We look at them almost breathlessly lest we miss some of their rare beauty! Tomorrow you can see them, royally luxurious.

Coats assume a lavish air—lavish in fabric, in color. An Epinard green coat of Cuir de Laine (copy of Aviatly) is lavishly trimmed with beaver. $187.50.

Most coats are just as tubular as close - wrapping, straight lines will make them. Witness a deep brown kashmana coat, with rock sable collar and cuffs. $187.50.

Of picturesque smartness—a wonderful kashmana coat, elaborately trimmed with leopard cat—not only collar but in band formation, it encircles the sleeves and borders the coat. $187.50.

Of inimitable chic—an elaborate coat of kashmana with dyed baby fox collar and cuffs. The color is green—the shade of evergreen that accents the autumn woods. $147.50.

Smart in outline, clever in detail—a gleaming broadcloth coat, with rock sable collar and cuffs. This coat resembles a wondrous silken wrap. $97.50.

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR.

Smart Ways To Judge Smart Coats

This is a season of coats extremely sensitive as to fashion trends—therefore simple.

The blending of fur and fabric is a distinctive note.

Flat-lying furs for barrel-like cuffs, and frequently for revers facing back the length of the coat in front.

Fabrics are soft in texture. Lusterless in effect.

The slimmer the coat the smarter.

Brown seems to lead. Green, an understudy.

Gloves

Short-Cuffed and Embroidered

—Very trim little gloves are the ones that cover Fashion's hands this fall. A pert little cuff, embroidered or scalloped, barely covers the wrist. And the tones follow closely the popular shades in footwear and hose: beige, gold-brown, tan, black and white.

—At Rich's the newest and smartest gloves are Trefousse make; in suede and kid. Priced $3.50, $4 and $6.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

The Tunic

In Many Variations

—The tunic blouse, long and slim, finds that it can have any number of variations and still retain its undisputed place of importance in the fashionable autumn wardrobe. One of navy canton crepe is scalloped at the bottom and enhanced by accordion-pleated inset at the sides. A wide suede belt and braid trimming further distinguish it. $25. Other Tunic Blouses $5.75 to $29.75.

—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

The Jabot

Frills New York Costumes

—And Atlanta women are fast seeing its fashion importance, too. Jabots find graceful, frilly touches to guimpes and collars of net and lace. And cascading down the front of many tailored ensemble are ruffles of net and lace or chiffon.

—At Rich's these new Jabots are featured in net and lace and also chiffon with satin collars. Priced $1.49 to $2.95.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

MAIN, 4636

BROAD, ALABAMA AND FORSYTH STREETS

Marriages and Wedding Plans Will Interest Society Today

A marriage of social importance taking place today is that of Miss Gladys Evelyn Byrd and Lansing Shield, of New York, which will be solemnized at 6:30 o'clock at the Ponce de Leon Baptist church in the presence of relatives and a small group of friends. The announcement of the wedding date and plans of Miss Margaret Buchanan and Robert Lee Towles will be of wide social interest, as will the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Ethel Isabel Dabney, of Conyers, Ga., to Edwin C. Echols.

BUCHANAN-TOWLES.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Buchanan and Robert Lee Towles will be a beautiful event of Thursday evening, November 6, taking place at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Druid Hills Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Dr. A. M. Pierce, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. Preceding the marriage service, an appropriate program of music will be given by Mrs. Al Tate, sister of the bride, and Miss Inez Adams.

The lovely young bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, William T. Buchanan. Mrs. Hugh Crockett, attractive twin sister of the bride-elect, will attend her as matron of honor. Miss Mabel Elder will be maid of honor and a trio of charming young girls will be bridesmaids, including Misses Claude Henderson, Eleanor Beach and Ruth Hollingsworth.

Little Miss Elizabeth Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Buchanan, will be flower girl and Miss Ann Smith, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, of Columbus, Ga., will act as ring-bearer. The groom-elect will be attended by his brother, Hubert Martin, of Ozark, Ala., as best man.

The ushers will include Homer Barter, Kelley Mosely, Ralph Tate and Mr. Porter, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Preceding the wedding, Miss Buchanan will be complimented with a number of social affairs. Among those who will entertain in her honor are: Misses Nancy Strubling, Mabel Elder, Eleanor Beach, Ruth Hollingsworth, Marion Carlock, Claude Henderson, May and Lollie Buchanan, Mrs. Al Tate, Mrs. Hugh Crockett, Mrs. W. T. Buchanan and Mrs. W. R. Bean.

DABNEY-ECHOLS.

Cordial interest centers in the announcement made today by Mrs. Fannie Mae Dabney of the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Ethel Isabel, to Edwin C. Echols, the wedding to take place Friday afternoon, September 26, at 2:45 o'clock at the home, 144 South Main street, Conyers, Georgia. Miss Dabney is the daughter of Mrs. Fannie Mae Dabney, who is past grand matron, O. E. S. of Georgia, and granddaughter of the Honorable and Mrs. W. V. Almond, of Conyers, Ga. The bride-elect is an attractive young woman, with a gracious personality, which has won her a host of friends.

Mr. Echols is a young man of sterling qualities, holding a responsible position as bookkeeper for the cotton oil mills at Monroe, Ga.

Stephen Leacock To Give Lecture.

Stephen Leacock will lecture at the Atlanta Woman's club auditorium this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. Leacock is frequently styled the "world's greatest living humorist" and needs no introduction to those who are acquainted with his humorous books and magazine articles. He interprets the weaknesses of human nature and present-day society through the medium of a genial humor. His caricatures show a philosophic insight into human nature and its foibles.

While the Leacock lecture is going to be given under the auspices of the Atlanta Writers' club, all who are interested in modern fiction are invited to attend.

Tickets are on sale at Phillips & Crew and the Atlanta Woman's club at $1 each.

CLUBS OF ATLANTA HELP IN SUCCESS OF "BOOSTER WEEK"

Representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will address members of the Masonic club at its luncheon to be held at the Peacock cafe today at 12:30 o'clock, in behalf of the "Booster Week" campaign being conducted by the Jaycees this week. The Junior Chamber is also sponsoring the Tech-Oglethorpe football game, a clash to decide city supremacy on the gridiron. Cooperation of all civic organizations is being asked by the repre-

Beautiful Bride of Today

Photograph by Wesley Hirschberg

Miss Gladys Byrd, whose marriage to Lansing Shield will be an interesting social event of this evening, taking place at 6:30 o'clock at the Ponce de Leon Baptist church.

A Remarkable Sale Quality Furniture At Half Price!

Bedroom, Dining, Living Room
Suites and Odd Pieces

Such a sale as this is indeed a rare opportunity for the buying of real quality furniture, all from our regular stock—the dependable, high-grade furniture of a character that one is proud to have in the home.

And the reason is—our fall stocks, daily arriving, are so heavy that we must make room. Hence this drastic clearance at half price.

Terms of Sale

All furniture sold on convenient terms of payment when desired. All goods sold at half price, with the understanding that no exchanges or credits will be made.

For Your Convenience

For convenience in selecting, all the furniture offered at half price has been assembled, as far as practical, in one section of our fourth floor.

Partial Lists Are Given

To give some idea of the great variety and the really remarkable savings, we are giving below partial lists of the offerings. There are many more not listed.

For Dining Room Mostly Less Than Half!

$160.00	Set, 5 side, 4 arm chair in walnut; very handsome	$80.00
112.50	Walnut china cabinet	25.00
80.00	Mahogany china cabinet	20.00
98.00	Mahogany china cabinet	20.00
80.00	Walnut china cabinet	20.00
49.50	Mahogany serving table	20.00
90.00	Walnut dining table	25.00
62.50	Mahogany dining table	25.00
200.00	Colonial mahogany dining table	75.00
70.00	Walnut sideboard	35.00
29.50	Walnut serving table	14.75

Unfinished Willow

$45.00	Settee, 5 feet long	$22.50
48.50	Settee, 6 feet long	24.25
40.00	Settee, 4 feet long	20.00
21.00	Arm rocker	10.50
22.50	Wing rocker	11.25
40.00	Round table, 4 feet	15.00
55.00	Round table, glass top	27.50

Porch Furniture

$ 7.50	Oak, cane seat and back rockers	$3.75
9.00	Enamel slot back cane seat rockers	4.50
4.75	Maple cane seat and back rockers	2.37
2.50	Maple slat back cane seat rockers	1.25
4.50	Oak tables	2.25
7.50	Enamel tables	3.75
6.00	Oak tables	3.00
11.00	Swing, 6 feet	5.50
10.00	Unfinished oak swing	5.00

Handsome Dining Suite

$3,500.00 Twelve-piece suite, Italian Renaissance, marble tops, very beautiful hand carving. Sideboard, serving cabinet, china cabinet, table, 7 side and 1 arm chair, in mohair $1,750.00

For Living Room

$460.00	Davenport and arm chair, overstuffed in mohair	$230.00
$240.00	Overstuffed suite, bed-davenport, chair, rocker, velours	120.00
$75.00	Tapestry arm chair	37.50
$105.00	Arm chair, overstuffed in mulberry velours	52.50
$475.00	Davenport and arm chair in solid mahogany, down seats of rose brochette	235.00
$160.00	Damask covered arm chair	80.00
$130.00	Arm chair, overstuffed	65.00
$362.50	Suite, overstuffed brown mohair, divan, chair, rocker	185.00
$80.00	Solid mahogany fireside bench	40.00
$166.00	Velour overstuffed suite, divan, wing chair, rocker	83.00
$100.00	Wing chair, overstuffed in taupe velours	50.00
$75.00	Wing chair in blue and taupe velours, overstuffed	37.50
$80.00	Arm chair, overstuffed in taupe velours	40.00
$220.00	Tapestry suite, overstuffed davenport, arm chair, rocker	110.00
$65.00	Mahogany velour covered arm chair	32.50
$69.00	Cane back velour arm chair	34.50
$50.00	Velour seat arm chair	25.00
$21.50	Cane back velour seat chair	10.75
$35.00	Mahogany tapestry seat chair	17.50
$30.00	Arm rocker, velour seat	15.00
$29.00	Mohair seat arm rocker	14.50
$44.00	Denim covered arm rocker	22.00

Handsome Dining Suite

$1,380.00 Ten-piece Chippendale mahogany suite, beautifully hand carved. Sideboard, table, serving table, china cabinet, 5 side and 1 arm chair $690.00

Bedroom Suites and Many Odd Pieces

$365.00	Suite, 8 pieces, Simmons steel twin beds, vanity, chiffonette, night table, chair, rocker, bench; in Venetian gray	$182.75
$265.50	Suite, 7 pieces, Simmons steel bed; in American walnut finish	132.75
$179.50	Suite, 3 pieces, combination walnut vanity, dresser, four-post bed	89.75
$301.00	Suite, 6 pieces, brown mahogany, dresser, chiffonette, twin beds, chair, rocker	150.50
$382.00	Suite, 6 pieces, ivory decorated, dresser, vanity, toilet table, bed, chiffonette, bench	191.00
$206.00	Suite, 6 pieces, stipple parchment enamel, dresser, double bed, toilet table, night table, bench, chair	103.00
$559.00	Suite, 6 pieces, crotch walnut, dresser, chiffonette, double bed, chair, rocker, night table	279.50
$200.00	Solid mahogany dresser	100.00
$150.00	Solid mahogany toilet table	75.00
$38.50	Walnut toilet table	19.00
$27.00	Mahogany finish toilet table	13.50
$45.00	Walnut bedroom desk	22.50
$150.00	Mahogany chiffonette	75.00
$75.00	Enamel decorated desk	37.50
$17.50	Crib, ivory enameled	8.75

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Rugs

Special Values Prevail Throughout the Entire Department

Featuring Two Extra Specials

9x12 Ft. Axminsters

In a Good Selection of Patterns . . .

$29.75

9x12 Velvets

Seamless,
Fringed, Beautiful Colors . . .

$39.50

The Rugs you have wanted are here! Beautiful Axminsters, 9x12 feet, in good patterns, are priced $29.75. Buy several for your home today!

Special Terms
$2.75 Cash, $5 Monthly

Special Terms
$3.50 Cash, $5 Monthly

9x9 Feet Congoleum Rugs,

Extraordinary Value for . . . $9.75

These are good serviceable Congoleum Rugs in the popular 9x9 feet size. A number of patterns to select from in a shipment that has just arrived. Slight color imperfections.

Special Terms: $1.75 Cash, $1.00 Weekly

HAYERTY FURNITURE Co.

Corner Edgewood Avenue and Pryor Street

TWO RESIDENCES AND ONE STORE LOOTED TUESDAY

Detectives late Tuesday night had been unable to find any clues to shed light on the identity of burglar who shortly after midnight frightened Mrs. Fred T. Bridges, 203 Winter avenue, as they ransacked her home while her husband was away.

Mrs. Bridges told officers that she thought there were two robbers, and that she locked the door of her room when she was frightened by the noise they made. So far as could be learned the robbers got nothing for their efforts.

In a robbery before daybreak Tuesday of the home of Cator Woolford, 40 Lullwater road, burglars obtained $30.

Lifting the cash register out of the store through the skylight through which they had entered, burglars obtained about $18 in money for the risk they assumed in robbing the Peoples Street Pharmacy, 209 Peoples street.

DEMAND FOR BIRTH AND DEATH RECORD COPIES INCREASES

The demand for certified copies of birth and death records has increased rapidly during the last few months, it was announced Tuesday by the bureau of vital statistics.

In 1921, an average of 12 copies per month was issued in 1922, 21 per month, and in 1923 the number increased to 25 per month. In August 1924, 42 copies of death and 21 copies of birth records were issued, a total of 63 for that month. During the first 15 days of September, 25 death and 10 birth records were issued showing an increase over the previous month.

Many disabled soldiers must secure certified copies of birth records in order to collect additional compensation from the federal government. Certain insurance companies will not settle on an insurance claim until a certified copy of the legal death certificate is filed with the company.

Since the legal death record contains not only the cause of death over the physician's signature, but also a statement by some friend as to the father, mother and the history of the deceased, along with the fact that the body was buried at a certain place and time, all of which information is verified over the signature of an official, either a city clerk or justice of the peace, it is unnecessary to attempt to secure a valid proof of death than a legal death certificate.

Atlantes Are Urged To Attend Football Game on Saturday

At the luncheon Tuesday of the Atlantes, J. F. Gordy, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, made a short talk urging members to attend the Tech-Oglethorpe football game. He also presented to the club a football autographed by the captains of the two teams.

A letter was read from E. L. Harling, president of the Carnegie library, in which it was stated that the 25th anniversary of the institution will be celebrated November 20 and requesting the Atlantes to appoint a representative to serve on the sponsorship committee.

Judge Luther Z. Rosser had been appointed to represent the Atlantes on this committee, it was announced by D. J. Meyerhardt.

GROUP RECITAL WILL BE GIVEN THURSDAY

The Atlanta School of Oratory and Expression will give a special group recital in its regular studio, Baptist Tabernacle, at 8 o'clock, Thursday night.

Among those appearing on the program will be Miss Margaret Saville, in a humorous reading; R. P. Johnson, in a stirring oration; and Miss Annie Belle Willis, in impersonations.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

Tallulah Falls Trustees Will Meet at Atlanta Woman's Club

The meeting of Tallulah Falls school trustees at the Atlanta Woman's club this evening will be featured by a dinner given especially in compliment to the school's trustees who have come upon the board since the January meeting of the board. These new members are: Mrs. Lamar Rucker, of Athens; Mrs. James Y. Swift, of Middleton; Mrs. William J. Vereen, of Moultrie; Mrs. William R. Blanchard, of Columbus; Mrs. Harry M. Bird, of Bowden; Mrs. W. G. Raines, of Statesboro; Miss Lucile Akin, of Jenkinsburg; Mrs. Oscar Peebles, of Cartersville; Mrs. Walter L. Hodges, of Hartnell; Mrs. W. F. Wilhoit, of Warrenton; Mrs. E. Downer Dunmock, of Waycross.

The entire board of trustees will meet at the Atlanta Woman's club at 5 o'clock. In the absence of Mrs. Archibald P. Brantley, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. A. H. Brenner, of Augusta, and Mrs. S. V. Sanford, of Athens, first and second vice presidents of the state organization, will attend the meeting of the trustees from 5 to 10 o'clock with dinner as a feature of the occasion. Mrs. John King Oitley is president of the board of trustees.

PEACHTREE GARDEN CLUB.

The Peachtree Garden club will meet with Mrs. Robert Alton at her home on Andrews drive Monday, September 29, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson will give a talk on "The Garden and Greenhouse" that she saw this summer on a visit to Magnolia, Mass.

Mrs. John W. Grant will tell "What to Do in the Garden Now."

Mrs. Albert Howell will read an article by Richardson Wright, editor of House and Garden.

HILL STREET CENTER.

The Hill Street School Baby Health Center has been changed to the St. Paul Baby Health Center and will be held at St. Paul church, in the kindergarten room, today at 2 o'clock. Mothers in this community will please take notice and bring babies not later than 2:30. Dr. Hoppe and the school nurses will be in charge.

WOMEN VOTERS TO MEET.

Miss Eleonore Raoul, chairman of organization of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, announces that the first meeting of the organization committee will be held at league headquarters, in the Connally building, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. This will be the first meeting of this committee since Miss Raoul's return from abroad. Miss Raoul urges that all of the ward chairmen be present and bring their vice chairmen.

Reports will be read by the ward chairmen of the activities of the wards during the summer months and plans for the fall and winter will be made.

GEORGIA SOCIETY D. A. C.

The Georgia Society, Daughters of the American Colonists, will meet at the home of Mrs. Gordon Burnett, at her home on Peachtree road, Thursday afternoon, September 25.

The occasion is the regular quarterly meeting and an important report of the national convention is to be read.

Another report of great interest to the society is on the scholarship given to Wesleyan college, at Macon, at their last meeting. Mrs. Frank Orme has arranged an interesting program.

The meeting will be preceded by a short meeting of the executive board at 3:30 o'clock.

The officers and executive board will assist Mrs. Burnett in receiving her guests.

The officers of the society include: Mrs. George Thatcher, secretary, national president, Independence, Kan.; Mrs. Joseph Madison High, vice-president, southern section, Atlanta; Mrs. William Lincoln Barnes, state regent, Atlanta; Mrs. George Winship, first vice-regent, Atlanta; Mrs. John Megasin, second vice-regent, Atlanta; Mrs. Willie Martin Hunt, third vice-regent, Atlanta; Mrs. Bun Wylie, recording secretary, Atlanta; Mrs. J. Whiteford Russell, corresponding secretary, Atlanta; Mrs. Herbert Milam, treasurer, Atlanta; Mrs. Charles P. Rice, registrar, Atlanta; Mrs. E. L. Thomas, genealogist, Atlanta; Mrs. Charles L. Dean, auditor, Atlanta; Miss Virginia Hardin, parliamentarian, Atlanta.

PEACHTREE HILLS CLUB.

The Peachtree Hills Woman's club will give a barbecue at 130 Peachtree Hills avenue Saturday afternoon, September 27. A bountiful plate will be served for 50 cents. The proceeds will be used to improve this section.

There will be music and a good time for all. The public is invited. Plates will be served from 4 to 8 o'clock.

FULTON AUXILIARY.

The Woman's auxiliary of the Fulton County Medical society will meet Friday morning, September 26, at 11 o'clock at the Academy of Medicine, 32 Howard street. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Courtney Heads Clubs Of Georgia Republican Women

Mrs. Jane Harrison Courtney, who has been appointed president for Georgia of "Coolidge and Dawes Women's Clubs."

Mrs. June Harrison Courtney, of 2040 Peachtree road, has recently accepted appointment as Georgia president of the "Coolidge and Dawes Women's Clubs of America." Mrs. Courtney is a native of Boston, Mass., is national president, and national vice presidents include Mrs. Douglas Robinson, of New York; Mrs. Alice Robertson, of Muskogee, Okla.; Mrs. Henry J. Allen, of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Torrey Everett, of Pasadena, Cal.

The general object of this organization is to get 100 per cent of the women in the presidential election in November. Mrs. Courtney has lived in Atlanta for 25 years, having come here from Richmond, Va. She was a Miss Harrison and is a member of the family of that name which is prominently linked with Virginia history. She is a descendant of President William H. Harrison, of Berkeley, Va.; a granddaughter of Col. Robert Lee Wickes, the daughter of William Edward Harrison, and a great-granddaughter of Col. John Mitchell, who entertained Colonel McDowell at their colonial home at Charleston during the Revolutionary war.

The family has produced men and women who have taken a high rank in the nation's roster of famous statesmen, philanthropists and holders of high judicial posts. Mrs. Courtney's father held high offices under the republican administrations.

Los Angeles, September 23.—Eva Tanguay, vaudeville actress, is quoted as saying that a cataract is impairing the vision of her right eye.

"It's true," she is reported to have said. "I'm going blind in that one eye. I don't know what I shall do. An operation is a risk."

COMMUNITY CHEST LEADERS TO MEET ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Mell R. Wilkinson will preside at the annual meeting of the Community Chest, to be held in the Biltmore hotel next Tuesday night. The membership of the chest numbers more than 100. The entire gathering will be the dinner guests of several leaders in the Community Chest movement who have combined to defray the expense, it was stated. None of the expense will be paid from funds of the chest.

Here are formulas for astringents and bleaches.

S. B.—Use a bathbrush when bathing the upper part of arms where you have this gooseflesh. Salt baths will help it also.

Tomorrow—Beauty Formulas.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

GOVERNOR URGES FIRE PREVENTION DAY OBSERVANCE

In a proclamation issued Tuesday, Governor Walker called on all churches, civic organizations and newspapers to aid in spreading the doctrine of fire prevention and removal of fire hazards, during the week of October 5-11, which he has proclaimed as "fire prevention week" in Georgia.

The fire loss in the United States in 1923, the proclamation pointed out, was $508,000,000, the largest for any year since 1908, the year of the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Dancing for everybody at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

:: The Luxury of Love ::

BY VIOLET DARE

XXXIII.—Scandal. WILLMA RAYMOND sauntered off into the house presently, followed by her husband; their voices, raised in argument, could be heard a moment later. Evidently the discussion was based on money matters. Mary went to her room to dress for dinner and going down to the living room later was glad to find her husband there alone.

"Nigel, our six months is almost up," she began. "I've just had a note from Bruce—and well, what are we going to do?"

"Still determined to leave me?" he asked, with a smile that she did not like.

"Yes. It's only your pride that is keeping me here; you don't care for me. You promised to let me go at the end of this time, and I want to leave you and go through with whatever arrangements we can agree upon for a divorce."

"Very well. You say it's just a matter of pride with me. Then, if pride means so little to you, will you sacrifice yours to get what you want?"

"Certainly," she answered without hesitation. "I'd give up anything in the world to go to Bruce."

"All right. Here's your chance. Several of these letters that came for me today are concerned with the same thing—a report that's been going about London, which all the scandal sheets have printed. It seems that someone has told of your going off with Gillian after our marriage, before you joined me in England. Oh, I remember your telling me about it—it sounded innocent enough; I didn't realize that you spent the night together at that beach."

"Nigel—don't speak in that way; you act as if there had been some thing wrong about it, and there wasn't. I fell asleep in a beach chair, and Bruce merely sat there till I woke up, and then we caught the first train back to New York. That was all. I told you the truth."

"Well, I believe you—I'm not sufficiently interested to do otherwise. But the world doesn't agree with me apparently. Now, if you had really cared for me, had really been my wife, I'd step in and defend you! I'd go back there and make those people who are gossiping retract their words. But under the circumstances why not take advantage of this? I'll divorce you and name Gillian. People don't believe that we're together in London, at all, of course, and since we were in Paris we haven't seen anyone we know but the Raymonds; they'd stand by us. I believe that we're together in London, at all, of course, and since we were in Paris we haven't seen anyone we know but the Raymonds; they'd stand by us. I believe that we're together in London, at all, of course, and since we were in Paris we haven't seen anyone we know but the Raymonds; they'd stand by us."

"You are very sure," he commented.

"Yes. I am so sure that this thing must turn out as it should that I have no fear about it."

He looked at her curiously. "You act as if you had some supernatural power," he remarked.

"I haven't, but I'm relying on one," she replied, and went into the cabin.

Tomorrow—Marking Time.

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Mary was glad to find her husband alone.

staying here with you—with winter coming on—I'd cut my throat first."

"You hear that?" observed Nigel to Mary. "Wanting money as much as she does, do you think she'd hesitate at telling anything I'd ask her to do? The witness stand, if I paid her well enough?"

"Probably not," Mary answered, quietly. "I realize that you seem to be able to do whatever you want to. But I'm not afraid, Nigel. I've done the best I could, always. When I've made mistakes, I've tried to right them as soon as I realize what I'd done. You wanted me to marry you even though I didn't care for you. I was frank with you then, and I've told you the truth ever since. Lies can't hurt me now, because I've got the power of truth on my side."

"You are very sure," he commented.

"Yes. I am so sure that this thing must turn out as it should that I have no fear about it."

He looked at her curiously. "You act as if you had some supernatural power," he remarked.

"I haven't, but I'm relying on one," she replied, and went into the cabin.

Tomorrow—Marking Time.

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Better Service.

Train the maid that everything relating to one course at dinner should be removed before the next course is served and thus avoid an unsightly table.

Sundry Thoughts.

For your health's sake, start each day with a small glass of orange juice.

Woolens hung on the line dripping wet are not so likely to shrink as those wrung out before drying.

When making meat loaf, make a larger one than necessary. It is deliciously sliced cold for the next day's lunch.

A Top Coat for the Cleaner.

When the house or apartment is small, it is often necessary to keep the electric vacuum cleaner in a clothes closet. The bag is bound to be dusty and a cover of cretonne is a joy to slip over it before putting away to prevent the dust from ruining one's clothes. A heading in the top of a square of material with a draw string that will tighten around the top of the bag is just the thing.

FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER IS DUE IN ATLANTA TODAY

Following a drop of 15 degrees in temperature Tuesday morning as compared to Monday, the weather forecast for Atlanta today is fair with a slight increase in temperature.

Fall weather is now here to stay, short of some unexpected meteorological caper, and it is not likely that the city will see much more 80-degree weather this year. It is also improbable that there will be any rain in this vicinity for the next few days, it is said.

The lowest temperature Tuesday was 57 degrees, early in the morning, with a maximum of 75 in the afternoon. The range for today is expected to be between 60 and 75 degrees.

Rains during the past 24 hours have been limited to the Atlantic Coast states, with fair weather prevailing throughout the interior.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The regular meeting of the trustees of Tallulah Falls school will be held at the Atlanta Woman's club this evening from 5 to 10 o'clock.

The West End Woman's club will hold its regular meeting at 3 o'clock in the club rooms at 305 Gordon street.

The DeKalb county council of the Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular fall meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the Decatur high school.

The Davis Street school Parent-teacher association will meet at the school at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Oglethorpe chapter No. 122, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Masonic temple on Peachtree road, at Buckhead.

The Ira Street Parent-Teacher association will meet at 2:30 o'clock at the school this afternoon.

The Home Park P. T. A. will hold the first meeting of the year this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. B. H. Matthews, president, will preside and chairmen for the year will be appointed.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Hoke Smith Junior High school will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the new Hoke Smith school on Hill street.

The Parent-Teacher association of W. F. Slaton school will hold its first fall meeting this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The regular meeting of the Atlanta Truth center will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Biltmore hotel in rooms 7 and 8 on the mezzanine floor. The evening class will be held at the First Congregational church on Ellis street at 6 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Civic club of West End will meet this afternoon in the club rooms, corner Gordon street and Grady Place.

The West End Study class will resume its regular bi-monthly meetings this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The first meeting of the year will be held at "The Wren's Nest," on Gordon street, with the Misses Tucker as hostesses.

The division of library extension and rural education of the Atlanta Woman's club, of which Mrs. Flora McDaniel Pitts is chairman, will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

St. Paul baby health center will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the kindergarten room.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Druid Hills Baptist church will meet at the church every second Tuesday of the month at 3 o'clock. Interesting programs concerning evangelistic and educational work in Georgia have been prepared.

The regular monthly meeting of the Atlanta Art association will be held in the directors' room, second floor, Fulton National bank, on Marietta street at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

For Wednesday Only

House Slippers—Regular $1.45 Values

Black Kid Boudoir Slippers

Special for Today $1.00

These have flexible soles and rubber heels. Sizes 3 to 8—special for today only—

Black Kid One-Strap House Slippers

Special for Today $1.00

Here is just the slipper you need for the house—they have flexible sole and rubber heels. Sizes 3 to 8.

On Sale at Our Downstairs Store Only

Davison-Paxon-Stokes Co.

Revealed to Striking Advantage in This Special Showing of

Silk Dresses

$39.75

YOU'LL step into the new season with the perfect assurance of being correctly attired if you choose from this collection of dresses. They picture most attractively Fashion's very latest whims in models suited to the individuality of varied types of women.

Made of the season's choice silks—satin, bengaline and faille, in the straight-line styles that are being accorded such pronounced popularity. Coat styles, too, are quite prominent among them. An almost endless variety of style-touches lends irresistible charm. Navy, brown, black. And values of a really remarkable sort!

Fourth Floor

$9.00 Bench Made

Velvet

Velvet footwear! The new vogue, sponsored exclusively by Miller's. We illustrate one of our many advanced creations in this "beautiful, distinctive Fall material."

Order By Mail

Miller's Quality Footwear

ATLANTA

43 Peachtree St.

Happy After Years of Misery

Hundreds of Women Grateful for Relief from Suffering

A Woman's Thankful Message

I write in praise of your treatment, for I have been so much helped by it. I suffered until I would rather have been dead than in the agony I was in. I could not walk, ride, work or do any thing worth while, but thanks to you I am relieved of my trouble.

If I had heard of your treatment 3 or 4 years ago I could have been happy all these years, which I have been miserable. If any sufferer wishes to write me I will gladly answer.

MISS DORA POWELL, Greenville, S. C.

Don't Worry and Suffer

You can't do better than seriously consider these letters, taken from hundreds of grateful women who have written you. The relief from pain and misery which they have experienced should point the way to every woman who suffers with ailments of woman-kind.

Ten Days FREE Trial—Send No Money

Test Mrs. Sumners' Opaline Remedy for yourself, in your own home, without the knowledge or aid of anyone. If you are benefited as thousands have been, you can continue the treatment at about 12c per week. For 25 years women have reported it successful in even the longest, most obstinate cases. Used by old and young and does not interfere with daily work. Write in confidence, as your letter is opened, read and answered by a woman. But don't delay happiness another day.

THE SUMMERS MEDICAL CO., Women's Dept. E South Bond, Ind. (Mrs. Sumners' Remedies Are Sold at Leading Drug Stores)

Here are formulas for astringents and bleaches.

S. B.—Use a bathbrush when bathing the upper part of arms where you have this gooseflesh. Salt baths will help it also.

Tomorrow—Beauty Formulas.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

GOVERNOR URGES FIRE PREVENTION DAY OBSERVANCE

In a proclamation issued Tuesday, Governor Walker called on all churches, civic organizations and newspapers to aid in spreading the doctrine of fire prevention and removal of fire hazards, during the week of October 5-11, which he has proclaimed as "fire prevention week" in Georgia.

The fire loss in the United States in 1923, the proclamation pointed out, was $508,000,000, the largest for any year since 1908, the year of the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Dancing for everybody at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

Here are formulas for astringents and bleaches.

S. B.—Use a bathbrush when bathing the upper part of arms where you have this gooseflesh. Salt baths will help it also.

Tomorrow—Beauty Formulas.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

GOVERNOR URGES FIRE PREVENTION DAY OBSERVANCE

In a proclamation issued Tuesday, Governor Walker called on all churches, civic organizations and newspapers to aid in spreading the doctrine of fire prevention and removal of fire hazards, during the week of October 5-11, which he has proclaimed as "fire prevention week" in Georgia.

The fire loss in the United States in 1923, the proclamation pointed out, was $508,000,000, the largest for any year since 1908, the year of the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Dancing for everybody at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

Here are formulas for astringents and bleaches.

S. B.—Use a bathbrush when bathing the upper part of arms where you have this gooseflesh. Salt baths will help it also.

Tomorrow—Beauty Formulas.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

GOVERNOR URGES FIRE PREVENTION DAY OBSERVANCE

In a proclamation issued Tuesday, Governor Walker called on all churches, civic organizations and newspapers to aid in spreading the doctrine of fire prevention and removal of fire hazards, during the week of October 5-11, which he has proclaimed as "fire prevention week" in Georgia.

The fire loss in the United States in 1923, the proclamation pointed out, was $508,000,000, the largest for any year since 1908, the year of the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Dancing for everybody at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

DAVISON-PAXON-STOKES Co

The Fall Mode

Revealed to Striking Advantage in This

Special Showing of

Silk Dresses

$39.75

YOU'LL step into the new season with the perfect assurance of being correctly attired if you choose from this collection of dresses. They picture most attractively Fashion's very latest whims in models suited to the individuality of varied types of women.

Made of the season's choice silks—satin, bengaline and faille, in the straight-line styles that are being accorded such pronounced popularity. Coat styles, too, are quite prominent among them. An almost endless variety of style-touches lends irresistible charm. Navy, brown, black. And values of a really remarkable sort!

Fourth Floor

ATLANTAN TO ATTEND DIETETIC CONVENTION

Miss Frances Wike, dietitian at the Piedmont hospital, of Atlanta, will represent the state of Georgia at the seventh annual convention of the American Dietetic association, to be held at New Ocean house, Swampscott, Mass., on October 13-14-15-16, it was announced Tuesday by Miss Ruth Maudlin, Georgia state chairman of the publicity committee of the association.

It is expected that the convention will have a large attendance, and in addition to the program, commercial and non-commercial exhibits will give all members an opportunity to make valuable comparisons, it was pointed out.

WEDDING
100 Hand-Engraved Announcements $10.00
100 Not Engraved $5.00
Refined Quality and Service.
Write for Latest Samples and Correct Forms.
SHAPIRO & PARKER
Social Engravers
810 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

SECRET OF KEEPING YOUNG

Why is it that some women look older at thirty-five than others do at fifty? Why is it that so many women are always run-down, weak, pale, nervous, irritable and unhappy? Health, vitality and freedom from pain and disease alone prevent the signs of age from fastening themselves upon women. All over this country women are awakening to the fact that the ills, aches and pains of women may be relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the result is renewed life, energy and the secret of keeping young is to ward off all internal ailments that cause premature old age, which is easily accomplished by this remarkable root and herb remedy.—(adv.)

SHOE BARGAINS AT BLACK'S

Children's School Shoes at Prices You Like to Pay

PETERS "WEATHERBIRD"
Sizes 10 to 13
13 1-2 to 2
2 1-2 to 6

Best Quality

Prices
Infants—95c to $1.45
Children's—$1.95 to $2.95
Misses—$2.95 to $3.95
Boys—$2.45 to $3.95
Over 100 styles

Health and service styles for your Little Folks.

PETERS "WEATHERBIRD"

Attempt To Drug Child Is Charged Against Father

Charging her husband with an attempt to "dope" their seven-week-old baby and with repeated threats against her life, Mrs. Bertha Kelly, proprietor of the Southern College of Cosmetology, in the Connally building filed suit for divorce in Fulton superior court Tuesday.

The suit alleged that the husband, T. W. Kelly, while under the influence of drugs himself, tried to "dope" their infant child. Mrs. Kelly sets out in her suit that he became infuriated when she remonstrated with him, and abused her cruelly. This happened on September 17—the month of their seventh wedding anniversary, she said.

Mrs. Kelly also charged that on one occasion, when she was ill, her husband hit her with a "hard grape fruit," causing her much pain and leaving her "a nervous wreck." The suit also alleges that Kelly was an habitual drunkard, coming home late at night and abusing Mrs. Kelly. She asks a total divorce and custody of their two children.

GORDON STREET CHURCH NAMES DEACONS' BOARD

The board of deacons for the Gordon Street Baptist church, to serve for the year beginning October 1, 1924, and ending September 30, 1925, was elected at a meeting of the congregation recently.

The following were named to serve on the board: J. G. Barrow, B. H. Bell, W. R. Bell, R. P. Blasinghame, A. B. Brown, J. P. Bonner, C. A. Cobb, J. W. Hallhouse, Guy Dobbs, W. J. Duncan, A. T. Fuller, E. H. Gibson, H. P. Griffith, A. A. Hall, T. M. Hill, J. H. Hudson, J. L. James, L. N. Landers, J. T. Marker, R. B. Martin, C. G. Mitchell, E. E. Regan, C. C. Ranson, B. C. Smith.

The Constitution's Patterns

A VERY ATTRACTIVE FROCK FOR THE GROWING GIRL

4685. Wool crepe, pongee, linen or gingham, could be used for this model. The closing is under the plait in front. The trimming folds may be omitted on sleeves and waist.

This pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. A 10-year size requires 2 1-2 yards of 40-inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

A PLEASANT PLAY SUIT

4853. Comfortable and very practical is the model here portrayed. It may be finished with the sleeves in wrist length or short as in the back view.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. A 3-year size requires 2 5-8 yards of 36-inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

CHAMBER WILL AID FIGHT ON CHANGES IN STREET NAMES

Widespread interest has been created throughout the city in the movement recently inaugurated and sponsored by the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association, the general purpose of which is to avoid unnecessary changes in the names of Atlanta's streets, to correct the confusion now existing by reason of considerable duplication in the names of many streets, similarly in the names of other streets, and unsystematic, irregular numbering of houses.

A letter has just been received by the Merchants' association from the chamber of commerce, recognizing the necessity for action along these lines, and offering its cooperation toward the success of the movement. Large public service agencies, such as the Western Union Telegraph company, the Southern Bell Telephone company, the United States postoffice and others have written, emphasizing the necessity for some concerted action to remedy the confusion now existing.

A special committee, headed by James L. Wells, chairman, appointed by the general street committee of city council, of which Captain C. D. Knight is chairman, is now making an exhaustive investigation and analysis of the situation with a view to recommending some action on the part of the city government that will result in better service to the entire community.

Dr. Ashby Jones Speaks.

"The Story of a Prejudice" will be the subject of the sermon by Dr. Ashby Jones at the Wednesday evening service at Ponce de Leon Baptist church, it was announced Tuesday. Services will be held in the church annex at 7:30 o'clock and a special program of music has been arranged with vocal solos by Miss Virginia Martin.

DECISION DEFERRED ON AVIATION FIELD

Consideration of suitable sites for a municipal airplane landing field for Atlanta will be taken up at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at a joint meeting of special committees of city council and Fulton county commissioners. The meeting originally was set for Tuesday, but was deferred owing to illness of Edwin F. Johnson, chairman of the county board and a member of the committee, and absence of Paul S. Etheridge, another member of the county committee.

The Nichols property on Brown Mill road is favored by the councilmanic committee, it was stated Tuesday by Dr. C. C. Aven, chairman, and if the county committee also approves the site, steps will be taken to buy the property. Another site to be considered is located near the county poor farm on Power's Ferry road.

Dr. Aven also stated that Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Danforth, commander of air forces for the fourth corps area, has approved the Brown Mill site as the most adaptable in the city.

The city planned to lease that property for a landing field in 1922, and secured an option, but allowed it to lapse.

Chile Recognized.

Santiago, September 23.—Minister of Foreign Relations Carlos Aldunate today announced the recognition of the new Chilean government by Germany, Great Britain and the Holy See.

Fall Fashions, Music, Dancing at Shrine Fashion Show, Auditorium tonight.

Three Good Hair Cutters

Mr. Brown, Mr. Buonomo, Mr. Watson
Experts in bobbing and shaping the hair lines to best suit each customer's profile. Standard prices. Satisfaction assured.

The S. A. Clayton Co.
Atlanta's Largest Beauty Shoppe
18 E. Hunter St., Main 0201

CANDIDATES SPEAK TO WOMEN VOTERS

Candidates for city offices in today's primary occupied the platform Tuesday at the weekly luncheon meeting at the Atlanta League of Women Voters, held at the Pencock cafe. Practically every candidate has been given an opportunity to address members of the league at a series of pre-election meetings.

All candidates for aldermanic seats spoke, as did candidates for city warden. W. A. Hansell, in the race for reelection as chief of construction, was granted a second opportunity to address the club in order to explain and defend himself against insinuations alleged regarding his character and administration which were not made until after his first talk to league members several weeks ago.

Other speakers were Alderman Foster L. Hunter, candidate for reelection from the fifth ward; his opponent, Councilman J. Allen Couch; Carl Dolvin and C. M. Ford, both running for the aldermanic seat from the tenth ward to succeed Alderman I. N. Ragsdale, who takes his place as a member of the county commissioners on January 1; and Alderman W. B. Duvall, of the first ward, who is unopposed.

Both candidates for city warden, W. H. Johnson, incumbent, and Mrs. George P. Dixon, also spoke. W. E. Harwell, candidate for reelection as city marshal, was represented by Steve Glass.

Representatives of presidential candidates will be heard at next week's meeting. Mrs. R. K. Rambo presided at the session Tuesday.

OFFICERS OF 122D REGIMENT TO HEAR COLONEL DARRAH

Colonel T. W. Darrah, chief of staff of the fourth corps area, will be the principal speaker at 12:30 today at the regular luncheon meeting of officers of the 122d infantry, "Atlanta's Own" national guard regiment. Colonel A. E. Williams, chief of staff of the fourth army corps, also will be present at the meeting, according to Adjutant General Charles H. Cox, commanding officer of the regiment.

Colonel Darrah is chief of staff to General David C. Shanks, corps commander, and is one of the most brilliant men in the regular service. He is a graduate of a number of army schools and formerly was an instructor at the Leavenworth school. He has agreed to give part of his time this winter to handling a school for officers in Atlanta, and is expected to outline some of the plans for this school in his address at noon today.

SHRINERS' SHOW ATTRACTS THROG ON SECOND NIGHT

All amateurishness had disappeared at the second presentation of the Shriner's Fashion Show at the Auditorium Tuesday night, the girl models who displayed the handsome costumes being thoroughly at home on the illuminated runway. The fashion promenade took on a professional atmosphere as a big throng watched the display of new fall styles and stayed for the dancing, which began at 10 o'clock and continued until midnight.

The concert by the big brass band of Yaarab Temple was a special feature of the show. Tonight the Oriental orchestra will provide the feature, in combination with a Turkish ballet presented by Miss Anna Mae Coleman and her company of ten members. The Shriner's Fashion Show will be given every night this week, the proceeds going to the fund for erecting the great mosque of Yaarab Temple.

ESTATE OF DONOVAN GOES TO ONLY SON

The will of the late George R. Donovan, vice president of the Atlanta and Lowry National bank, who died last week in New York, was filed Tuesday with the Fulton county ordinary. The will leaves the entire estate, both real and personal, to Mr. Donovan's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland Donovan. Since she died last year, their only child, John S. Donovan, is natural heir. The estate is valued at $50,000.

M. Rich & Bros. Company

Advance Notice!

Orders Taken NOW for Rich's
Silk Hosiery Classics

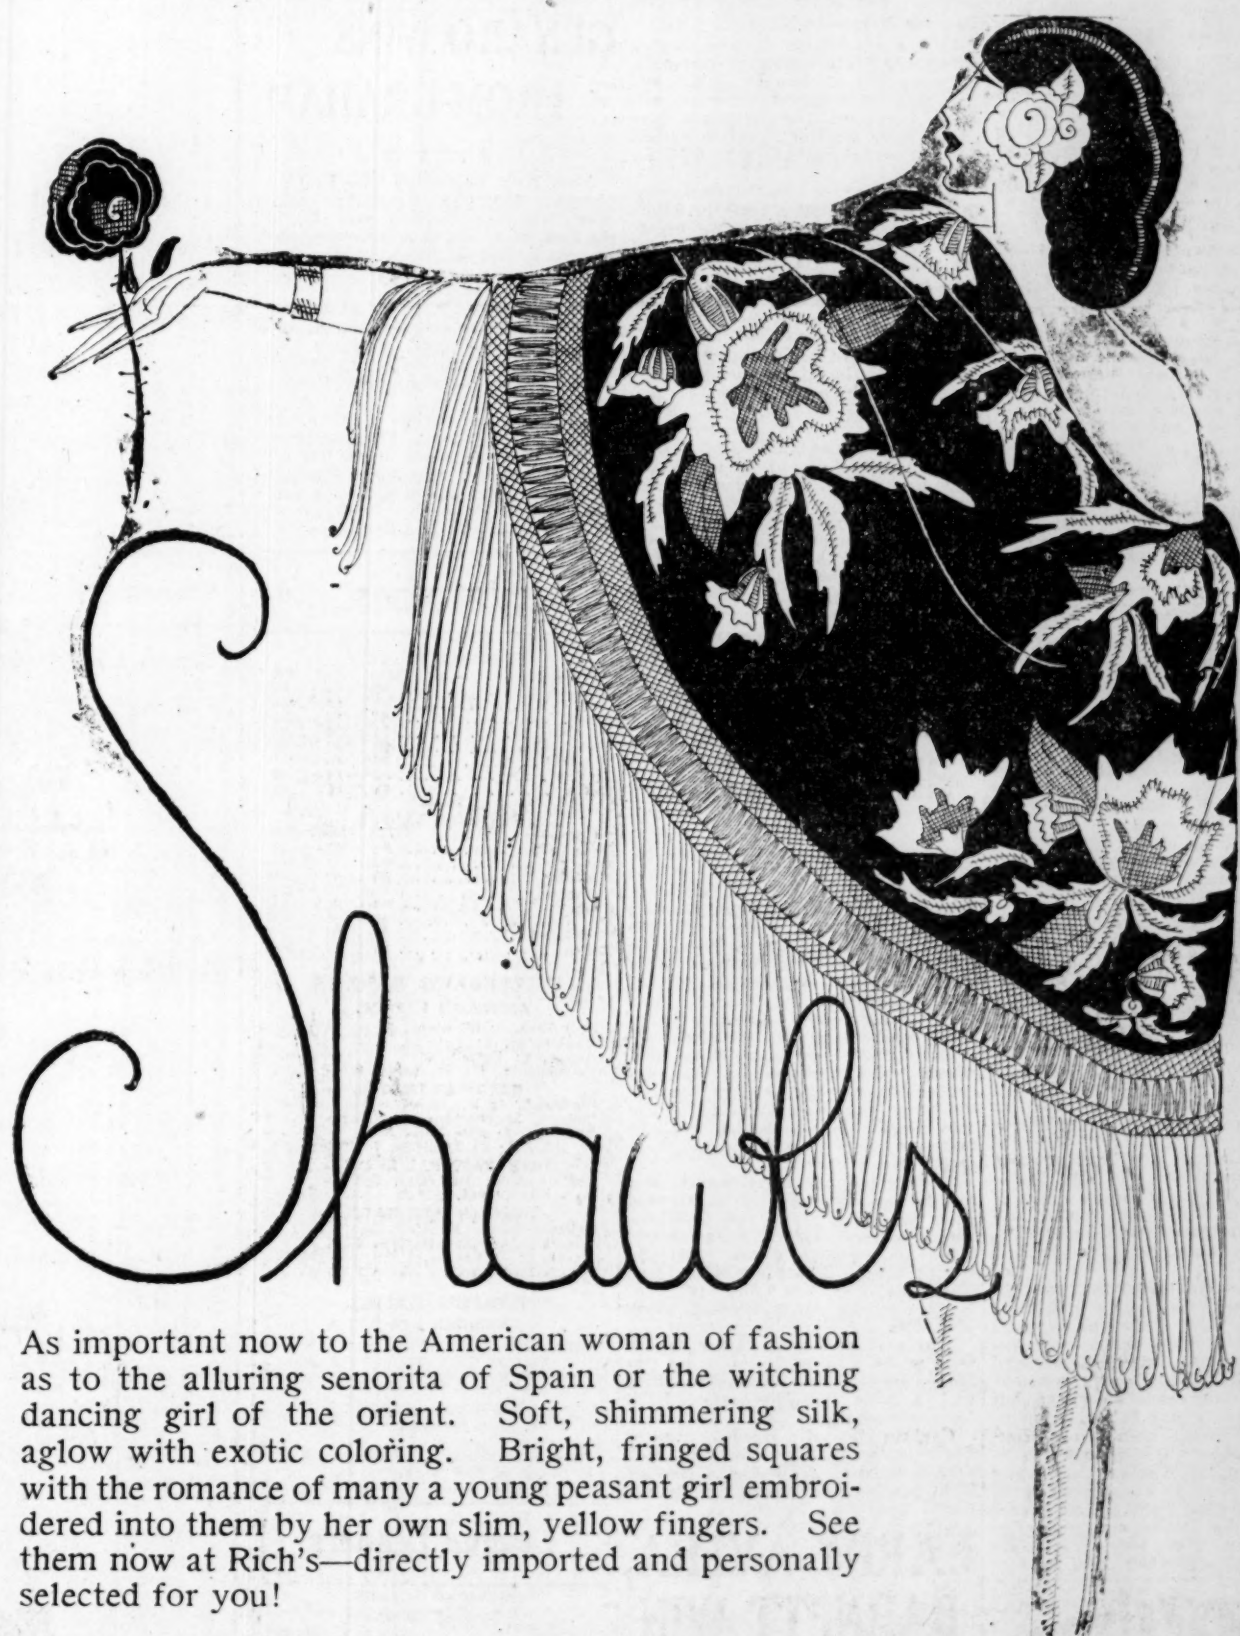

Samples on display in Hosiery Section, Street Floor. Select NOW—TODAY—in leisurely fashion—before the crowds of the Sale arrive.

—Stockings will be delivered the opening day of the Sale.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

M. Rich & Bros. Company

As important now to the American woman of fashion as to the alluring senorita of Spain or the witching dancing girl of the orient. Soft, shimmering silk, aglow with exotic coloring. Bright, fringed squares with the romance of many a young peasant girl embroidered into them by her own slim, yellow fingers. See them now at Rich's—directly imported and personally selected for you!

Chinese Shawls

—Hand embroidered Chinese shawls with deep silk fringe. White with delicately tinted embroidery. $75.

Spanish Shawls

—Heavy silk shawls of black, with contrasting embroidery of white or gold and white. Deep silk fringe. $125.

Spanish Shawls

—Heavy white silk shawls with elaborate all-over embroidery in gorgeous Spanish colorings and designs. $175.

Lace Shawls

—Spanish lace! Graceful, alluring. Exquisite all-over designs. Black or white. Priced $60.

Other Shawls priced $15 to $120.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

PHONE 4636

BROAD, ALABAMA AND FORSYTH STREETS

C. S. ROBERT

CANDIDATE FOR

Chief of Construction

TO THE VOTERS OF ATLANTA:

The Chief of the Construction Department should possess engineering ability and civic vision. I believe that my long experience as a practicing engineer justifies your confidence in my ability.

In the office of the Construction Department there are some men of engineering skill and ability who have served this city and I want the voters to realize that, if I am elected, I will not deliberately depose such engineers where the best interests of the City of Atlanta might be affected.

I charge Mr. Hansell, the present Chief of Construction, as being inefficient in his conduct of the administration of the Construction Department and this charge is substantiated by his manner and method in handling major paving projects, to wit: Highland Avenue, Hunter Street at Broad Street, Forsyth Street, Broyles Street and others. Mr. Hansell excuses this evidence of inability and inefficiency by blaming Fulton County and the Street Car Company. It is the duty of the Chief of Construction to protect the people and the business interests of the taxpayers of Atlanta who use the streets and I state here and now that this condition could have been prevented by using temporary crossings as is done in the larger cities like Washington and New York and others, and by a circumspect issuance of permits to begin work upon the streets, I CAN.

If elected, I promise the taxpayers that the affairs of this department will be administered with EFFICIENCY, COURTESY AND ABILITY, and I promise that the finger of suspicion will not be pointed toward me.

I will appreciate your VOTE AND INFLUENCE.

Respectfully,

C. S. ROBERT.

JONES MEETS CORKRAN TODAY IN NATIONAL AMATEUR

Atlantan Easily Disposes Of Can. Champ; McKenzie Is Sensation of Day's Play

BY HOMER GEORGE.

Merion Crick: Club, South Ardmore, Pa., September 23.—(Special.)—Roland McKenzie, 17-year-old Washington lad, carved a neat place for himself in the hall of golfing fame today when he staged the most sensational comeback of championship play in the national amateur golf tournament. Coming to the last hole with George von Elm, a star of long tournament experience, all square, the youngster lost his match in the first round of match play, but his feat will live long.

This was a day of hectic golf, with some startling plays, like McKenzie's, and some slopping over with dubbing. Bobby Jones easily disposed of William J. Thompson, of Toronto, holder of the Canadian championship, 6 up and 5 to play.

Tomorrow the big match will be that in which Jones meets Clarke Cockran, the Philadelphia golfer, who was low medalist in the qualifying round shot Saturday and Sunday. It will be a battle to the finish, with all eyes focused on it. Cockran advanced by defeating W. H. Gardner, of Buffalo. He began his afternoon round two down, but slipped into championship form after starting and defeated Gardner 4 up and 2 to play.

Goes Out Seven Down.

The shooting of young McKenzie today electrified the whole crowd of distinguished golfers.

Starting the afternoon round seven down, young McKenzie won the first hole, but lost two to become eight down with 15 to go. He won the next four holes in succession and lost the eighth. Then he won the ninth and started the last nine four down. In this round he was three times above par, but had two birdies.

Then he played series of pars for the last nine, taking the tenth hole to become three down and halving the next three. Then he won the 14th and halved the next two, to become dormie two. The last two holes he won when Von Elm slipped one over par on each. On the extra hole he took three putts to two by Von Elm and lost the match.

Jones played sloppy, ordinary golf in the morning to end the 18 holes all-square. He shot 80 on this round and did not seem to get going at all. In the afternoon, however, he was a different Bobby and went right out after his man. He won the first two holes with a par four and a birdie four and then halved the next three. He won the sixth and seventh with par fours and the eighth with a birdie three. Then he dropped back one over par on the ninth to lose it to Thompson, who had a perfect three. This put him four up, but he kept banging out pars and when Thompson missed on the tenth and 11th he became six up with seven to go. The next two he halved in pars and the match ended with Bobby six up and five to go.

Evans Eliminated.

One of the surprises of the day was the overwhelming defeat of Chick Evans by Rudy Knepper, who only got in the match play by winning the extra hole in which five contested. Knepper was in fine form, while Evans was badly off his game, and the result was the elimination of the Chicago star and former holder of both the amateur and open title by the decisive score of 9 up and 7 to play. It was a distinct surprise, as Chick beat Knepper at Brookline 11 up and 9 to play.

The only Englishman to win was W. L. Hope, who managed to get a verdict of 1 up after a hard match which saw several back and forth from start to finish.

Max Marston, by magnificent play in the afternoon, defeated Major Charles Hallett, the best hope of the invaders, his margin being 3 and 1. Woodie Platt played some sensational golf in the last nine to put out T. A. Torrance, 2 and 2.

Another match which went to the final green was that between Yates and Dimpsey, and this Yates won 1 up. Jess Guilford had an easy time beating Wainwright 8 up and 6 to play. Dexter Cummings had an easy time against Karl Mosser, beating him 10 up and 8 to play. Cummings is the intercollegiate champion and will be a hard man to beat.

Jacksonville Man Out.

Ed Briggs ran away from H. Chandler Egan, beating him 7 up and 6 to go. C. H. H. had a lowery by 3 and 1. Eddie Held beat Fred J. Wright, Jr., 3 and 2. Ellsworth Augustus soundly beat Jack Meredith 5 and 2.

Al Uimer, of Jacksonville, was put on the side lines by L. M. Watts, of St. Louis, by the one-sided score of 6 up and 5 to go. Uimer was far from his best game and never had a real show.

Francis Outint, who is going great in this tournament, put out Willie Hunter, 2 up and 1 to go. This is repeating his work of last year and was a finely played match, with Willie fighting desperately to the last ditch.

The play for tomorrow ought to bring out some spectacular golf. Most interest for the Philadelphia crowd and all the southern assemblage will be in the meeting between Jones and Corkran. The latter is going wonderfully and is the sensation so far, but he will have to play better tomorrow than he did today, even in the afternoon, or Bobby will eliminate him by a decisive score. Corkran has shown he has the shots by his spectacular 67 on Saturday, but he is not considered as steady as Bobby and unless he runs wild with his putter as he did Saturday he will likely lose.

LARRY AVERA, BARNETT WIN BY KAYOES

Jacksonville, Fla., September 23.—(Special.)—Larry Avera, of Atlanta, knocked out Young Joe Rivers, New Orleans welterweight, in the second round of their scheduled 10-round feature bout here tonight. A slashing attack by Avera that started at the first gong had Rivers groggy soon after the second round started.

Battling Barnett, also of Atlanta, and one of the principals in another scheduled 10-rounder on the card tonight, won his fight by knocking out Tommy Quinn, of Brooklyn, in the second round.

The fight was attended by the largest crowd here this season for a fight event. The advance seat sale passed the $3,000 mark.

Promoters of tonight's card began plans immediately after the fights to match Avera and Barnett for other bouts here soon.

Vote for C. S. Robert for chief of construction.—(adv.)

MAURER OUT FOR BRIEF PRACTICE

BY BILL MORROW.

The gloom that has encircled the Oglethorpe grid camp since Adrian Maurer has been on the injured squad lifted somewhat yesterday afternoon when the Petrel speed merchant appeared for a short workout. Coach Jim Roberts called a final scrimmage for the majority of the squad, but Captain Maurer confined his activities to limbering up his infected foot and running a few signals.

Maurer, although he took his regular place in the Petrel backfield, showed signs of trouble with the infected foot. He was running with a slight limp and his short workout was due to the coaching staff's fear that absence from the gridiron would cause lameness and additional soreness.

Coaches Jim and Harry Robertson sent the Petrel candidates through a final scrimmage yesterday afternoon. Coach Jim sent the varsity first eleven against the freshmen, jerking the veterans early to watch an exhibition of the reserve eleven.

Several of the veterans were out in uniforms, but did not take part in the fray. Joe Barton, although signifying his willingness to take his place, was kept out of the game on doctor's orders. Barton has suffered with a bad leg lately that is just beginning to heal.

The full varsity strength was not present, but the work of the Petrels looked better than on previous occasions. Coach Harry has been giving the line a great deal of instruction lately, and the youngsters seemed to have gathered in some of the pointers. Coach Jim Robertson repeated his workout with the backfield candidates, coaching them in low charging, side stepping and handling of the ball. Both coaches followed the final scrimmage closely, giving instructions and criticisms occasionally, but for the most part watching the men in action. Although the regulars, with one or two newcomers, are expected to get the first show against the Jackets, there is a strong possibility that Coach Jim will give all the promising candidates a chance to show their worth.

GENARO WINS FROM GRAHAM

New York, September 23.—Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, won the decision over Bushy Graham, of Utica, in a 12-round bout tonight. The champion, whose title was not at stake, weighed 113 pounds and Genaro 117 1/2.

Genaro took seven rounds and scored knockdowns in the fourth, seventh and last rounds. Graham bled freely after the round from the mouth and a cut on the right eye. Genaro was unmarked.

The bout was replete with spasms of furious fighting. The champion forced the battle, using a fast left jab and right cross, but found Graham a willing mixer who was always dangerous.

Statistics

Club	W.	L.	P.
Washington	58	69	297
New York	87	62	284
Detroit	84	67	256
St. Louis	74	76	493
Philadelphia	69	80	463
Cleveland	65	85	437
Chicago	65	84	436
Boston	65	85	439

Club	W.	L.	P.
New York	90	59	694
Brooklyn	89	61	596
Pittsburgh	86	60	389
Cincinnati	81	67	514
Chicago	80	67	544
St. Louis	63	84	423
Philadelphia	63	84	423
Boston	65	80	358

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Cincinnati, 4; Boston, 1.
Chicago, 5; Brooklyn, 4.
Pittsburg, 1; New York, 5.
St. Louis, 8; Philadelphia, 7 (10 innings).
INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.
Buffalo, 2-11; Rochester, 3. —
No others played.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Indianapolis, 6; St. Paul, 2.
Columbus, 12; Kansas City, 5.
Toledo, 5; Milwaukee, 4 (10 innings).
No others played.

TODAY'S GAMES

Only three games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at Boston.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
Pittsburg at New York.

---

League Leaders

Club	W.	L.	P.
Players—	G. A. R. H. H. Pet.
Roth	159	119	142
Stephenson	69	232	33
Jameson	140	267	98
Paik	133	165	71
E. Collins	147	248	106

Club	W.	L.	P.
Pitchers	W. L. P.
H. Johnson	37	23	6
Holloway	47	12	5
Pennock	39	21	6
Reumgartner	35	12	6
Whitcomb	34	17	9

Club	W.	L.	P.
Players—	G. A. R. H. H. Pet.
Hornaby	137	121	117
Wheat	138	155	90
Moore	68	194	46
Young	129	134	110
Carler	116	162	83

Club	W.	L.	P.
Pitchers	W. L. P.
Yoe	15	2	2
Vance	34	27	6
Bentley	29	13	5
Neff	29	13	5
Doak	31	14	5

NON-Stop train to MACON, 2 hours 10 minutes. Lv. Atlanta 12 noon, Ar. Macon 2:10 p. m. SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Capt. Fletcher Won't Play Until Vandy Game Oct. 25

BY MARCUS BRYANT.

Athens, Ga., September 23.—(Special.)—A scheduled scrimmage Wednesday for the Georgia Bulldogs will climax their hard preparation for the opening game of the year here next Saturday with the Bears of Mercer University. Red and Black mentors will devote their attention on Thursday and Friday to tapering off all pre-game activities.

Long and strenuous was the workout given the Georgia gridlers by the coaching staff Tuesday afternoon. The earlier part of the session was devoted to signal drills, dummy practice, and execution of backfield formations. To round out the entertainment Coach Woodruff chose a variety team to exhibit its wares against the yearlings of Coach Bachman.

The frosh made an extremely good showing against the varsity eleven and gave no little amount of trouble. Only one team battled with the freshmen team, two other varsity outfits watching from the sidelines, while, and later engaging in a tussle among themselves.

Coaching gloom all over the south to the fans of the Red and Black is the news that Captain John Fletcher will be unable to play for several weeks. It is the belief that Fletcher will not see active duty until the Vanderbilt game, which is scheduled for October 25. This is a great blow for the team and his loss will be keenly felt. Levia, a letter man from last year, will also be out of the game Saturday.

Fighting galore down on Sanford field, is taking place for the places on the chosen eleven. There is not a single position for which a hard fight is not being waged. "Roose" Day has been used at center, along with Steve Clay, S. Hattuck and several others. Mapp, Rogers, Joselove, Bacon, Howard, Johnson, Curran, Cloud, Smith, Pand Lucky Bell, Groves, Forbes, Taylor, Thompson and others are likely to be found in the forward wall when the whistle is blown Saturday. Hollis, Moore, Blount and Kilpatrick have been used the past week at quarter. To round out the backfield, Morton, Kain, Weibers, Nelson, Boland, Butler, Randall, Floyd, Clarke J. D. Thompson and others may be called upon. Nothing definite as to the line will be known until the game according to Coach Woodruff.

J. D. Thompson, Mapp, "Scrappy" Moore and George Morton have been showing up well in the kicking line and one of this quartette is expected to handle this department of play Saturday.

HORSE SHOW PRIZES GIVEN

Plans for a horse show at the Southeastern Fair this year are exceeding those of any previous year, announcement of prizes and classes yesterday indicated.

Every day during the fair two classes will be judged in front of the grandstand for award of approximately $40, appropriated by the Southeastern Fair association, and cups in each class. The judge of classes is a Kentucky man who is coming to the affair especially for the occasion.

Classes for ponies will be judged on Monday afternoon, which is children's day at the fair.

FLA. ALUMNI GET SECTION OF SEATS

Alumni here of the University of Florida will have a special section of seats at Grant field October 11, when Florida meets Georgia Tech, it was announced last night by R. R. Bradley, president of the University of Florida Association of Atlanta.

Mr. Bradley has charge of all arrangements for seats in this Florida section. Reservations can be made with him at 100 North Pryor street.

Cleo Carlyle Scores Both Runs for Visiting Club; Game Today in Marietta

BY GEORGE CONGDON.

Cleo Carlyle, Oglethorpe student and ball player, who is the property of the Detroit American league club, was the difference between a close game and a shutout for Cy Hawkins' Tate semi-pro ball club yesterday at Spiller field. The Crackers won the exhibition tilt, the first of four, by the score of 3 to 2.

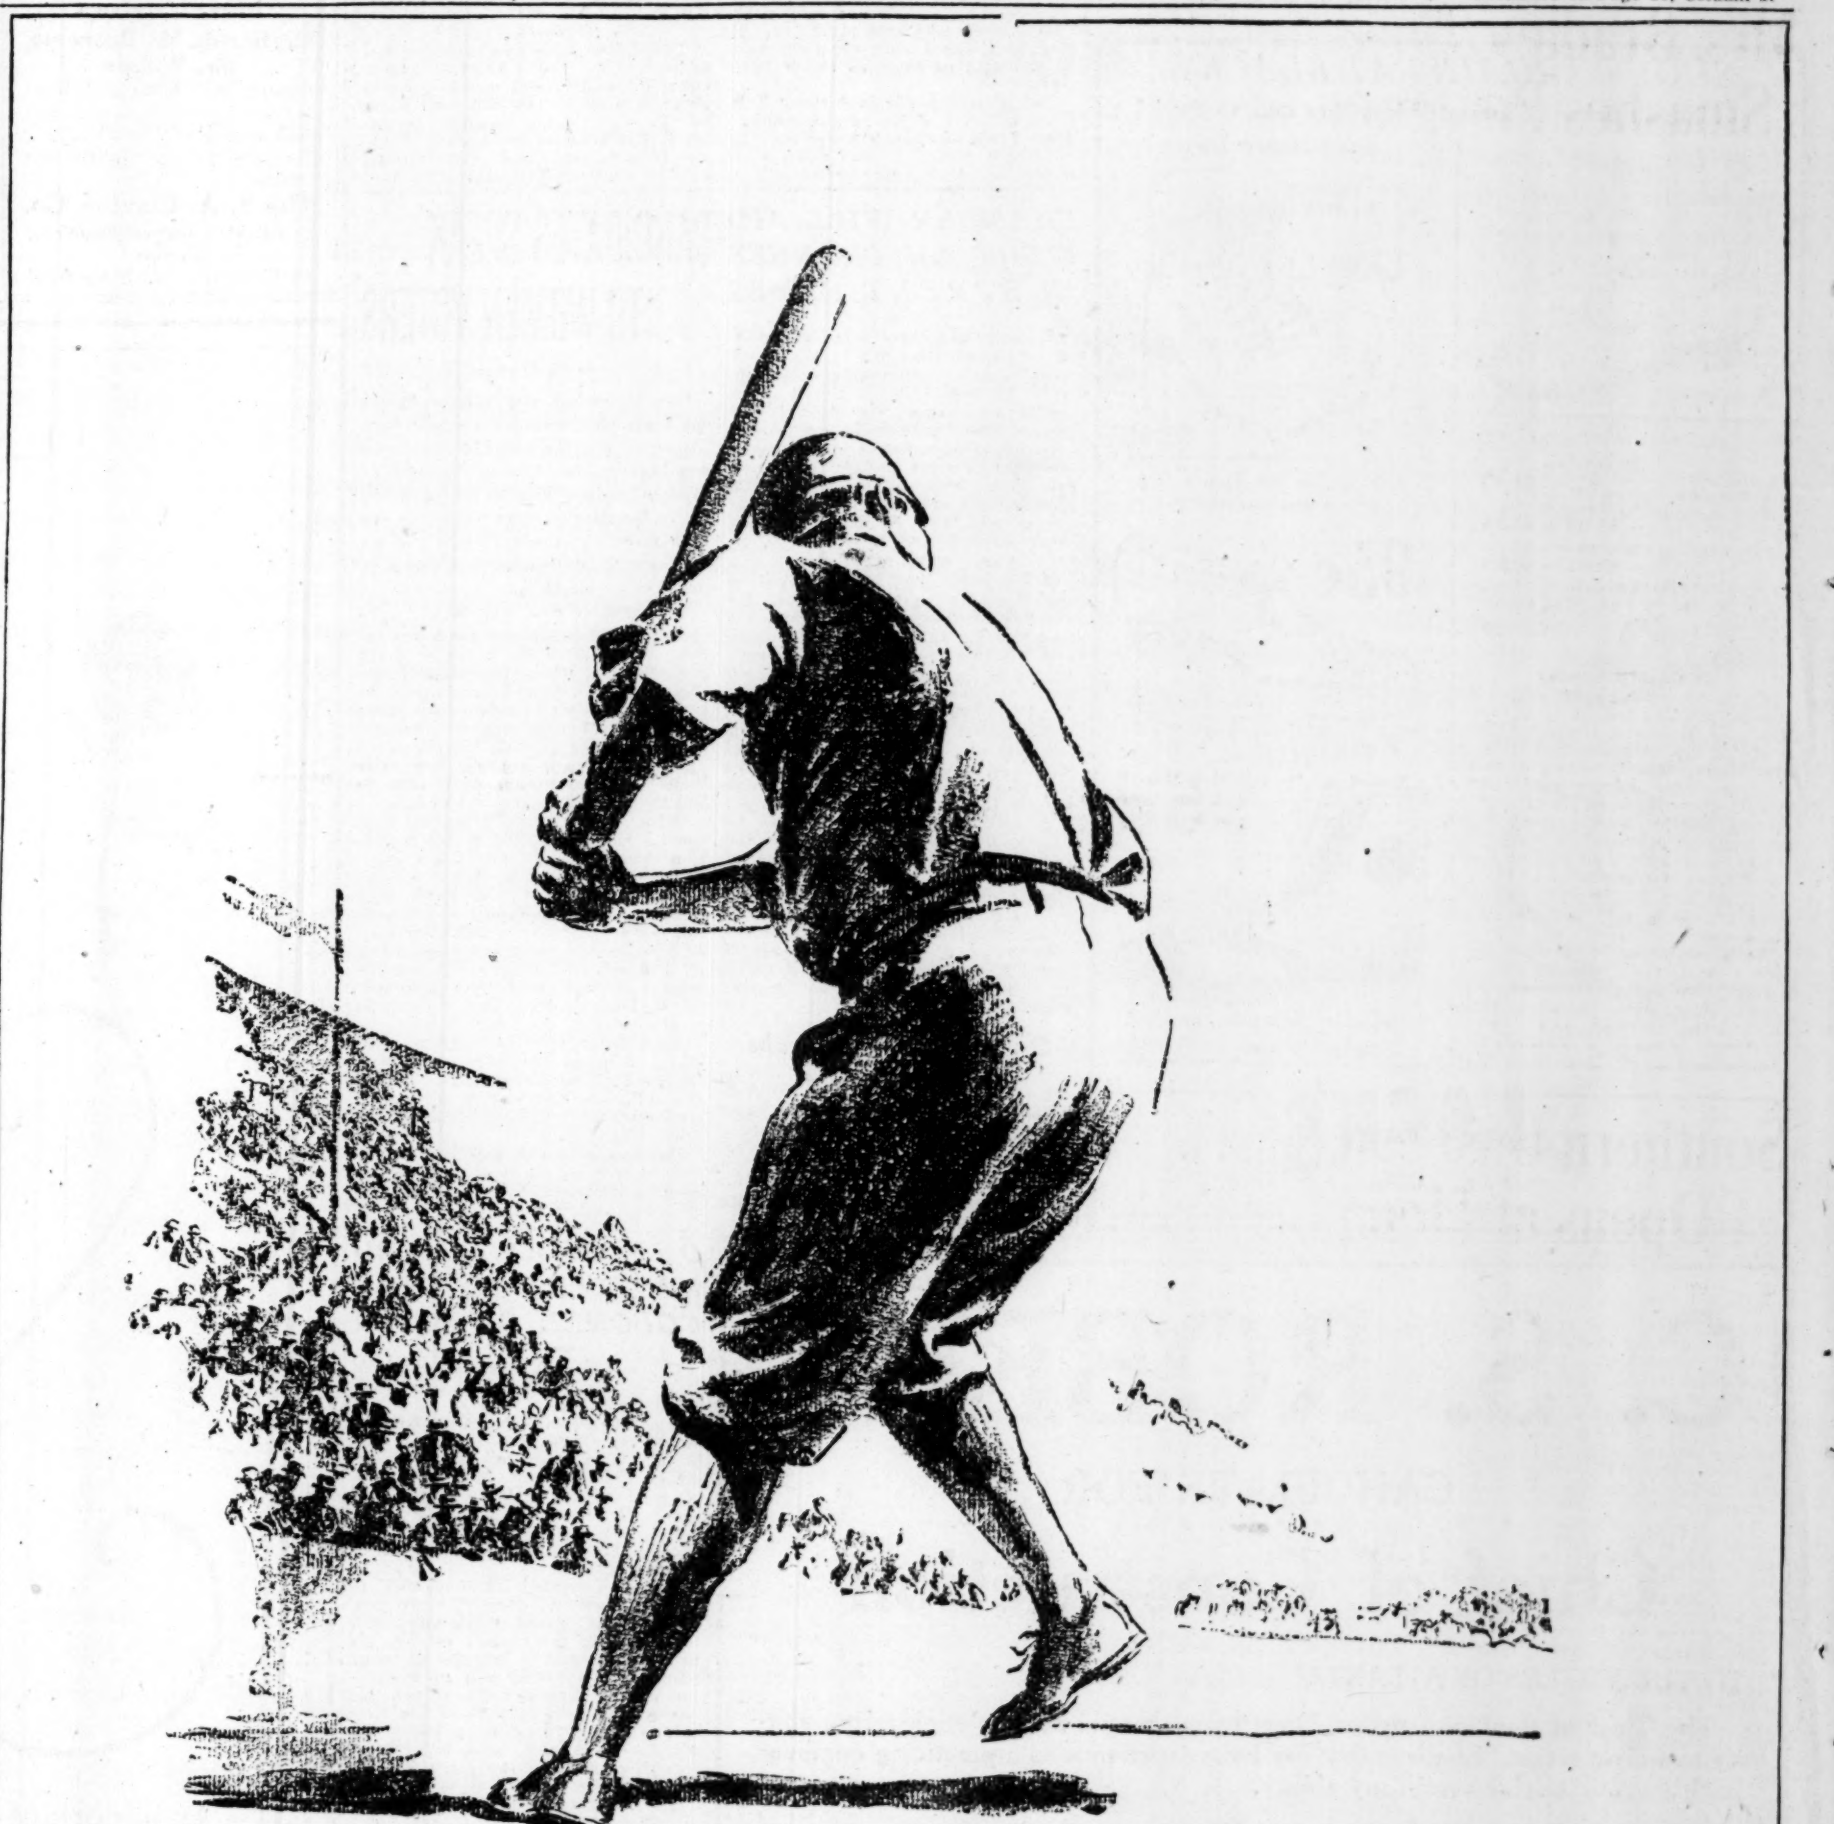

This afternoon the Crackers move over to Marietta for a two-game series with a club composed of the pick of the Tate and Marietta teams. The series starts this afternoon. Friday the Crackers come back to Spiller park for their final post-season appearance in a game with the Georgia Railway & Power company club, winner of the city amateur championship.

Cleo Carlyle will make a whale of a lot better ball player than his brother, Roy, who is finishing his season with the Southern league pennant-winning Chickasaws, if he keeps up at the rate he is going now.

Gets Triple and Double.

The first time he came to bat, Carlyle struck out and the second time he was an easy infield out. The third

Continued on Page 19, Column 1.

—just watch it ride!

CLEAR out of the lot! You know just what to expect when the King of Swat steps into one. He always packs a wallop—that's why he always packs the stands. A cigarette, too, must run true to form. Chesterfield has come up fast because smokers have found that they can depend on it—not only for the same superior blend, the same uniform quality, but for the same untiring good taste, always!

Chesterfield

CIGARETTES

They Satisfy—millions!

now Wear CRESLAWN for real comfort

One of four right styles in

3 for $ SEMI-SOFT PACKET

Finding of a rich vein of ore on a property which seemed to have reached the end of its productivity, has aroused fresh interest in mines of Santa Eulalia, Mexico.

Railroad Schedules

Schedules published as information.
(Central Standard Time.)

ATLANTA TERMINAL STATION

Arrives—	A. & C. RAILWAY	Leaves
7:00 p.m.	Cordley-Waycross	7:30 a.m.
7:45 p.m.	Atlanta-Macon	8:00 a.m.
8:30 a.m.	Tifton-Thomson	9:40 a.m.
9:00 a.m.	A. & W. P. R. R.	Leaves
11:25 p.m.	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:00 a.m.
7:40 p.m.	Newnan-Columbus	7:40 a.m.
8:00 p.m.	Newnan-Macon	8:00 a.m.
7:20 p.m.	New Orleans-Montgomery	1:25 p.m.
7:40 p.m.	New Orleans-Montgomery	4:25 p.m.
8:00 p.m.	New Orleans-Montgomery	5:00 p.m.
8:10 a.m.	West Point Local	5:35 p.m.
8:30 p.m.	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:10 p.m.
Arrives—	C. OF G.
6:05 a.m.	Savannah-Albany	7:45 a.m.
8:35 a.m.	Macon	7:45 a.m.
9:00 a.m.	Waycross	8:00 a.m.
7:00 a.m.	Jacksonville	10:40 a.m.
7:30 a.m.	Waycross	1:00 p.m.
1:35 p.m.	Macon	1:00 p.m.
2:05 p.m.	Savannah	1:30 p.m.
3:35 p.m.	Savannah	9:40 p.m.
Arrives—	SEABOARD AIR LINE	Leaves
8:00 p.m.	Hamlet-Macon	8:10 a.m.
7:45 p.m.	Hamlet-Macon	9:00 p.m.
9:00 p.m.	N. Y. Wash. Rich. N.	11:25 a.m.
6:15 a.m.	Birmingham	11:40 p.m.
6:30 a.m.	Birmingham	12:00 p.m.
11:35 a.m.	Birmingham-Memphis	4:40 p.m.
12:00 p.m.	T. Richmond-Macon	8:00 p.m.
9:30 p.m.	B'ham-Kan. City-Deaver	6:15 a.m.
7:10 p.m.	Charlotte Local	6:15 a.m.
7:30 p.m.	Charlotte Local	6:30 a.m.
7:50 p.m.	Rome-Charl. Local	6:30 a.m.
8:00 p.m.	Rich. N. Wash. Brng	7:45 a.m.
4:05 p.m.	Philadelphia	7:45 a.m.
8:00 p.m.	Columbus Local	8:00 p.m.

10:30 am	Macon-Vadell-Jaxville	12:30 pm
10:30 am	Rome-Chatt.	Local	2:30 pm
11:00 am	Atlanta	Local	3:00 pm
11:25 am	L'Ft. Collet-Detroit	4:10 pm
11:25 am	P. Valley Local	4:15
11:40 am	Birmingham-Memph.	4:25
11:45 am	Birmingham	4:35
8:10 am	Air Line Belle	5:00 pm
7:55 am	Heflin Local	5:25 pm
7:55 am	Atlanta	5:30 pm
7:45 am	Macon-Vadell-Jaxville	7:30 pm
5:55 am	Brunswick-Jacksonville	9:45 pm
5:40 am	Atlanta	9:50 pm
5:40 am	Washington, N. Y.	11:50 pm
8:16 am	Jacksonville	11:50 pm
4:00 pm	Atlanta	12:00 pm
4:00 pm	Birmingham	11:00 am
4:00 pm	Washington, N. Y.	4:00 pm

UNION PASSENGER STATION

Atlanta — GEORGIA RAILROAD — Leave

3:30 pm...	Augusta-Columbia	12:15 pm
8:10 pm...	Augusta	5:30 pm
7:35 pm.....	Social Circle	6:10 pm
7:35 am.....	Social Circle	6:10 pm
6:35 am.....	Charleston-Wilmington	8:00 pm
6:35 am.....	Augusta-Columbia	8:00 pm
Daily except Sunday      Sunday only
Arrives—L. & N. R. R. —Leaves
10:10 pm.	Chl.-Cin.-L'ville-Ind.	7:25 am
5:05 pm	Knoxville via Blue Ridge	7:03 am
0:30

1:35 am	.....	Chicago-Local	4:03 pm
1:35 am	.....	Knokville via Carterville	4:25 pm
Arrives - N. C. & St. L. R.Y. ....Leaves
7:00 pm	.....	Nashville-Chattanooga	7:30 am
7:10 pm	.....	Chicago-St. Louis	8:45 am
7:10 pm	.....	Nashville-Chattanooga	8:45 am
10:45 am	.....	Rome-Chattanooga Local	5:13 pm
10:45 am	.....	Nashville-St. Louis	5:30 pm

INTER-CITY BUS SCHEDULE

Ar. for DIXIE COACHES, INC. Ar. from
7:30 am	..... Athens 9:44 am
4:00 pm	..... Athens 6:14 pm
3:00 pm	..... Thomaston-Griffin 10:15 am
3:30 pm	..... Rome 10:25 am
3:30 pm	..... Rome 10:25 am

BLACK AND WHITE—TAXICABS. WAL-NUT 0200.

---

Announcements

---

Personals 7

DECATUR KINDERGARTEN—Opens October 1; for information call Decatur 1996-W. 63 Southernland drive.

MATERNITY HOSPITAL—Private, confidential. Mrs. V. T. T.

Street, Atlanta, Ga.
MRS. EDITH BARLOW has returned from a tour of the South and is now at the Building Beauty Parlor, Main 4250.
"PERMANENT WAVE"—Lanoli process, exclusive licensed operator. Innan Park, W.
Y 6272-J.
SPECIAL PRICES on permanent waves.
Lamb & Mobley, Main 4942, 200 Connally building.
STEAM PERMANENT WAVE $15; electrolysis
by appointment. Nellie Edwards Beauty Parlor, Main 4845.
UNDERGROUND TREASURES—How and where to find them; particulars for Chicago, Ill. Dept. 49. Como Building, 26
W 215 Connally building for hemstitch-ing, Main 4250. Building Beauty Parlor, Main 4250.
WANTED—Present address of Mrs. E. E. Mullins.
R-mixes, widow of late W. E. Mullins.
address R-155, Constitution.
Strayed, Lost, Found 10
—Lena, leg. leg. semi-circle comb, lost Rich's 1000.

MALE—German police pup found about two weeks ago, owner give description and telephone number. Address R-144 Constitution.

CHAS. FINDER call Deatur 1003.
WARRANT—Watch in downtown section for ALVIN KRAMER. Reward for return, $100. FAX 62-4-7.

TRENT REWARD, $75.—For arrest and con- viction and actual confinement within the territory of thieves who stole 1924 Ford
 touring car, Motor No. 87354-48, License No. 5193-
 10, from Atlanta, Georgia, August 1935. Notifiy
 Automobile Underwriters' Detective Bureau,
 11 Hurt Building, Atlanta, Ga.

TRENT REWARD, $75.—For arrest and con- viction and actual confinement within the territory of thieves who stole 1924 Ford
 touring car, Motor No. 87354-48, License No. 5193-
 10, from Atlanta, Georgia, September 18, 1935. Notifiy
 Automobile Underwriters' Detective Bureau, 401
 Hurt Building, Atlanta, Ga.

TRENT REWARD, $75.—For arrest and con- viction and actual confinement within the territory of thieves who stole 1924 Ford
 touring car, Motor No. 76662-28, License
 No. 5193-10, from Atlanta, Georgia, September 22, 1935. Notifiy Automobile Underwriters' Detective Bureau, 401 Hurt Building, Atlanta, Ga.

TRENT REWARD, $75.—For arrest and con- viction and actual confinement within the territory of thieves who stole 1924 Ford
 touring car, Motor No. 84213-10, License
 No. 5193-10, from Atlanta, Georgia, September 22, 1935. Notifiy Automobile Underwriters' Detective Bureau, 401 Hurt Building, Atlanta, Ga.

Automotive

Automobile Agencies

ROCKE-D D. C. Black, 31 Peachtree street.
ROCKE-B Others cars agency, P. E. Ma-felt, Inc., 161 West Peachtree street.

UDSON-ESSEX touring car. J. W. G.
smith, Jr.-Grant Co., 229 Peachtree.
AKLAND--We sell and buy on merits.

25 Spring street.
OVERLAND, WILLYS-KNIGHT — 414
 Peachtree street. Willys-Overland, Inc.
USED CARS—See Atlanta Cadillac com- pany, 152 West Peachtree.

---

Automobiles for Sale 11

[illegible]

3

